وصف تفصيلي للمخطوطات

وصف تفصيلي لمخطوطات الجزء الأول

Ms.1.

250 folios; 21×15,5 cm; up to 27 lines; Turkish handwriting, sometimes without diacritical points; paper occasionally damp-stained. Text fol.1v-28v and fol.39v-62v within gold frame. Modern half-leather binding. Copied in 1120/1708 (145r); 1170/1756 (250r); 1191/1777 (28v); 1192/1778 (62r; 87v); 1193/1779 (37v); 1197/1782 (29r).

[1002] fol.1v-28v: Abu Sa'id Muhammad al-Khadimi أبو سعيد محمد خزائن الجواهر ومحاسن الزواهر
الزواهر: Khaza'in al-jawahir wa-mahasin al-zawahir

On the author (died after 1176/1762) and this mystical interpretation of the Basmala البسملة see GAL II 351 nr.2 and S II 664 nr.2. - Fol.28v and the contents of fol.1r mention al-Basmala as title. The text may therefore be identical with the Risalat al-Basmala رسالة البسملة (nr.4 in GAL) which has been printed in Istanbul 1261/1845.

Between fol.21v and 22r two smaller folios are inserted; one of them contains a fragment from al-Khadimi, Sharh al-tariqa شرح الطريقة (s. the text on fol.29v-30r).

[1003] fol.29r: Ahmad Ibn Sulayman Ibn Kamal أحمد بن سليمان بن كمال: Shaykh Akbar Muhi al-Din Arabi شيخ أكبر محيي الدين عربي.

A short enumeration of some works of Ibn al-Arabi ابن العربي (died 638/1240); cf. the list of OSMAN YAHYA, Histoire et classification de l'oeuvre d'Ibn Arabi, I-II, Damas 1964.

The author of this enumeration is Ahmad Ibn Sulayman Ibn Kamal Pasha (died 940/1533); see GAL II 449; S II 668.

[1004] fol.29v-30r: A definition of philosophy and logic (no title).

The latest source mentioned (fol.29v10 is Sharh fiqh al-akbar شرح فقه الأكبر by Ali al-Qari al-Herewi علي القاري الهروي (died 1014/1605; see GAL II 394; S II 539). In the margin is added Tariqa Muhammadiya, Sharh Khadimi شرح خادمي طريقة محمدية، شرح خادمي البركوي / البرگلي al-Birkawi/al-Birgili (died 981/1573; cf. GAL II 441 nr.15; S II 655 nr.15), al-Tariqa al-Muhammadiya الطريقة المحمدية, by al-Khadimi الخادمي (died 1176/1762; see above). This commentary is normally called al-Bariqa al-Mahmudiya الطريقة المحمودية (see GAL S II 655 nr.15f.).

[1006] fol.30v: A short note on the art of disputation (munazara مناظرة).

[1007] fol.31r: Laz Efendi Aqa Saydawi لاز أفندي آقا سيدوي Sharh شرح. A short commentary on Sura 11, 108 (110). The copyist has added to the name the variant Aqa Saydali آقا سيدلي. The author cannot be identified.

[1008] fol.31v-37v: Ibrahim al-Husayni إبراهيم الحسيني : Risalat qiyas muta'arif wa-ghayr muta'arif رسالة قياس متعارف وغير متعارف

A commentary on a logical treatise. The author of the commentary is mentioned 31v3 and according to 31v19 was a pupil of Abu Sa'id al-Khadimi أبو سعيد الخادمي (died 1176/1762; see above 1v).

[1009] fol.39v-62v: Isam al-Din Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad Ibn Arabshah al-Isfara'ini عصام الدين إبراهيم بن محمد بن عرب شاه الإسفرائني : Sharh al-isti'arat al-Samarqandiya شرح الاستعارات السمرقندية

A commentary by Isam al-Din (died 944/1537; see GAL II 410; S II 571) on Abu al-Qasim Ibn Abi Bakr al-Laythi al-Samarqandi أبو القاسم بن أبي بكر الليثي السمرقندي Fara'id al-fawa'id li-tahqiq ma'ani al-isti'ara = al-Risala al-Samarqandiya (cp. الفوائد الفوائد لتحقيق معاني الاستعارة = الرسالة السمرقندية GAL II 194; S II 259).

The title of this treatise on the metaphor is not mentioned in the ms.; cp. however ms. Berlin 7299. - The commented text is overlined in red. - In the margin are notes by Zayn al-Din زين الدين (fol.41r); Shaykhzadeh 41 (v) شيخ زاده); al-Sayyid Abd Allah السيد عبد الله (43)r; 45r; 47v); al-Sayyid al-Sharif (43) السيد الشريف) and Ahmad أحمد (54r; 57v).

[1010] fol.39v-62r: In the margin of the above-mentioned text and separate from the notes: Abu Nafi' Ahmad Ibn Muhammad al-Qazabadi (or Isma'il Ibn Muhammad al-Qazabadi, see fol.62r) أبو نافع) شرح على Sharh ala al-farida : أحمد بن محمد القازابادي (أو إسماعيل بن محمد القازابادي الفريدة .

A commentary on the above-mentioned al-Risala al-Samarqandiya . On this still unedited text see GAL S II 260 nr.10 (2 mss.), where the author is called "Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Ibn al-Nafi' al-Qazabadi أحمد بن محمد بن النافع القازابادي". - The commented text is overlined in red or written in red ink. - The texts of Isam al-Din and al-Qazabadi are separated from each other by gold or red lines.

On fol. 25r the title is abbreviated as Hashiyat Isam ala l-isti'ara حاشية عصام على الاستعارة. The full name of the author who wrote around 1040/1630 can be found in ms. Berlin 7304.

The text is a supercommentary on the commentary by Isam al-Din on al-Risala al-Samarqandiya الرسالة السمرقندية (see above fol.39v); cf. GAL II 194, I 1c; S II 259, I 1c.

The text of the Risala al-Samarqandiya is written in red ink; the commentary of Isam al-Din is overlined in red and in the margin the copyist has added a few notes.

BROCKELMANN (GAL II 194 I 7 and S II 260 I 7) mentions al-Zibari once more as the author of a commentary on al-Risala al-Samarqandiya. In view of the fact that our text, which is identical with mss. Berlin 7304 and Gotha 2803, is a complete commentary, it seems unlikely to separate with BROCKELMANN between the commentary and the "notes" of al-Zibari. Accordingly, the authorship of the text in ms. Gotha 2807 (mentioned in GAL II 194 I 7) is not quite clear.

A commenary by Isam al-Din (died 994-1537) on al-Iji's (died 756/1355) semantic treatise on the term wad', called al-Risala al-wad'iya, with notes by Abd Allah al-Kurdi عبد الله الكردي . Further mss.

of this still unedited commentary see GAL II 208, nr.5 and S II 289, nr.5. On al-Iji's treatise cf. B. WEISS, A Theory of the Parts of Speech in Arabic, Arabica 23, 1976, 23-36, esp. 24ff.

Contrary to ms. Berlin 5315 our ms. has added an introduction on fol.91v-92r3. The text of al-Iji is written in red ink. Our text is incomplete and ends on fol.132v with the commentary on yata'ayyanu bi-ma huwa ma'nan fi-hi يتعين بما هو معنى فيه .

[1013] fol.137v-142v: al-Birkawi (al-Birgili) البركلي (البركوي) : Dhukhr al-muta'ahhilin wa-al-nisa' fi ta'rif al-ithar wa-al-dima' ذخر المتأهلين والنساء في تعريف الإطهار والدماء

About the purity and impurity of women, with many glosses on the margin (esp.141v-142v). On the author (died 981/1573) and further mss. of this still unedited text see GAL II 441 nr.11 and S II 655 nr.11. - According to the colophon (142v; cf. also ms. Berlin 4671) the treatise was composed by the author in 979/1572.

[1014] fol.143r-145r: al-Birkawi (al-Birgili) البركلي (البركوي) : Iqaz al-na'imin إيقاظ النائمين

About the blameworthiness of being pious only for the sake of success and reward. The treatise was composed in 972/1564 (s. fol.145r). According to Hajji Khalifa (Kashf al-zunun, listed under the title) the text is a reaction to Abu al-Su'ud al-Imadi's أبو السعود العمادي (died 982/1574; see GAL II 439; S II 651) refutation of Birkawi's Inqadh al-halikin إنقاذ الهالكين (cf. GAL II 440 nr.1; S II 654 nr.1 and the following text in our ms.).

In the margin are many glosses. For further mss. of this still unedited text cf. GAL II 441 nr.16 and S II 656 nr.16.

[1015] fol.146v-148v: al-Birkawi (al-Birgili) البركلي (البركوي) : Inqadh al-halikin إنقاذ الهالكين

About the question whether one is allowed to receive money for the recitation of the Koran or not. Further mss. of this still unedited text are mentioned in GAL II 440 nr.1 and S II 654 nr.1. - Cf. also the preceding text, fol.143r-145r.

A few glosses can be found in the margin of the text which is not complete at the end (ends with al-mabhath al-thani: fi haqiqat al-riya' (المبحث الثاني: في حقيقة الرياء)).

The following six folios are blank.

[1016] fol.155v-188r: Molla Khosraw (Muhammad Ibn Faramurz Ibn Ali) (ملا خسرو (محمد بن فرامرز بن علي): Mir'at al-usul fi sharh mirqat al-wusul (مرآة الأصول في شرح مرآة الوصول).

A commentary by Molla Khosraw (died 885/1480) on his Mirqat al-wusul (printed; see GAL II 227 nr.2; S II 317 nr.2). In the margin notes can be found from the following scholars: Ahmad al-Rumi أحمد الرومي خسرو (161v-163r and 179v; identical with Khosraw al-Rumi who is mentioned GAL S II 317 nr.2d?); Ibn Malak ابن ملك , Sharh manar al-anwar wa-jami' al-asrar شرح منار الأنوار وجامع الأسرار (163r; 182v) = perhaps Ibn al-Malak Abd al-Latif Ibn Abd al-Aziz ابن الملك عبد اللطيف بن عبد العزيز (died 797/1395; GAL S II 315) who is mentioned in GAL S II 315 nr.4 as author of Sharh manar al-anwar (cp. also Bursali Mehemmed Tahir, Osmanli Mü'ellifleri, Istanbul 1334/1915-1343/1924 (repr.1971), I 219, -7ff.); anonymous, Miftah al-usul مفتاح الأصول (168r) = perhaps anon., Miftah al-husul li-Mir'at al-usul مفتاح الحصول لمرآة الأصول as mentioned in GAL S II 317 nr. 2k; Mufti Tarasusi (169) (مفتي طرسوسي); printed: see GAL S II 317 nr.2b.c); Hasan Chelebi (حسن چلبی) (162; 182v) = Hasan Chelebi Ibn Muhammad Shah Ibn al-Fanari (حسن چلبی بن محمد شاه بن الفناری) who died 886/1481 (see GAL S II 321f.); anon., Talwih (تألیف) (182); anon., Tahrir (تحریر) (160). The text is incomplete at the end.

About logic and the art of disputation, composed in 1117/1705. On the author and the mss. of this still unedited text see GAL II 370 nr.6; S II 498 nr.6. - Fol.200 is blank; as a comparison with ms. Berlin 5333 shows, some text from the end of the introduction to the end of the first maqam مقام = al-ta'rifat التعريفات is missing.

Ms.2.

89 folios; 21×15,5 cm; 17-18 lines; Turkish handwriting, unvocalized. Paper sometimes with water stains. Modern half-leather binding. Hand of the end of the 12th/18th century.

[1018] fol.1v-60v: Muhammad Ibn Abi Bakr محمد بن أبي بكر : Arba'un hadithan fi al-afw wa-al-ghufran = Kitab Usfuri أربعون حديثاً في العفو والغفران = كتاب عصفوري .

A few glosses are added in the margin. The same text can be found without introduction in ms. Berlin 1545 which ends on fol.60r1 of our ms. The Berlin ms. has neither title nor author. BROCKELMANN (GAL S II 942 nr.128) has supposed "al-Usfuri العصفوري" to be part of the author's name, but could not identify the text and the author. He does not mention the Berlin ms. A further ms. is in Bagdad, Maktabat al-Awqaf nr.545 (s. Abd Allah al-Juburi عبد الله الجبوري , Fahras al-makhtutat al-arabiya fi Maktabat al-Awqaf al-Amma fi Bagdad فهرس المخطوطات العربية في مكتبة الأوقاف العامة في بغداد , Bagdad 1973, p.180). - The mss. in the possession of Brill as mentioned by BROCKELMANN (GAL) are now in Princeton (Garrett-collection) nr.1443 and 1445; they give Kitab Usfuri as title and Muhammad Ibn Abi Bakr as author; the ms.1445 is copied in 965/1558; this means that the text must be composed before the 11th/16th century.

Munabbihat ala al-isti'dad li-yawm al-ma'ad المنبهات على الاستعداد ليوم المعاد .
The title is mentioned 62v4 and can be identified by comparison with the Berlin mss. 8505p; 8706/1; 8706/2; 8766/3 and 8706/5.
But the mss. show divergences; cf. ms. Berlin 8706/2 and ms. India Office Library (London) 187 which are slightly abridged. For further mss. and the editions see GAL II 69 nr.34 and S II 74 nr.34.;
Catalogue of the Mingana Collection of Manuscripts IV = Islamic Arabic Manuscripts, Birmingham 1963, nr.159 and 1029.

Ms.3.

155 folios; 25×18,5 cm; 25 lines; nasta'liq; brown paper, stained with water, sometimes repaired. Modern half-leather binding.
Copied 1000/1591 (or, in part a few years later; see the note on 155r which is not quite clear).

[1020] fol.4v-155r: Ubayd Allah Ibn Mas'ud Ibn Taj al-Shari'a عبيد الله
شرح الوقاية Sharh al-Wiqaya: ابن مسعود بن تاج الشريعة
A commentary by Ubayd Allah Ibn Mas'ud Sadr al-Shari'a al-Thani عبيد الله بن مسعود صدر الشريعة الثاني (died 747/1346) on Wiqayat al-riwaya fi masa'il al-Hidaya وقاية الرواية في مسائل الهداية , an abridged version of the Bidayat al-mubtadi' بداية المبتدئ , a hanafite compendium on the furu'
علي بن أبي بكر بن عبد فروع by Ali Ibn Abi Bakr Ibn Abd al-Jalil al-Marghinani الجليل المرغفاني (died 593/1197). The abridgement wrote Burhan al-Din Mahmud برهان الدين محمود , a brother of al-Marghinani. On the text cf.
GAL I 377 and S II 646. The margin of the ms. contains many glosses. The commented text is overlined in red ink; he is indicated by the red letter "m م" (= matn متن); the commentary is indicated by the red letter "sh ش" (= sharh شرح). Titles are written in red ink.
Between fol.27v and 28r two slips with notes are inserted, some of them by Ahmad Chelebi أحمد چلبی .

Ms.4.

170 folios; 21,5×15,5 cm; 23 lines; naskhi; modern half-leather binding. Handwriting of the end of the 12th/18th century. Owner's remark on fol.160v with the year 1292/1875.

The arrangement of the folios is not correct; fol.1-22 should be 12-41; fol.23-28 should be 164-169; fol.29-99 should be 42-112; fol.100-110 should be 1-11; fol.111-118 should be 113-120; fol.119-126 should be 13-20; fol.127-169 should be 121-163.

[1021] Anonymous: An extensive commentary to Sura 2.

The text is not complete at the beginning. The anonymous author refers to the canonical collections of traditions (al-Tirmidhi الترمذي , Abu Da'ud أبو داود , al-Nasa'i النسائي , Malik Ibn Anas مالك بن أنس , Ahmad Ibn Hanbal أحمد بن حنبل , al-Bukhari البخاري , Muslim مسلم); he cites Abu Hanifa أبو حنيفة and esp. al-Shafi'i الشافعي ; furthermore: al-Baghawi البغوي (perhaps Abu Muhammad al-Husayn Ibn Mas'ud al-Farra' al-Baghawi أبو محمد الحسين بن مسعود الفراء البغوي who died 510/1117: see GAL I 363f.; S I 620); Ibn al-Arabi ابن العربي , Ahkam al-qur'an أحكام القرآن (it is not clear, whether this text is identical with the commentary by Abd al-Razzaq al-Qashani عبد الرزاق القاشاني which is ascribed to Ibn al-Arabi; see on this ascription O. YAHYA, Histoire et classification de l'oeuvre d'Ibn Arabi, II, Damas 1964, p.483f.); the commentaries by al-Tabari الطبري and Fakhr al-Din al-Razi فخر الدين الرازي (died 606/1209; cf. GAL I 506; S I 920); the commentary by Muhi al-Din al-Nawawi محي الدين النووي (died 676/1277) to the collection of traditions by Muslim (mentioned in GAL I 160; S I 265); finally (69r8) Abu Mas'ud al-Dimashqi أبو مسعود الدمشقي (= Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad Ibn Ubayd al-Dimashqi إبراهيم بن محمد بن عبيد الدمشقي who died 400/1010: see KAHHALE I 101) on the authenticity of a tradition. Therefore the terminus post quem of this commentary is the 7th/13th century.

Ms.5.

301 folios; 22×17 cm; 27 lines; naskhi; modern half-leather binding; hand of the early 12th/18th century.

Beginning and end as well as fol.22-26 are missing. As a comparison with ms. Berlin 8836 shows the ms. contains the following text:

[1022] al-Birkawi (Al-Birgili) البركوي (البرگلي) : al-Tariqa al-Muhammadiya الطريقة المحمدية, with an extensive anonymous commentary.

al-Birkawi (died 981/1573) describes in this work the exemplary life modelled on that of Muhammad. The text starts in the ms. with chapter 3, section 2. - Cf. GAL II 441 nr.15 and S II 655 nr.15. In the margin are glosses by Rajab Efendi رجب أفندي . They may perhaps derive from Rajab Ibn Ahmad رجب بن أحمد who wrote around 1087/1676 a commentary to the Tariqa طريقة (called al-Wasila al-Ahmadiya الوسيلة الأحمدية ; see below ms. nr.6).

Ms.6.

220 folios; 31,5×21,5 cm; 31 lines; naskhi; modern binding. Copied by Yusuf Ibn Uthman Ibn Husayn in Gülshetri during Safar 1147/July 1734.

[1023] Rajab Ibn Ahmad رجب بن أحمد : al-Wasila al-Ahmadiya الوسيلة الأحمدية.

On this commentary on al-Birkawi البركوي , al-Tariqa al-Muhammadiya الطريقة المحمدية (cf. above ms. nr.5) see GAL II 441 nr.15b and S II 655 nr.15b. - The commented text is overlined in red. The first seven folios are missing.

Ms.7.

67 folios; 21×15 cm; 15-22 lines; naskhi; modern half-leather binding. Between fol.63v and 67r2 folios from another ms. are inserted (s. below). Copied 1098/1686 (fol.31v; 50v by al-Hajji Hasan Ibn Molla Muhammad) and 1097/1685 (643v by Mustafa Ibn Bakr).

[1024] fol.1v-31v: Abu Hamid al-Ghazzali أبو حامد الغزالي: Bidayat al-hidaya بداية الهداية.

On this author (died 505/1111) and his treatise on religious ethics (composed after his Ihya' ulum al-din إحياء علوم الدين) see description of ms.265.

[1025] fol.32v-43v: Anonymous: Hayat al-qulub li-ma yazulu bihi ilal al-jahl wa-al-dhunub حياة القلوب لما يزول به علل الجهل والذنوب.

The text is identical with mss. Berlin 1891 and 3142 and ms. Mingana (Birmingham) 1296. It is not mentioned in GAL and deals in seven chapters with the duties of the believer (see the description of ms. Berlin 1891 by AHLWARDT). Some folios contain glosses in the margin (esp.40v and 41r). Our ms. is the oldest copy of the text which must therefore have been composed before the 11th/17th century.

[1026] fol.44r-48v: Anonymous: Fusul ashara فصول عشرة.

The author is not mentioned. Hajji Khalifa (Kashf al-zunun IV nr.9093) and BURSALI MEHEMMED TAHIR, Osmanli Mü'ellifleri (Istanbul 1334/1915-1343/1924) I 18 mention Ibn Isa Ibn Majd al-Din al-Aqhisari al-Sarukhani ابن عيسى بن مجد الدين الأقيصاري الصاروخاني (died 967/1559) as author of such a work. It is a treatise on ritual purity and on prayer, in 10 chapters.

It is not yet clear, whether the text should be identified with Ibn al-Majdi al-Qahiri al-Shafi'i ابن المجدي القاهري الشافعي (died 850/1447; see GAL S II 158), al-Fusul al-ashara الفصول العشرة (entered in GAL S III 1259, supplement to 159.10, nr.28).

[1027] fol.49v-50v: al-Hajji Hasan Ibn Molla Muhammad الحاجي حسن
:بن ملا محمد an explanation of iman إيمان, in six short chapters.

Author and text are not mentioned by the bio-bibliographical sources. According to the colophon the text is copied by the author himself in the year 1098/1686.

[1028] fol.52v-63v: An extract from a work on jurisprudence (fiqh فقہ).

The text must be composed after the 11th/17th century: fol.61v mentions al-Qadi Abu Bakr Ibn al-Arabi القاضي أبو بكر بن العربي who wrote during the time of Murad IV whose reign was 1058-1099/1648-1687, Siraj al-muridin سراج المريدين. That title is not mentioned in GAL (S II 647), however by Hajji Khalifa, Kashf al-zunun III nr.7081.

[1029] fol.64r-64v; 67r: Some notes on the use of the Siwak سواك, a stick used for cleaning the teeth and on prescriptions for prayer.

[1030] fol.65r-66v: al-Ghazzali الغزالي: Ayyuha al-walad أيها الولد.
A fragment. On the author (died 505/1111) and the text (= ed. TOUFIC SABBAGH, Al-Ghazali, Lettre au disciple, 2e éd. Beyrouth 1959, p.37, 11-45, 13) see GAL I 423 nr.32 and S I 750 nr. 32.

Ms.8.

161 folios; 21×15 cm; 21-24 lines; naskhi; titles and beginnings of the chapters are written in yellow ink. Paper sometimes slightly damaged. Between fol.61 and 62v a loose folio with glosses; also between 112v and 113v: a folio with an extract in Turkish from al-Maghnisawi المغنساوي , Sharh al-fiqh al-akbar شرح الفقه الأكبر (by Abu Hanifa أبو حنيفة). - Modern half-leather binding. Copied in 1182/1768 (112v; 149v) by Ahmad Ibn Ibrahim in the Madrasat Sakhmanara at Janpur.

After a short remark on the ubi-sunt-gui-ante-nos-theme (the present generation will perish like the former prophets and even Muhammad) on 1r and after the enumeration of the contents (2r-3v) the ms. contains the following texts:

[1031] fol.4v-112v: Anonymous: Zubdat al-wa'izin fi bayan kalam rabb al-alamin زبدة الواعظين في بيان كلام رب العالمين

The text is not mentioned in GAL but can be found in Hajji Khalifa (Kashf al-zunun III nr.6840), also without author. The beginning of the text as transmitted by Hajji Khalifa proves the identity of both texts. It is a compendium (mukhtasar مختصر) in 48 chapters of which 6 chapters should be studied every week.

The text is a devotional book containing much material from Islamic law, the Koran, tradition and legends. We find anecdotes about al-Hasan al-Basri (الحسن البصري) 9r; 14r; 51v; 57v; 64r; 65r; 71v; 76r; 90v; 109r), figures of the Old Testament, sometimes with Wahb Ibn Munabbih (وهب بن منبه) as source (55r6; 79r9; 88r14; 109r); legends about Jesus (49r; 101r; 103r; 105v), about Abd al-Rahman Ibn Firdaws (عبد الرحمن بن فردوس) 76r), Abu Dharr al-Ghifari (أبو ذر الغفاري) 45r), Abu Mansur al-Maturidi (أبو منصور الماتريدي) and his 80 years old teacher shortly before his death (61r14ff.); Ali Ibn Abi Talib (علي بن أبي طالب) 40r; 75r, -3ff.); Abu Ja'far al-Tayyar (أبو جعفر الطيار) 67r); Mansur Ibn Uthman (منصور بن عثمان) 58v; 59r); Ma'ruf al-Karkhi (معارف الكرخي) 77v, ult.ff.); Sultan Mahmud (سلطان محمود) and Iyas (إياس) about the question of standing before the Sultan as a mark of esteem (cf. on this K. DILGER, Untersuchungen zur Geschichte des osmanischen Hofzeremoniells im 15. und 16. Jh., München 1967, p.77f.; H. KINDERMANN, Über die guten Sitten beim Essen und Trinken, Leiden 1964, p.131f.); Sahl Ibn Abd Allah (= al-Tustari?) سهل بن عبد الله 34 (التستري؟)r and 45r; Uthman عثمان (70v); Yahya Ibn Sulayman يحيى بن سليمان (78).

Most of the cited sources belong to Hanafite circles of the 6th/11-12th century. The Fatawi فتاوي by Bazzazi البزازي (= Hafiz al-Din Muhammad Ibn Muhammad al-Bazzazi محمد بن محمد البزازي who died 827/1424: see GAL II 225; S II 316) on fol.21v8 form the terminus post quem of this text. It must have been composed between 827/1424 and 1067/1657 (death of Hajji Khalifa). It is not only a collection of Hanafite rules of Islamic law but also an important compilation from sometimes old and rare sources.

In the margin the copyist has added many glosses, mainly philological explanations in Turkish of single expressions; the source is Akhtari أختري or Akhtari kabir كبير (8v; 15v; 24r etc.) = most likely the Arabic-Turkish dictionary of Mustafa Ibn Shams al-Din al-Qarahisari al-Akhtari مصطفى بن شمس الدين القرهساري الأختري (died 968/1560: see GAL S II 630; cf. ms. Berlin 7000 and 7001). - Many glosses are ascribed to a man called "(al-)Qadi 16" القاضي (20r; 27r etc.), some to "Rajab 28" رجب (98r; 100r) or "Rajabiya 27" رجبية (28r; 68r) ; cited texts are the Masabih مصابيح (106), the Sharh masabih شرح مصابيح (20) or al-Masabih wa-sharhuhu 97) = perhaps Masabih al-sunna مصابيح السنة by al-Husayn Ibn Mas'ud al-Farra' al-Baghawi الحسين بن مسعود الفراء البغوي which has been commented many times (see GAL I 363 nr.1 and S I 620 nr.1); the Jami' mawa'iz al-Bukhari جامع مواظ البخاري (5; 5v; 22r); Mishkat al-anwar مشكاة الأنوار (30; 30v) = perhaps the title mentioned in GAL S I 751; Kashf al-haqa'iq كشف الحقائق (17); Shaykhzade شيخ زاده, al-Hashiya lil-Qadi al-Baydawi الحاشية للقاضي البيضاوي (4); cf. GAL S I 739 nr.12 and S II 650); Tabyin al-maharim تبیین المحارم (5); according to GAL II 387 and S II 452 and 524 acribed to Sinan al-Din Yusuf Ibn al-Wa'iz سنان الدين

Tibyan 16) (تبيين); Mukashafat al-qulub 30) (مكاشفة القلوب); by al-Ghazzali (فراند 31) Fara'id); see GAL I 425 nr.61 and S I 755 nr.61); الغزالي anwar 54) (بهجة الأنوار); al-Tanbih 65) (التنبيه); al-Ihya' wa-al-rawda الإحياء 66) (الروضة); Tafsir al-Shaykh 98) (تفسير الشيخ) etc. - Our text is cited in the anonymous collection of sayings by the prophet in the ms.

Berlin 1646/2 (written around 1200/1785).

[1032] fol.113v-149v: Anonymous: Kitab ahwal al-qiyama =
Daqa'iq al-akhbar fi dhikr al-janna wa-al-nar كتاب أحوال القيامة = دقائق الأخبار في ذكر الجنة والنار.

This eschatological text has neither title nor author; it is identical with the text which is edited by M. WOLFF, Muhammedanische Eschatologie, Leipzig 1872 and with the numerous editions bearing the title Daqa'iq al-akhbar دقائق الأخبار etc., see GAL S II 420; cp. S I 346). - In the margin the copyist has added philological notes from al-Akhtari الأختري (see preceding text). fol.153v-160r: A collection of excerpts from the following texts:

[1033] 1) Jila' al-qulub (جلاء القلوب) (by al-Birkawi البركوي; see GAL II 440 nr.5; S II 654 nr.5): fol.153v-154r13. See ms.17, fol.71v-91v.

[1034] 2) al-Baydawi البيضاوي, Anwar al-tanzil أنوار التنزيل: 154r13-154v9.

[1035] 3) Tafsir تفسير by Abu al-Layth al-Samarqandi أبو الليث السمرقندي
(cf. GAL I 196 nr.1; S I 347 nr.1).

[1036] 4) Mukashafat al-qulub (مكاشفة القلوب) by al-Ghazzali الغزالي (cf.
preceding text, glosses).

[1037] 5) Tafsir kabir تفسير كبير, a commentary on Sura 30, 41 (40): fol.155v18-156v, ult.

[1038] 6) Tanbih al-ghafilin تنبيه الغافلين, perhaps by Abu al-Layth al-Samarqandi أبو الليث السمرقندي (GAL I 196 nr.4; S I 348 nr.9): fol.157r1.

[1039] 7) A fragment of a commentary on Sura 87, 14: fol.157v19-158v7.

[1040] 8) An anonymous treatise on Fadilat laylat al-qadr فضيلة ليلة القدر: fol.158v7-160r (incomplete at the end).

There are a few glosses in the margin of the excerpts mentioned.

Ms.9.

155 folios; 21×12 cm; 17 lines; nasta'liq. Modern leather binding with the original vignettes and a frame made from golden points. Copied Ramadan 1112/January 1701 in Ayntab by Khidr Ibn al-Hajji Ibn Muhammad al-Antalyawi al-Qardaji (fol.155r).

[1041] fol.1v-13v: al-Baydawi البيضاوي: Lubb al-albab fi ilm al-i'rab لب الأبواب في علم الإعراب.

An explanation of grammatical terms which are written in red ink. According to Hajji Khalifa (Kashf al-zunun V nr.306) the text is an extract from Ibn al-Hajib ابن الحاجب, al-Kafiya الكافية (about syntax). This classification is taken over by BROCKELMANN, GAL I 305; however, the text is wrongly classified in GAL I 303 I 3 as a commentary by al-Baydawi and in GAL I 418 IV; S I 742 IV as an independent work by al-Baydawi. A further ms. is Chester Beatty 4315/2 (fol.42-80); cf. also the following commentary by al-Birkawi البركوي which includes the text of al-Baydawi.

A comprehensive commentary by al-Birkawi (died 981/1573) on the preceding text by al-Baydawi البيضاوي (written in red ink). Cf. GAL II 441 nr.17; S II 656 nr.17.

Many glosses are added in the margin: 26r mentions the commentary of Isam al-Din al-Isfara'ini عصام الدين الإصفرائني on the al-Kafiya الكافية of Ibn al-Hajib ابن الحاجب (cf. GAL I 304 nr.14; S I 534 nr.14); 57r mentions the Hashiyat al-Jami حاشية الجامي = perhaps the commentary by Molla Jami ملا جامي on Ibn al-Hajib, al-Kafiya; 98r refers to Nata'ij al-afkar, a commentary by Mustafa Ibn Hamza Ataly إظهار الأسرار مصطفى بن حمزة أطلي on al-Birkawi, Izhar al-asrar : cf. GAL II 441 nr.20b: it is different from the commentary by Mustafa Ibn Hamza Ataly on Imtihan al-adhkiya' (mentioned in GAL S I 742 IV b): cf. Nata'ij al-afkar نتائج الأفكار , ms. Berlin 6784 and Hashiya ala Imtihan al-adhkiya' حاشية على امتحان الأذكياء ms. Princeton (Garrett-collection) 385!

After fol.16v a slip of paper is inserted; it contains excerpts from a commentary on Abu Hanifa أبو حنيفة, al-Fiqh al-akbar الفقه الأكبر. Three more slips of paper with notes are added after fol.17v.

Further mss. of al-Birkawi's Imtihan al-adhkiya' (uned.): Bibl. Centr. Univ. Teheran nr.3240; Iraq Museum nr.702 (copied 1046/1636). - As G. Vajda (Journal asiatique 240, 1952, p.5f.) has shown, the text is - contrary to BROCKELMANN (GAL I 418) - different from ms. Paris 4120.

Ms.10.

[1043] al-Halabi, Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad Ibn Ibrahim الحلبي، إبراهيم بن
ملتقى الأبحر: Multaqa al-abhur محمد بن إبراهيم

On this handbook of Hanafite law cf. GAL II 432 and S II 642. A new edition with Turkish translation by Mustafa Uysal appeared in Istanbul 1974 (4 parts). - Our ms. is copied 114 years after the completion of the work by the author (in Rajab 923/July 1517). It is incomplete at the beginning and fol.210-213.

193 folios; 19,5×14 cm; 15 lines; naskhi (fol.2-63) and nasta'liq (fol.64ff.). Text within red frame and chapter-headings in red ink. Paper in part damaged and repaired. Original leather binding with vignettes which are comparable with the type nr. 96 as described by MAX WEISWEILER, Der islamische Bucheinband des Mittelalters, Wiesbaden 1962, p.55. - Owners' remarks from the years 1234/1818 by Mustafa Hamdi (1r; 229); 1269/1852 by al-Sayyid Isma'il (1st page) and 1240/1824 by al-Sayyid Mustafa al-Hamdi al-Kirmani, teacher in Bursa (1r). Hand of the 12th/18th century.

[1047] al-Halabi الحلبي: Multaqa al-abhur ملتقى الأبحر, with commentary (Khalij al-bihar خليج البحار) by Qassabzade قصاب زاده. Cf. the description of ms.10. Author and title of the commentary are not mentioned in our ms. According to the colophon the commentary was finished during 1055/1645. Among the 30 commentators of Multaqa al-abhur as mentioned by BURSALI MEHEMMED TAHIR, Osmanli Mü'ellifleri (Istanbul 1334/1915-16, repr. 1971) I 183 the Turkish scholar Qassabzade Muhammad Efendi محمد أفندي wrote a commentary during the year 1055/1645. According to the ms. preserved in Cairo (Dar al-Kutub al-Misriya, see Fähras I, Cairo 1921, p.419a) it has the title Khalij al-bihar. A further ms. of this still unedited commentary is mentioned in GAL II 432 nr.1a. The margins of some pages contain a few glosses. An enumeration of the chapters is given on the first three folios.

Ms.14.

43 folios (Arabic pagination starts on fol.6r = 1r); 21×15 cm; 23 lines; naskhi; commented text overlined in red. Modern half-leather binding. Owner's remark of the year 1201/1786. (cf. ms. Berlin 6784).

[1048] fol.5v-42v: al-Ayshi Muhammad Efendi al-Tirahwi العيشي محمد .
روح الشروح ومعين النعم Ruh al-shuruh wa-ma'in al-ni'am : أفندي التيراهوي
A commentary on the Kitab al-Maqsud fi al-sarf كتاب المقصود في الصرف (on grammar) which is ascribed to Abu Hanifa أبو حنيفة . Our ms. does not mention an author. The ms. Princeton (Garrett-collection) nr.307 and the ms. in Cairo, Dar al-kutub al-misriya (see Fahras al-kutub al-arabiya al-mawjuda bi-dar al-kutub II, Cairo 1345/1926, p.57a) mention Isa Efendi al-Sirawi عيسى أفندي السيراوي as author. Cf.
however BURSALI MEHEMMED TAHIR, Osmanli Mü'ellifleri I (Istanbul 1334/1915-16) p.359 and MEHMET SÜREYYA, Sijill-i Osmani III, Istanbul 1311/1893, p.613, 4ff.; BURSALI confirms in a chronogram (for the year of al-Ayshi's death, namely 1061/1650) the name al-Ayshi instead of Isa. BROCKELMANN (GAL S II 657 nr.25b) has correctly "Muhammad Efendi al-Ayshi محمد أفندي العيشي " as author of Ruh al-shuruh, but mentions elsewhere (S II 658 nr.25f.)
the text a second time with "Isa Efendi al-Sirawi" as author, without realizing the identity of both texts.
A few glosses in the margin. The contents of the main text are given on fol.3v-4r.

Ms.15.

[1054] fol.1v-14v: An anonymous work about Islamic law, incomplete at the end. With glosses in the margin.

[1055] fol.15v-48v: al-Halabi, Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad الحلبي، إبراهيم بن رسالة أهم الأمور Risalat Ahamm al-umur محمد.

The title is mentioned 16r, -7f. and the author can be found in two mss. in Turkey: see the Union Catalogue of Mss. in Turkey IV, Istanbul 1984, p.38 and 130; a third ms. is Iraq Museum nr.1932 (p.103-159). This theological compendium is directed against the determinists: Cf. H. DAIBER, Das theologisch-philosophische System des Mu'ammār Ibn Abbad al-Sulami معمر بن عباد السلمي (gest.830 n.Chr.), Beirut-Wiesbaden 1975, p.377 note 2; p.96 and 192, note 3. - Remarkable is an excerpt from an unknown commentary (sharh شرح) by Yahya Ibn Abi Bakr al-Hanafi يحيى بن أبي بكر الحنفي (mentioned by F. SEZGIN, Geschichte des arabischen Schrifttums I, Leiden 1967, p.434) on the Creed (al-fiqh al-akbar الفقه الأكبر) by Abu Hanifa (al-Imam al-a'zam الإمام الأعظم) on fol.16r 2-8. Yahya Ibn Abi Bakr wrote in the 4th/10th century (see DAIBER p.174 n.3). The author of the Risalat Ahamm al-umur also wrote a summary (ikhtisar اختصار) for beginners which is preserved in ms. Berlin 1893 (fol.234v-249; copied 1150/1737). Both texts are still unedited and not mentioned in GAL.

On the author and this text see ms. nr.1, fol.146v-148v. The text is incomplete between fol.62 and 63 (perhaps 1 folio is missing).

[1058] fol.71v-91v: al-Birkawi (al-Birgili) البركلي (البركوي) : Jila' al-qulub جلاء القلوب.

As a comparison with ms. Berlin 3049 shows, the text is incomplete and ends in the chapter on the death (ms. Berlin 3049, fol.13v ff.). Further mss. of this still unedited text are mentioned in GAL II 440 nr.5 and S II 654 nr.5. - A fragment is preserved in ms. 8, fol.153v-154r13.

In the margin are added many glosses, often from the Madarik مدارك = perhaps Madarik al-tanzil مدارك التنزيل by Abu al-Barakat al-Nasafi أبو البركات النسفي: see GAL II 196; S II 267.

[1059] fol.92v-94v: al-Turaji (al-Turuji) التورجي (التوروجي) : Sharh al-awamil شرح العوامل.

The author of this commentary on Abd al-Qahir Ibn Abd al-Rahman al-Jurjani's عبد القاهر بن عبد الرحمن الجرجاني (died 471/1078 or later) treatise on particles (al-Awamil al-mi'a العوامل المئة) cannot be identified.

Further mss. are mentioned in GAL I 341 I nr.4 and S I 504 I nr.4; mss. Mingana (Birmingham) 1432 and 1433.

[1060] fol.95r-98v: al-Birkawi (al-Birgili) البركلي (البركوي) : Iqaz al-na'imin إيقاظ النائمين.

Cf. the description of ms. nr.1, fol.143r-145r.

[1061] fol.99r-102r: Abu al-Fath al-Muzaffar Ibn Ibrahim Ibn

الكفر.

The beginning of the text is identical with ms. Berlin 2164 and 2165. The end is different.

The text differs from the Alfaz al-kufr by Muhammad Ibn Isma'il Ibn Mahmud Ibn Muhammad Badr al-Rashid محمد بن إسماعيل بن محمود بن محمد بدر الرشيد (died 768/1366) which is mentioned in GAL II 80 and S II 88.

The author of our text (not mentioned by BROCKELMANN in his GAL) cannot be identified. He must have written before the end of the 11th/17th century.

Ms.18.

89 folios; 21×15 cm; 17-19 lines; naskhi; modern half-leather binding. Copied 1130/1717 (34v); 1129/1716 (89r) and Rabi' II 1129/15.3.1717 (59v).

[1062] fol.1v-27v: Abu al-Muntaha Ahmad Ibn Muhammad al-Maghnisawi شرح الفقه الأكبر: أبو المنتهى أحمد بن محمد المغنيساوي

On this commentary (finished 939/1532) on Abu Hanifa أبو حنيفة (died 150/767), al-Fiqh al-akbar (Abu Hanifa's Creed) see F. SEZGIN, GAS I (Leiden 1967) 413.

[1063] fol.29v-34v: Risala fi al-fara'id رسالة في الفرائض.

Fol.29r mentions Kitab al-fara'id كتاب الفرائض as the title of this treatise on the law of succession. According to ms. Berlin 4749 the author is Shihab al-Din Abu Hamid Muhammad Ibn Ahmad Ibn Mahmud Ibn Ali Ibn Abi Talib شهاب الدين أبو حامد محمد بن أحمد بن محمود بن علي بن أبي طالب who is mentioned by BROCKELMANN (GAL S II 973 nr.16) as the unidentifiable author of the Fara'id (with 3 mss. to which the Berlin ms. should be added too). The text has been commented by Abd al-

Halim al-Muskiri عبد الحليم المسكري who died 900/1494 (s. BROCKELMANN 1.c.). It must therefore have been written before the end of the 9th/15th century.

As a comparison with ms. Berlin 4749 shows, our ms. differs very much : it is shorter at the end and ends with ms. Berlin 4749, fol.89r6 (thus 89r7-90r of the Berlin ms. are missing in our ms.). On the other hand our ms. has additional sections and does not contain the note in the introduction of ms. Berlin 4749 fol.79v6f. according to which it is a "summary" (مختصر mukhtasar). The Berlin ms. is apparently a shortened redaction which has some additions, namely (besides the introduction fol.79v3ff.) fol.80v4ff.; 81r2ff.; 83r2ff.; 84r2f.; 86r, ult. ss.; 89r7-90r (end). However, the following passages of our ms. are missing in the Berlin ms.: fol.29v5-8; 29v10-30r10; 30v4-9; 30v13-31r2; 31v1-32r3 (shorter and different from Berlin 4749, fol.84r3-85r, ult.); 32r1-32v4; 3410-33v6; 34r4-ult.

[1064] fol.35v-40r: A fragment of a commentary (شرح Sharh) on a work about the law of succession. According to the colophon the text was "written down" (حرره harrarahu) by Hajji Sulayman حاجي سليمان (not identifiable). The text must have been completed after Ibn Kamal Pasha ابن كمال باشا (died 940/1533; see GAL II 449; S II 668) who is mentioned on fol.35v8. On the last page two small excerpts and a short anecdote are added.

[1065] fol.41v-89r: al-Husuni الحصوني: Zuhur al-atiya fi sharh al-wasiya ظهور العطية في شرح الوصية.

Our text has neither title nor author. Cf. however ms. nr.19. A comparison of both mss. shows that the end of ms.19 (fol.59v11-61r) is missing in this ms. Instead of information about the date of the commentary (cf. description of ms.19) the copyist has added a colophon mentioning the copying of the text on 1 Rabi' II

Ms.19.

61 folios; 19×12 cm; 12 lines; naskhi with golden frame. Modern leather binding. Copied by Ali Ibn Uthman Mukhlisizade in Cairo 13 Dhu al-Qa'da 1099/9.9.1688. Owner's stamp of the year 1299/1881-2.

[1066] fol.1v-61r: al-Imam al-Husuni الإمام الحصوني: Zuhur al-atiya fi sharh al-wasiya ظهور العطية في شرح الوصية.

The title is mentioned on 1r as Kitab sharh wasiyat al-Imam al-a'zam wa-al-hammam al-afkham al-akram mawlana Abi Hanifa al-Nu'man Ibn Thabit كتاب شرح وصية الإمام الأعظم والهمام الأفخم الأكرم مولانا أبي حنيفة النعمان بن ثابت. The title and author of this commentary on Abu Hanifa's أبو حنيفة testament and counsel to his friends (cF. SEZGIN, GAS I 416f.) can be found in the mss. Gotha 658 and Mingana (Birmingham) 1231 (copied 1068/1657-8). The author of the commentary - al-Imam al-Husuni - cannot be identified. According to our ms. (fol.60v11-12) the commentary was finished on 14 Dhu al-Hijja 1066/3.10.1656. - Further mss. are the preceding ms. and the one mentioned by SEZGIN (GAS I 417 IV nr.3). The text is still unedited.

Ms.20.

26 folios; 21×13,5 cm; 19 lines; naskhi; text sometimes stained with water. Gold vignette on fol.1v and gold frame on fol.1v-2r; the rest of the text is within red frame. Modern half-leather binding. Copied 23 Shawwal 1153/11.1.1741 (25v).

[1067] fol.1v-25v: Abd al-Halim al-Qaysari Söylemzade عبد الحليم بهجة الألباب في علم الأسطرلاب Bahjat al-albab fi ilm al-asturlab القيصري سيلم زاده

The title is mentioned on fol.2r2f. BURSALI MEHEMMED TAHIR, Osmanli Mü'ellifleri III (Istanbul 1334/1915-16) 272 mentions our author and confirms the arrangement of the text in 18 chapters. The end is identical with ms. Princeton (Garrett-collection) 1005 which contains the treatise with the commentary by Muhammad Ibn Ali al-Humaydi محمد بن علي الحميدي (died 1179/1765-6), called Nadrat al-lubab fi sharh bahjat al-albab نضرة اللباب في شرح بهجة الألباب (mentioned in BURSALI III 302). According to BURSALI III 272 the author of Bahjat al-albab بهجة الألباب wrote during the time of Sultan Mustafa II (reigned 1695-1703). - For further mss. of this still unedited text on the astrolabe see GAL S II 1017 nr.5; it is perhaps identical with ms. Princeton (Garrett-collection) 2006/19 (without author).

Ms.21.

133 folios; 24×17 cm; nasta'liq; commented text with red line; the whole text is within a red frame. Modern half-leather binding. Hand of the 12th/18th century.

[1068] fol.1v-132r: Mas'ud Ibn Umar al-Taftazani مسعود بن عمر التفتزاني: al-Sharh al-mukhtasar الشرح المختصر.

This is al-Taftazani's (died 791/1389) shortened version of his commentary on Talkhis al-miftah تلخيص المفتاح, a shortened redaction of Miftah al-ulum مفتاح العلوم, part III by Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Rahman Ibn Umar Ibn Ahmad al-Qazwini Jalal al-Din Abu Abd Allah محمد بن عبد الرحمن بن عمر بن أحمد القزويني جلال الدين أبو عبد الله (died 739/1338). The Miftah al-ulum is a comprehensive description of morphology, syntax and rhetorics by al-Sakkaki السكاكي (died 626/ 1229). Cf. GAL I 295; S I 518. - Sometimes glosses are added in the margin (60r-

Ms.22.

70 folios; 20×14 cm; 17 lines; naskhi; commented text overlined in red. Modern half-leather binding. Handwriting of the 12th/18th century.

[1069] fol.1v-70v: al-Jurjani, Ali Ibn Muhammad al-Sayyid al-Sharif شرح السيد الشريف الجرجاني، علي بن محمد السيد الشريف الفرائض السراجية.

A commentary by al-Jurjani (died 816/1413) on the Kitab al-Fara'id al-Sirajiyah كتاب الفرائض السراجية about the law of succession. The commented text is written by Siraj al-Din Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Rashid al-Sajawandi سراج الدين محمد بن عبد الرشيد السجاوندي who lived at the end of the 6th/12th century. Our ms. bears the title Kitab al-Sayyid al-Sharif (= al-Jurjani) fi ilm al-fara'id (= كتاب السيد الشريف الجرجاني في علم الفرائض 1). BROCKELMANN has mentioned the text with the titles al-Fara'id al-Sharifiyah الفرائض الشريفية (GAL I 379 I nr.5; S I 650 I nr.5), al-Sharifiyah fi al-fara'id الفرائض الشريفية في الفرائض (S II 306 nr.37) and Sharh al-Fara'id al-Sirajiyah (GAL II 217 nr.21); the index of BROCKELMANN refers to the commented text with the title al-Fara'id al-Sirajiyah and to the commented text with the title al-Sharifiyah fi al-fara'id. The text of our ms. is incomplete at the end. A few glosses are added in the margin. Paper slips with notes are inserted after fol.31v and 54v.

Ms.23.

80 folios; 18×13 cm; 19 lines; nasta'liq. Modern half-leather binding.

[1070] fol.2v-80v: Mawlanazade مولانا زاده: Sharh Hidayat al-hikma
هداية الحكمة (by al-Abhari الأبهري), with glosses by Uthman Efendi عثمان أفندي.

A commentary on al-Abhari (died 663/1264), Hidayat al-hikma هداية الحكمة , part 2 (fi al-tabi'iyat في الطبيعيات) and 3 (fi al-ilahiyat في الإلهيات).
Further mss. of this still unedited commentary are mentioned in GAL I 464 I nr.4 and S I 840 I nr.4. The complete name is given by BROCKELMANN as Mawlanazade Ahmad Ibn Mahmud al-Herewi مولانا
زاده أحمد بن محمود الهروي and (S I 840) with the additional nisba "al-Kharziyani(?); cf. also Hajji Khalifa, Kashf al-zunun VI nr.14347, 3 (with the same incipit of our ms.) and ms. Mingana (Birmingham) 836 (copied 917/1511-12). The ms. India Office Library (London) 494 offers a terminus ante quem for the commentary: it was copied in 810/1407-8. The commentary must therefore have been composed before the beginning of the 9th/15th century.

Commentary and commented text are separated from each other by the words aqulu أقول and qala قال in green ink.

Ms.24.

226 folios; 18,5×13 cm; 17-23 lines; naskhi. The text is sometimes difficult to read because of water stains. Modern half-leather binding. Copied 882/1477-8 (214v) by Da'ud Ibn Sayyid Ibn Umara'.

[1071] fol.1v-214v(225r): Mahmud Ibn Abd al-Rahman Ibn Ahmad
ال-Isfahani مطالع الأنظار: Matali' al-anzar :محمود بن عبد الرحمن بن أحمد الإصفهاني
A commentary by al-Isfahani (died 749/1348; cf. GAL S II 137) on Tawali' al-anwar min matali' al-anzar (about طوالع الأنوار من مطالع الأنظار metaphysics) by al-Baydawi البيضاوي (died 716/1316 or earlier); cf.

GAL I 418 VI nr.2 and S I 742 VI nr.2.

Fol.1-3v seem to have been added later. Commentary and commented text are separated from each other by aqulu أقول and qala قال in red ink. Some glosses are added in the margin. Our ms. contains book I (fi al-mumkinat في الممكنات; ends fol.126v) and II (fi al-ilahiyat في الإلهيات; ends fol.214v). Book III (fi al-nubuwwat في النبوات) is missing. Between book I and II a fragment of a poem is inserted (126v-127r).

Between 9v and 10r is a lacuna: 9v ends in fasl 2 فصل of the preface and 10v starts in fasl 1 of book I ch.1. This lacuna can be filled (except a part of fasl 2 of the preface and fasl 3) by fol.217r-225r (a late addition at the end of our ms.); these folios also contain the preface, fasl 4 (fi ahkam al-nazar في أحكام النظر) and (on 224r1ff.) the beginning of book I. This beginning overlaps with the passus starting fol.10r1: 10r1-10v10 is this 224v3-225v, ult. - An overlapping has also happened on 3r15-3v, ult.: this piece is also on 4r1-18: this overlapping happened because fol.1-3 have been added later; the handwriting is different from the one on fol.217-225.

115 folios; 20,5×14,5 cm; 13 lines; vocalized naskhi; minor losses of the text on a few folios of 84r ff. Modern half-leather binding. [1098] fol.25r-52r: A fragment of an anonymous devotional work called Salah al-arwah wa-tariq ila dar al-falah صلاح الأرواح وطريق إلى دار الفلاح

This title is not mentioned by BROCKELMANN (GAL); further mss. are Berlin 8863 and 8864. It conforms to ms. Berlin 8863, fol.71v-106r, with slight divergences at the end and without the chapters of Berlin 8863, fol.78r-85r. This means that in our ms. approximately the first half is missing.

In the Berlin mss. the text is ascribed to Ibn al-Jawzi ابن الجوزي. This cannot be correct as AHLWARDT shows in his description of ms.

Berlin 8864. The unknown author wrote after 671/1272, the year of Abu Abd Allah Muhammad Ibn Ahmad Ibn Abi Bakr al-Qurtubi's أبو عبد الله محمد بن أحمد بن أبي بكر القرطبي death whose commentary on the Koran is mentioned in ms. Berlin 8864 on fol.68v.

[1099] fol.52r-57v: A fragment of an anonymous eschatological work called Kitab al-tadhkira كتاب التذكرة.

The text is different from al-Qurtubi's القرطبي Kitab al-tadhkira bi-ahwal al-mawta wa-ahwal al-akhira كتاب التذكرة بأحوال الموتى وأحوال الآخرة (GAL I 415 nr.2; S I 737 nr.2); cf. the ms. Heidelberg Or. 267, spec. vol.II, fol.36v ff. - The text contains the following chapters:

(fol.58r = ms. Berlin 8863, fol.11v); Bab fadl al-hajj باب فضل الحج

(fol.58v = ms. Berlin 8863, fol.6v); then (fol.58v ff.) all the chapters of ms. Berlin 8863, fol.17v-39r, with one exception: our

ms. has on fol.66r: Bab fi fadl bi-ismi Allah باب في فضل بسم الله , whilst the Berlin ms.8863 has on fol.27v: Bab fi fadl al-karam باب في فضل الكرم.

It is possible that also the folios 103v-104r (Bab fadl al-zakat باب فضل الزكاة) of our ms. belong to this text: this anonymous passage can be found between two excerpts from Rawnaq al-tafasir رونق التفاسير (see the following text) and is also in ms. Berlin 8863, fol.5r!

[1101] fol.78r-131r: A fragment of Rawnaq al-tafasir رونق التفاسير.

This devotional work has the complete title Rawnaq al-tafasir fi haqq al-anbiya' رونق التفاسير في حق الأنبياء and is ascribed in other mss. to Muhammad Ibn Najib al-Qarahisari محمد بن نجيب القرحصاري (9th/15th century): see GAL II 229; S II 320. The title is mentioned fol.63v3f. and the author fol.63r3. The colophon has the title Bayan suluk ibn al-waqt fi tariq abi al-waqt بيان سلوك ابن الوقت في طريق أبي الوقت . It mentions as the year of the death of our author 27 Sha'ban 1013/18.1.1605. - The treatise is an introduction to mysticism, written by the author at the age of 80 (fol.63r5ff.). The text and the author are not mentioned in BROCKELMANN (GAL) and KAHHALE. al-Muhibbi المحبي , Ta'rikh khulasat al-athar fi a'yan al-qarn al-hadi ashar (Bulaq 1290/1873-4) IV 462, 1ff. mentions with the same year of death (however a different month: 13 Dhu al-Qa'da) Shah Wali al-Ayni al-Khalwati al-Hanafi شاه ولي العيني الخلوتي الحنفي who may be identical with Muhammad Shah Wali Ibn Muhammad al-Askari محمد شاه ولي بن محمد العسكري , the author of a commentary on Sura 41, 53 in ms. Berlin 1007.

The arrangement of the folios is not correct at the end: fol.113-115 belong to fol.71 and after fol.115 at least one folio is missing.

[1114] fol.111r-112v: Ibn al-Arabi ابن العربي : Hilyat al-abdal wa-ma yazharu an-ha min al-ma'arif wa-al-ahwal حلية الأبدال وما يظهر عنها من المعارف والأحوال.

[1116] fol.118r-v: A fragment (the end) of a poem in praise of the prophet and his followers.

In the margin of 118r al-Dimyati (الدمياطي) is mentioned as author. However only the last verse is identical with the end of al-Dimyati's Manzuma (منظومة) as preserved in fol.2v-4v of our ms.

However, there are some similarities to the more extensive Kitab al-Rawda al-bahiya أبو عذبة كتاب الروضة البهية by Abu Udhba (lived around 1125/1713): cf. e.g. fol.35r, -3ff. with Abu Udhba (ed. Haydarabad namely the still unedited commentary (written in 757/1356) by Nur too may be composed by Ahmad Ibn Ahmad al-Ayntabi.

On the author (died 1050/1640) and on further mss. cf. GAL II 419 and S II 618. The title of the text in our ms. is al-Risala fi bayan adab al-mashyakha wa-al-muridin al-talibin wa-shara'itihima الرسالة في بيان آداب المشيخة والمریدین الطالبین وشرائطهما .

The beginning is missing. Cf. however ms. Berlin 3189.

The text has some lacunas and some folios are misplaced; the correct order is: fol.18r, 6-18v, ult. (= Berlin 3189, 1v, 1-2r, 10); 32r, 1-38v, ult. (= Berlin 3189, 3r, 7-10v, 10) ; 19r, 1-30r, ult. (= Berlin 3189, 11v, 10-30r, 2). After 18v and 38v the text is incomplete: Berlin 3189, 2r, 10-3v, 7 and 10v, 10-11v, 10 are missing.

[1205] fol.30v-31v: A mystical explanation of an invocation of God (dhikr ذكر).

The end is missing.

On the author (died 832/1428) and on further mss. cf. GAL I 572; S I 792. The author is not mentioned; cf. however ms. Berlin 2874. The end is missing.

Ms.44.

75 folios; 21×17 cm; 15 lines; naskhi and nasta'liq. Modern half-leather binding. Hand of the 13th/19th century.

[1207] fol.1v-74r: Ali Ibn Zahir al-Witri علي بن ظاهر الوتري : Fawa'id jalila takshifu an ma'na wahdat al-wujud wa-masa'il qalila taqrabu asla ma dhahaba ilay-hi ahlu al-irfan wa-al-shuhud فوائد جلييلة تكشف عن معنى وحدة الوجود ومسائل قليلة تقرب أصل ما ذهب إليه أهل العرفان والشهود .

On the author (died 1322/1904 in Medina) see GAL S II 776.

According to the introduction and a note by Uthman Ibn Abd al-Salam al-Daghistani عثمان بن عبد السلام الداغستاني (Mufti of Medina) on fol.74v this text is a summary of Abd al-Ghani al-Nabulusi's عبد الغني كتاب وحدة الوجود ومراة Kitab wahdat al-wujud wa-mir'at al-shuhud النابلسي . Neither title is mentioned by BROCKELMANN (GAL). Possibly the text ascribed to al-Nabulusi is based on two different texts, namely the Kitab idah al-maqsud man ma'na wahdat al-wujud كتاب إيضاح المقصود من معنى وحدة الوجود (cf. on this text ms.323, fol.86-93v) and the Sharh mir'at al-wujud شرح مرآة الوجود (mentioned in the list published by G. FLÜGEL in Zeitschrift der Deutschen Morgenländischen Gesellschaft 16, p.664).

Ms.45.

273 folios; 20×14,5 cm; 19-21 lines; naskhi (different hands); nasta'liq fol.229v-272v. Original leather binding with vignettes. Copied in 1057/ 1647 (73v; 75v; 79v); 1061/1650 (16v; 41r; 53r; 107v; 116r; 125r); 1148/ 1735 (224r); 965/1558 by Khalil Ibn Hamza Ibn Khalil (272v) and 984/1577 by Abd Allah Ibn Sa'id al-Yamani (127r-184r).

[1208] fol.1r1-6: Enumeration of the 10 Aristotelian categories. Written in red ink.

[1209] fol.1r7-1v: Four fragments from a work about alchemy. At the end of the first section (1r below) Abd al-Jabbar al-Hamadani عبد الجبار الهمداني is mentioned as author. On his treatise about alchemy (Risala/Tadhkira fi al-kimiya' رسالة / تذكرة في الكيمياء) cf. F. SEZGIN, GAS I 625 nr.5. The authenticity is doubtful: cf. M. ULLMANN, Die Natur- und Geheimwissenschaften im Islam, Leiden 1972, p.222. - For a complete ms. in Los Angeles see A. Z. ISKANDAR, A Descriptive List of Arabic Mss., Leiden 1984, p.48: al-Nasir al-Hakim Abd al-Jabbar al-Hamadani الناصر الحكيم عبد الجبار الهمداني , al-Hikma al-ilahiya الحكمة الإلهية .

[1210] fol.3r-10v: al-Risala al-badriya fi al-sunna al-fajriya الرسالة البدرية في السنة الفجرية.

The unknown author refers in this treatise and in the following texts mainly to Hanafite books about fiqh. The text on fol.98r-101v reports a question about the correct pronunciation of the word Amin أمين directed to the author in the Sulayman Pasha mosque (built in 1528) on the citadel of Cairo. Cp. also fol.121v4f. - On fol.41r3 the author cites the Hanafite jurist Nuh Ibn Mustafa نوح بن مصطفى (died 1070/1659 in Cairo; cf. GAL II 314; S II 432). This citation and the note on fol.16v, according to which the text fol.11r-16v is composed by our author in 1057/1647 prove that he was a contemporary of Nuh Ibn Mustafa. He must have been a Hanafite jurist who knew Turkish (see fol.102r-105v) and who stayed in Cairo at times. The date given on fol.16v conforms to the date of the compilation, of the Surrat al-fatawi صرة الفتاوي by Sadiq Muhammad Ibn Ali al-Saqizi صادق محمد بن علي الساقزي (died 1099/1688); therefore we may conclude that our author is al-Saqizi and that our texts are parts of al-Saqizi's Surrat al-fatawi (mss.: s. GAL II 436 and S II 648; Mingana 331(1200) and Princeton, Garrett collection nr.1247).

[1219] fol.50r-53r: Khawass al-hars fi bihar al-fard خواص الحرص في بحار الفرض.
بحار الفرض.

The text is identical with fol. 56v-59r.

[1220] fol.54r-55v: = text fol.23r-24v.

[1221] fol.56r: An anonymous fragment without title.

[1222] fol.56v-59r: = text fol.50r-53r.

[1223] fol.59v-60v: (al-)Masa'il al-sab'a fi al-bi'r wa-kayfa yakunu ahwal ma'a al-bi'r المسائل السبعة في البئر وكيف يكون أحوال ماء البئر.

The text is identical with fol.25r-26v. It is incomplete: it ends on fol.59v14 and starts then again.

[1224] fol.62r-66v: Risalat al-tashwiq fi takbir al-tashriq رسالة التشويق في تكبير التشريق.
في تكبير التشريق.

[1225] fol.67r-69r: Risalat al-tashriq fi bayan al-ta'rif رسالة التشريق في بيان التعريف.

[1226] fol.70r-72v: Risalat al-taqyid (li-)al-tanafful fi al-id رسالة التقيد (لـ)التنافل في العيد.

[1229] fol.80r-82r: Risalat al-isti'la' fi bayan al-istinja' رسالة الاستعلاء في بيان الاستنجاء.

Possibly incomplete at the end, because the colophon is missing and fol.82v-83r are blank.

[1230] fol.84r-89v: Tabyin al-kalam fi alfaz al-salam تبين الكلام في ألفاظ السلام.

[1231] fol.90r-95v: Dhikr kitab al-lama'an lil-Imam al-Nasihi wa-min kitab al-da'awat min mu'allafat al-Ghazzali ذكر كتاب اللمعان للإمام الناصحي ومن كتاب الدعوات من مؤلفات الغزالي.

About the invocation of God (dhikr) and the prayer (du'a' دعاء). al-Imam al-Nasihi and his Kitab al-Lama'an cannot be identified. The Kitab al-Da'awat ascribed to al-Ghazzali is preserved in ms. Berlin 3515, fol.59v-62v: it follows al-Ghazzali's Kitab al-Tasawwuf fi al-ibadat . MAURICE BOUYGES, Essai de chronologie des oeuvres de al-Ghazali (Algazel), Beyrouth 1959, p.101, nr.114 supposes an identity of the Kitab al-Da'awat with the Risala fi al-ibadat رسالة في العبادات . However the above-mentioned ms. Berlin 3515 proves that both texts are different - unless the Kitab al-Da'awat is part of the Risala fi al-ibadat = Kitab al-Tasawwuf fi al-ibadat.

[1233] fol.102r-105v: Shaqq al-dajaj wa-tark al-lajaj شق الدجاج وترك اللجاج

.اللجاج

Fol.105v4ff. contain (in two variants) a fatwa فتوى in Turkish concerning the cleaning of chickens (already cited on fol.24v and 55v); it is directed to the Mufti مفتي of Istanbul (24v), Abu al-Su'ud أبو سعود (died 982/1574: see GAL II 438). Abu al-Su'ud is also known as an author of fatwas: see P. HORSTER, Zur Anwendung des islamischen Rechts im 16. Jahrhundert, Bonn 1935 (= Bonner orientalistische Studien 10), p.1ff. and ELKE EBERHARD, Osmanische Polemik gegen die Safawiden im 16, Jahrhundert nach arabischen Handschriften, Freiburg 1970 (= Islamkundliche Untersuchungen 3), Index; MEHMET ERTUGRUL DÜZDAG: Şeyhülislâm Ebussuud Efendi Fetvaları ışığında 16. asır türk hayatı. Istanbul 1972.

[1234] fol.106r-107v: I'lam al-malahida wa-izhar al-zanadiqa إعلام الملاحدة وإظهار الزنادقة.

[1235] fol.108r-116r: al-Istirfaf fi al-istikhlaf الاسترفاف في الاستخلاف.

[1236] fol.117r-120v: Risalat al-Tabyin fi kayfiyat al-ta'min رسالة التبیین في كيفية التأمین.

[1237] fol.121r-125r: Tabyin al-muddat fi kayfiyat al-takbirat تبیین المدات في كيفية التكبيرات.

[1238] fol.127r-184r: Ibn Ata' Allah al-Shadhili ابن عطاء الله الشاذلي

Talkhis al-tanwir fi isqat al-tadbir تلخیص التنوير في إسقاط التدبير.

An anonymous compendium of al-Shadhili (died 709/1309), al-Tanwir fi isqat al-tadbir التنوير في إسقاط التدبير. On this mystical text of al-Shadhili see GAL II 118 and S II 145.

Our compendium is more extensive than the anonymous compendium in ms. Berlin 3090/1 (not mentioned in GAL). As a comparison with the Cairo edition of 1973 (by MUSA MUHAMMAD ALI موسى محمد علي and ABBAD AL-AL AHMAD AL-IRABI عباد العال أحمد العرابي) shows, the compendium in our ms. (copied 984/1577) has many variants which sometimes offer better readings.

The chapter-headings are written in red ink.

[1239] fol.184v-185r: A fragment of a mystical work.

[1240] fol.186v-190v: Muhammad Ibn Qutb al-Din Muhammad al-Razi al-Tahtani محمد بن قطب الدين محمد الرازي التحتاني : Tahrir al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya (= al-Qutbi القطبي المنطقية) (القبطي) , preface with anonymous commentary.

As a comparison with ms. Berlin 5258 shows, the text of al-Tahtani (died 766/1364) which is commented by an anonymous author, is a commentary on Najm al-Din al-Katibi نجم الدين الكاتبي (died 675/1276 or 693/1294), al-Risala al-Shamsiya fi al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya الرسالة الشمسية في القواعد المنطقية , part I (al-tasawwurat التصورات). On the numerous glosses on al-Qutbi see GAL I 466 and S I 845.

The commented text of al-Tahtani is overlined in red or introduced by qawluhu أقوله in red ink. The commentary is different from the explanation on fol.192v-193v.

[1241] fol.191r-192r: al-Firuzabadi الفيروزابادي : Sharh adab al-bahth ضمن قوله dimnu qawlihi wa-rutbatuhu . شرح آداب البحث . ورتبته .

Author and title are mentioned fol.2r. The author may be identical with Muhammad Ibn Ya'qub al-Firuzabadi محمد بن يعقوب الفيروزابادي who died 817/1415 (GAL II 181; S II 234). However the title is not mentioned anywhere. The text is a semantic treatise on the use of the terms risala رسالة , muqaddama مقدمة (sic) and mawdu' موضوع .

[1242] fol.192v-193v: Muhammad Ibn Qutb al-Din Muhammad al-

Razi al-Tahtani محمد بن قطب الدين محمد الرازي التحتاني: Tahrir al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya (= al-Qutbi القطبي) . Preface with anonymous commentary which is different from the text on fol.186v-190v.

[1243] fol.194r-198v: al-Khazraji الخزرجي: al-Qasida al-Khazrajiya القصيدة الخزرجية.

On the author (died about 650/1252) and this poem on metrics see GAL I 312 and S I 545.

[1244] fol.198v-199r: Dhikr man shahida Badran ذكر من شهد بدرًا.

An alphabetical enumeration (as far as the letter "S س") of participants in the battle of Badr in the year 2/624.

[1245] fol.201v-224r: I'anat al-majdin fi tashih al-din bi-sharh umm al-barahin إعانة المجدين في تصحيح الدين بشرح أم البراهين.

An anonymous commentary to al-Sanusi السنوسي (died 892/1486 or 895), Umm al-barahin (= Aqidat ahl al-tawhid al-sughra عقيدة أهل التوحيد الصغرى). On this creed of al-Sanusi see GAL II 251 and S II 353.

The commented text of al-Sanusi is written in red ink.

[1246] fol.224v-226r: Safi al-Din al-Hilli صفي الدين الحلي: al-Kafiya al-badi'iya fi al-mada'ih al-nabawiya الكافية البديعية في المدائح النبوية.

In the margin of this poem in praise of the prophet the rhetorical figures are mentioned in red ink. On the author (died 750/1349) and the text cf. GAL II 160 nr.3 and S II 199 nr.3. - Our text is not complete; it has only 83 verses and not 143.

[1247] fol.229v-251r: Shah Husayn Efendi al-Antaki شاه حسين أفندي, الرسالة الحسينية في فن الآداب: al-Risala al-Husayniya fi fann al-adab: الأنطاكي, with commentary by Ali al-Fardi Ibn Mustafa al-Qaisari علي الفردي بن مصطفى القيصري.

The commented text of Shah Husayn Efendi al-Antaki (died 1130/1718) is overlined in black. Our ms. has neither author nor title; cf. however ms. Berlin 5335. Two more mss. of this text on the art of dispute (adab al-bahth آداب البحث) of which an extract has been printed in Istanbul (1276/1859) are mentioned GAL S II 482 (cf. GAL II 356 nr.4).

[1248] fol.251v-252r: An enumeration and explanation of 15 kinds of simple and compound judgements.

[1249] fol.252v-272v: Qul Ahmad (Ibn Muhammad Ibn Khidr) قول حاشية على الفوائد Hashiya ala al-fawa'id al-Fanariya أحمد (بن محمد بن خضر الفنارية).

On the text see GAL I 465 nr. I 2a; S I 842 nr. I 2a. The commented text, the Fawa'id فوائد of al-Fanari الفناري (died 834/1431; cf. GAL II 233; S II 328) is introduced by qawluhu قوله in red ink; it is a commentary to the Kitab al-Isaghuji كتاب الإيساغوجي by al-Abhari الأبهري (died 663/1264). BROCKELMANN follows the ms. Berlin 5240 and dates the Hashiya "about 950/1543"; our text is written some years later, in 965/558 (fol.272v).

[1250] fol.273r-v: A short enumeration and description of the five "outward" (al-zahira الظاهرة) and "inward" (al-batina الباطنة) senses. The text is a summary of a chapter in Ibn Sina ابن سينا, al-Shifa' الشفاء: cf. Avicenna's De anima (Arabic text), being the psychological part of Kitab al-shifa' كتاب الشفاء, ed. F. RAHMAN, London 1959, p.41-45.

Ms.46.

184 folios; 18×11 cm; 14-32 lines; naskhi (different hands). The paper of fol.71r and 75v has the Russian mark Kevsko fabriki nr.4. Some folios are loose. Original leather binding. Copied 28 Rajab

1301/24.5.1883 (fol.169r; 175v) by Muhammad Ibn al-Hasan al-Hasani al-Khorasani (s. fol.175v and 22r) who according to a note on fol.22r bequeathed the text 22v-106r together with other books to his descendants.

[1251] fol.3r: A prayer.

The margin and part of fol.2v contain an enumeration of magical letters and numbers in Persian.

[1252] fol.3v-5r: Ibn Sina ابن سينا: al-Risala al-muntakhaba fi ma'alim haqiqat al-nafs wa-ma yattasilu bi-dhalika الرسالة المنتخبة في معالم حقيقة النفس وما يتصل بذلك.

This philosophical treatise of Ibn Sina (died 428/1037) on the soul is incomplete at the end. The text ends in the edition of A. NADER (al-Nafs al-bashariya inda Ibn Sina النفس البشرية عند ابن سينا, Beirut 1968, p.29-38) on p.34, ult. In this edition it has the title Risala fi ma'rifat al-nafs al-natiqa wa-ahwaliha رسالة في معرفة النفس الناطقة وأحوالها (also in the edition of AHMAD FU'AD AL-AHWANI أحمد فؤاد الأهواني; Ahwal al-nafs أحوال النفس, Cairo 1371/1952, p.181-192). - The text is also preserved in the ms. Maktabat al-Awqaf (Baghdad) 13837/25 (without author and title); it is different from the works with the following titles:

1) Risala fi al-nafs رسالة في النفس which is mentioned GAL I 455 nr.29 and S I 818 nr.29; a further ms. is Wien 2301 (Mixt.866, 6), fol.66v-71r.

2) Risala fi quwa al-nafs = Mabhath an al-quwa al-nafsaniya رسالة في مبحث عن القوى النفسانية (Hadiya lil-amir Nuh Ibn Mansur al-Samani هدية للأمير نوح بن منصور الساماني which is mentioned with mss. and editions in GAL I 455 nr.30 and S I 818 nr.30; the ms. Berlin 5341 (no title; called in AHLWARDT Risala fi quwa al-nafs = GAL I 455 nr.30) is different. Further editions: see LANDAUER in Zeitschrift der deutschen morgenländischen Gesellschaft 29, 1876, p.339-372 and A.F. AL-AHWANI, Ahwal al-nafs, Cairo 1371/1952, p.143-178.

3) Risala fi (bayan) al-nafs al-natiqa wa-ahwaliha رسالة في (بيان) النفس
الناطقة وأحوالها which is mentioned in GAL I 455 nr.31 and S I 818 nr.31.

4) Risala fi Ahwal al-nafs رسالة في أحوال النفس which is mentioned in GAL I 455 nr.32 and S I 818 nr.32; editions: A.F. AL-AHWANI, Ahwal alnafs, Cairo 1371/1952, p.45-142, also with the title Risala fi al-nafs wa-baqa'iha wa-ma'adiha رسالة في النفس وبقائها ومعادها ; the same title can be found in the edition of HILMI ZIYA ÜLKEN, Ibn Sina Risaleleri II, Istanbul 1953 (= Istanbul Üniversitesi Edebiyat Fakültesi yayınlarından 552), p.109-154.

The text of our ms. is, as a comparison with the catalogues can prove, identical with the Risala fi ilm al-nafs رسالة في علم النفس which is mentioned in GAL I 455 nr.36 (BROCKELMANN has wrongly mentioned S. LANDAUER as editor of the text).

For further information about Ibn-Sina-mss. dealing with the soul and sometimes wrongly classified by BROCKELMANN (GAL) cf. G.C.
ANAWATI, Essai de bibliographie Avicennienne, Le Caire 1950, Index p.368 s.v. "al-nafs".

[1253] fol.7v-10v: (al-)Kawakib al-durriya الكواكب الدرية . = perhaps al-Kawakib al-durriya bi-usul al-jafriya الكواكب الدرية بأصول الجفرية by Salim al-Wa'iz al-Mawsili (mentioned in GAL S II 1042 nr.47 among authors who cannot be identified; further mss.: see R.
MACH, Catalogue of Arabic manuscripts (Yahuda section) in the Garrett collection, Princeton University Library Princeton, N.J. 1977, nr.5147 (with a preface which is missing in our ms.).

The text of our ms. consists of 8 chapters and deals with the magic of letters.

[1254] fol.22v-106r: Muhammad Ibn al-Husayn al-Husayni al-
Khorasani : محمد بن الحسين الحسيني الخراساني Najat al-ibad fi yawm al-ma'ad نجات العباد في يوم المعاد.

A devotional work written by a not identifiable Shi'ite from Khorasan. According to the colophon the text was finished 4 Rajab 1298/8.5.1881. Author and title are neither in BROCKELMANN (GAL) nor in KAHHALE.

[1255] fol.106v-107r: An excerpt from Muhammad Ibn Zakariya' al-Qazwini عجائب المخلوقات : محمد بن زكرياء القزويني .
On the author (died 682/1283) and the text see GAL I 481 and S I 882.

[1256] fol.107v-109v: A fragment of a theological work (text with commentary), in Persian.

[1257] fol.110v-131r: An anonymous work about rhetoric (balagha بلاغة).

The text cites Safi al-Din al-Hilli صفي الدين الحلي (died 749/1349: cf. GAL S II 199) but is written much later: fol.130v-2 mentions as a formula "Shaykh al-Islam lil-dawla al-Uthmaniya wa-al-mufti bi-al-Qustantiniya al-mahmiya "شيخ الإسلام للدولة العثمانية والمفتي بالقسطنطينية المحمية". The author seems to be an Iranian; he mentions the judge (al-qadi القاضي , once also written al-qadi! القاضي) of Tabaristan, Muhammad Bek محمد بك (125) and a man called Muhammad Zaki al-Derbendi محمد زكي (125) (الدربندي).

[1258] fo1.131v-132v: Poems ascribed to Yazid Ibn Mu'awiya يزيد بن معاوية.

On the poems ascribed to Yazid Ibn Mu'awiya cf. F. SEZGIN, GAS II, Leiden 1975, p.316f. - Our text is not identical with the printed versions and not in PAUL SCHWARZ, Escorial-Studien I, Stuttgart 1922, p.56ff.

[1259] fol.133v: A fragment of al-Majlisi المجلسي, Bihar al-anwar بحار الأنوار (book 9). On this Shiite encyclopaedia by al-Majlisi (died 1110/1700) cf. GAL S II 573 nr.4.

[1260] fol.134r-164r: al-Tibyan fi suwar al-qur'an التبيين في سور القرآن.
An anonymous explanation of the names of Suras and Koranic expressions, composed by the author during Muharram 1302/October 1884. The author cites al-Suyuti السيوطي (cf. GAL II 143ff.; S II 178ff.) and Shiite commentaries on the Koran (e.g. al-Tabarsi الطبرسي , Majma' al-bayan li-ulum al-qur'an مجمع البيان لعلوم القرآن , on which cf. GAL S I 708).

Ms.47.

145 folios; 20×14,5 cm; 19-21 lines; Yemenite naskhi by different hands. Original leather binding (repaired). Hand of the 11th/17th century. According to fol.78r the ms. was acquired 1184/1770 by Husayn Ibn Ahmad in the Yemenite town Barat بربط . [1266] fol.1r-98v: Ibrahim Ibn Abd al-Rahman Ibn Abi Bakr al-Azraq إبراهيم بن عبد الرحمن بن أبي بكر الأزرق : Tashil al-manafi' fi al-tibb wa-al-hikma تسهيل المنافع في الطب والحكمة .

This medical compendium about diseases and remedies has neither author nor title and is incomplete at the end. The chapter-headings are written in red ink.

A comparison with the edition Cairo 1886 proves that our text is a shorter recension which was compiled by the author (lived in the 9-10th/15-16th century) perhaps before the longer (printed) version and for his own use: On this and on the sources of the text cf. H. DAIBER, Neue Handschriftenfunde aus dem Jemen und aus der Südosttürkei. Die Erstversion des Tashil al-manafi' fi al-tibb wa-al-hikma. - In: Zeitschrift der Deutschen Morgenländischen Gesellschaft, Suppl. III/1, Wiesbaden 1977, p.661-668.

The commentary was finished by the author in 1310/1892 (fol.84r) and contains numerous heresiographical details based on old Mu'tazilite and Zaidite sources; cf. H. On the author (died 1029/1620) and this dogmatic treatise see GAL II 405 nr.6 and S II 406 nr.6. Our ms. is incomplete at the beginning; in the edition of A. NADER (Beirut 1980) our text starts with p.112, 14.

The text has also the title al-Asas al-mutakaffil bi-kashf al-iltibas الأساس المتكفل بكشف الالتباس (see ms. Berlin 5145 and GAL S II 551 nr.1). Our ms. bears the title Iddat al-akyas fi ilm al-asas عدة الأكياس في علم الأساس (fol.1r). Apparently this is the third title of our text; contrary to the note in ms. Berlin 10307, fol.15, 16 (taken over by DAIBER, Mu'ammar - as above ms.48 - p.511 n.2) our title does not contain a commentary on al-Asas al-mutakaffil.

According to these mss. the predictions end with the year 1246/1830; therefore the end of our ms. is apparently missing.

In place of mughallatin the ms. has in the text mughallazin مغلظ which seems to be an inferior variant. The text is an interesting treatise on juridical responsibility of those who have deformities. Neither title nor author are mentioned in bio-bibliographical sources. The colophon states that the text was compiled in 1061/1650 and annotated in 1080/1669. The author mentions several times as his teacher (ustadh , أستاذ , shaykh شيخ) Shihab (al-Din) al-Qalyubi شهاب (الدين) القليوبي (died 1069/1658: see GAL II 364) and al-Shabramallisi الشبراملسي (wrote around 1021/1612: see GAL II 365); both are authors of books on medicine and occult sciences.

The unknown author mentions as his sources the canonical Hadith-collections (al-Tirmidhi الترمذي , al-Bukhari البخاري , Muslim مسلم , al-Nasa'i النسائي) , but also (1r11) al-Hakim Abu Abd Allah الحاكم أبو عبد الله and his al-Mustadrak المستدرک . This is al-Mustadrak ala al-sahihayn المستدرک على الصحيحين by Muhammad Ibn Abd Allah Ibn Muhammad al-Hakim al-Nisaburi محمد بن عبد الله بن محمد الحاكم النيسابوري (died 405/1014; see GAL I 166). This enables us to determine the date of this work; it must be composed after the 4th/10th century.

Ms.75.

5 folios; 14×19 cm; 13 lines; naskhi; single words in red ink. Copied by Abd al-Latif al-Azhari. Hand of the 10th/16th century.

[1304] Isma'il Ibn Abi Bakr Ibn al-Muqri' al-Shawari al-Shaghdari : إسماعيل بن أبي بكر بن المقرئ الشاوري الشغدري اليمني (died 837/1433) Wasiya وصية.

This exhortation to piety is identical with the qasida قصيدة in ms. Berlin 7896 (nr.3; mentioned in GAL II 191 nr.5). Added to the verses is a takhmis تخميس which is also in ms. Berlin 7896, nr.3 (collection Sprenger 540, fol.474v-476r) and ascribed there to Ibn al-Khayyat al-Yamani ابن الخياط اليمني.

Ms.76.

[1305] Fragment of a book on interpretation of dreams (in Rajaz-metres).

The text is different from the mss. Berlin 4263ff.

Ms.77.

28 folios; 14,5×21 cm; 15 lines; naskhi. Beginning missing. Copied by Muhammad Ibn Mahmud al-Hariri al-Ahmadi al-Shafi'i in 977/1569.

[1306] fol.1-26v: An instruction book on prayers, their performance and times.

The author is not mentioned. Fol.3r2-4 refers to Siraj al-Din al-Bulqini سراج الدين البلقيني (died 805/1403; cf. GAL II 93; S II 114), called Shaykh al-Islam شيخ الإسلام and to his son qadi al-qudat Alam al-Din شيخنا , called shaykhuna قاضي القضاة علم الدين . This means that the author was a contemporary of Alam al-Din (died 868/1463: see GAL II 96 nr.32) and must have lived in the 9th/15th century.

[1307] fol.26v-28r: Arba'un hadithan min al-sihah wa-al-hisan

أربعون حديثاً من الصحاح والحسان

No author is mentioned. On fol.28v a different hand has added: qad farragha min tastir hadha al-kitab ahwaj khalq Allah al-malik al-wahhab ila rahmat al-aziz al-hakim al-tawwab al-Shaykh Muhammad Ibn Muhammad al-shahir bi-Ibn al-Bayluni al-Shafi'i al-madhab al-ahmadi al-mashrab قد فرغ من تسطير هذا الكتاب أوج خلق الله الملك الوهاب إلى رحمتي العزيز الحكيم التواب الشيخ محمد بن محمد الشهير بابن البيلوني الشافعي المذهب الأحمد المشرب . The author mentioned here, Ibn al-Bayluni, cannot be identical with Muhammad Fath Allah Ibn Mahmud Ibn Muhammad al-Halabi al-Bayluni (977-1042/1570-1632: GAL II 274; S II 385), because the ms. was written in 977/1569 (see above). Furthermore, the bio-bibliographical sources on al-Halabi al-Bayluni (see also KAHHALE VIII 53; XI 117; XIII 410) do not refer to any work on Arba'un hadithan.

Ms.78.

17 folios; 10,5×15,5 cm; 16 lines; vocalized clear naskhi. Chapter-headings in red ink. Paper partially damaged. Copied 1125/1713.

This creed is written in Rajaz-verses. Cf. on it and on the author (died 1041/1631) GAL II 316; S II 436 (nr.5).

[1309] fol.13v-17v: Student's notes. Fol.14r contains Abd al-Ghani al-Nabulusi عَبْدُ الْغَنِيِّ النَّابُلُسِيِّ, Nazm asma' Allah al-husna نظم أسماء الله الحسنى.

Ms.79.

25 folios; 13×17,5 cm; 12 lines; vocalized naskhi. Copied by Ahmad Agha Ibn Arab in 1283/1866.

[1310] Mawlid al-nabi مولد النبي.

It is not clear whether the copyist (katib كاتب) is also the author.

Ms.80.

4 folios; 11,5×16,5 cm; 18 lines; naskhi; hand of the 12th/18th century.

[1311] Two treatises (Risalatani رسالتان) by Shaykh Yunus al-Kurdi شيخ يونس الكردي, on mystical questions.

The author is perhaps identical with Yusuf Ibn Husayn al-Kurdi al-Shafi'i يوسف بن حسين الكردي الشافعي who died 804/1402 and is said to have joined the mystical congregation of the Salihya صالحية (KAHHALE XIII 294). The author refers 2v, -3 to al-shaykh Taha الشيخ طه and to the Fusus فصوص by Ibn al-Arabi ابن العربي.

Ms.81.

60 folios; 10×14 cm; 17 lines; naskhi. The paper shows some traces of damp which do not, however, impair the text. Turkish hand of the 12th/18th century. The first folio (beginning of the text) and the end are missing.

[1312] Ya'qub Ibn Idris al-Qaramani Qara Ya'qub يعقوب بن إدريس القرماني إشراف التواريخ: Ishaq al-tawarikh: قرة يعقوب.

The title can be found on fol.1v3. The text is identical with ms. Berlin 9589 from which the author (died 833/1429: cf. GAL II 223; S II 313) can be identified. Further mss. of this still unedited text on history from Adam to Muhammad, his relatives and companions, including a chapter on huffaz حفظ and theological schools are mentioned in GAL. Contrary to BROCKELMANN (GAL) the text of the Berlin ms. and Ishraq al-tawarikh are identical; as our ms. shows, the Berlin ms. is not an excerpt from Ishraq al-tawarikh. A comparison with the Berlin ms. shows that in our ms. the last chapter about theological schools and Hadith-scholars, about a'immat al-madhahib أئمة المذاهب and a'immat al-hadith أئمة الحديث is missing. One of the sources on early Islamic history is (according to fol.8r4f.) Abu Mansur al-Ghawass أبو منصور الغواص , Uyun al-tafasir عيون التفاسير . This book is mentioned by BROCKELMANN (GAL S II 986 nr.32) as an unidentifiable book (wrongly in the chapter on exegesis of the Koran and referring to one ms., Berlin Oct.1467). As our ms. shows, this must have been written before the 8th/14th century.

Ms.82.

20 folios; 16×21,5 cm; 20 lines; naskhi. The text is on the margin in a few cases slightly damaged (loss of some letters). Hand of the 12-13th/18-19th century.

[1313] A treatise on Muhammad's midnight journey to the seven heavens (al-isra' الإسراء), with commentary.

The commented text (introduced by qawluhu قوله in red ink) mentions fol.4v11 al-Hafiz Abu al-Qasim Sulayman Ibn Ahmad al-Tabarani الحافظ أبو القاسم سليمان بن أحمد الطبراني (died 360/971; cf. GAL S I 279) and the commentary mentions among later authors on fol.7r, - 8 al-Suyuti السيوطي (died 911/1505). This may be interpreted as the terminus post quem of the commented text (after the 4th/10th century) and commentary (after the 10th/16th century).

Ms.83.

6 folios; 16×22,5 cm; 20 lines; naskhi. Paper sometimes damaged. With a small astronomical map on the last folio. Hand of the 12th/18th century.

A commentary by al-Azhari (died 905/1499; cf. GAL II 27; S II 22) on his own small grammar.

Ms.86.

28 folios; 15×20,5 cm; 18 lines; naskhi. Single words in red ink.
Hand of the 12th/18th century. The beginning is missing.

[1317] Commentary on a work about grammar.

The commented text is perhaps Sharaf al-Din Abu Abd Allah Muhammad Ibn Abd Allah al-Mursi al-Sulami شرف الدين أبو عبد الله محمد بن عبد الله المرسي السلمي (died 655/1257), al-Dawabit al-kulliyya fima tamassu al-haja ilay-hi min al-Arabiyya الضوابط الكلية فيما تمس الحاجة إليه من العربية . The text of al-Mursi (cf. on him GAL I 312; S I 546; KAHHALE X 244f.) is only preserved in ms. Berlin 6614; of this ms. the chapters on fol.16r ff. correspond to the chapters in our ms. (beginning in the chapter on al-jam' الجمع). The bio-bibliographical sources do not mention any commentary on al-Mursi's treatise. Our ms. is said to have been written (tamma al-kitab ala yad katibihi... تم الكتاب على يد كاتبه) by Ibrahim Ibn Shaykh Ahmad al-Biqaci إبراهيم بن شيخ أحمد البقاعي , perhaps also the author of our commentary.

[1319] A treatise on juridical questions concerning impurity (najasa نجاسة), an excerpt from Ahmad Ibn al-Imad أحمد بن العماد, Kitab al-Fari'a كتاب الفريعة.

This book is not mentioned in any bio-bibliographical source. Cf. a similar treatise on impurity by Ahmad Ibn al-Imad al-Aqfahsi أحمد بن العماد الأقفهسي (died 808/1405; cf. GAL II 388 nr.30) and has also the title mawlid al-nabi مولد النبي (cf. GAL S II 528 nr.29). The author of this text on the merits (fada'il فضائل) of Abbas, the uncle of the Prophet, is not mentioned. Because he refers (fol.2v) to Ibn Asakir ابن العساكر (died 571/1176) the text must be composed after the 6th/12th century. Hajji Khalifa (Kashf ed. Istanbul 1941, II 1843) mentions 5 authors of works about manaqib al-Abbas مناقب العباس. The writer of our text may be one of the last two mentioned authors, namely Abu al-Qasim Isma'il Ibn Ahmad al-Samarqandi أبو القاسم إسماعيل بن أحمد السمرقندي or Abu Tahir al-Sulafi أبو طاهر السلفي. Both are not identifiable.

[1456] fol.1v: A short note on the alphabet, the role of letters.

At the end al-Imadi العمادي is mentioned as author. This must be al-Imadi al-Mufti al-Hanafi bi-Dimashq الحنفي بدمشق who is mentioned on fol.1r, apparently as owner and writer of these notes and extracts. KAHHALE III 180 mentions Hamid Ibn Ali Ibn Ibrahim Ibn Abd al-Rahim Ibn Imad al-Din Ibn Muhibb al-Din al-Dimashqi al-Hanafi al-Imadi حامد بن علي بن إبراهيم بن عبد الرحيم بن عماد الدين بن محب الدين دمشقي as Mufti of Damascus who lived 1103/1692 - 1171/1758 (cf. also GAL S II 434).

[1823] fol.85r-87r: Excerpts and notes about jurisprudence.

[1824] fol.87v: Mawlana Iwad مولانا عوض: A grammatical note about idafa إضافة.

The author is perhaps Ya'qub Ibn Ahmad Ibn Iwad يعقوب بن أحمد بن عوض (KAHHALE Awad) who lived about 845/1441 and wrote a commentary on the Kafiya كافية of Ibn Hajib ابن حاجب (s. KAHHALE XIII 241).

[1825] fol.88r-106r: Notes, definitions and excerpts, mainly from religious literature; but also a note on the prohibition of sodomy (liwata لواطه) fol.92r. Remarkable is an excerpt from an Adab-book fol.103r-106r:

[1826] A part of an extensive commentary on the Koran (section of Sura 2, then Suras 3, 4, 5, 6, 7).

This important text can be identified as Abu al-Layth al-Samarqandi تفسير القرآن أبو الليث السمرقندي (died 373/983 or later), (mentioned in GAS I 445f.). So far three volumes (contain the commentary on Sura 1-6) are edited by ABD AL-RAHIM AHMAD AL-ZAQQA عبد الرحيم أحمد الزققة (Baghdad 1985-1986).

Ms.357.

463 loose folios; 16×22 cm; 23 lines; maghribi. Single words sometimes in red, yellow or blue ink. Lacunas in the text and some folios may be disordered. Different kinds of paper. Binding damaged; red leather cover with vignettes. Hand of the end 13th/19th century.

[1827] fol.1v: A short poem on the interpretation of the word ilahun إله.

Incomplete at the end.

[1828] fol.2r-225v: A long fragment of a work about religious duties and Islamic belief (part I).

The text contains many chapters (bab باب) and subsections (fasl فصل); we mention here:

fol.10: fasl fi bayan al-iman wa-al-islam wa-al-ihsan فصل في بيان الإيمان والإسلام والإحسان.

fol.13r: Bab fi ta'rif al-ridda wa-ahkamiha باب في تعريف الردة وأحكامها fol.20: Bab fi al-tahara wa-aqsamiha wa-ahkamiha باب في الطهارة وأقسامها وأحكامها fol.36v: Bab fi al-kalam ala al-salat wa-ma yata'allaqu biha min al-ahkam باب في الكلام على الصلاة وما يتعلق بها من الأحكام fol.172v: Bab fi fadl al-haq wa-ma yata'allaqu biha min al-ahkam باب في فضل الحق وما يتعلق بها من الأحكام etc.

On fol.155v the text cites al-Kharashi الخرشى (died 1101/1689; see GAL II 84, 1n); therefore it must have been written later.

[1829] fol.227v-361v: A fragment of introductory work about principles of mysticism.

Fol.354-361 are misplaced and belong perhaps to another work. -

Fol.274r cites the Tuhfat al-salikin تحفة السالكين = Tuhfat al-salikin wa-dalalat al-sa'irin li-nahj al-muqarrabin تحفة السالكين ودلالة السائرين لنهج المقربين by Muhammad Ibn Hasan Ibn Muhammad al-Samannudi al-Azhari محمد بن حسن بن محمد السنودي الأزهرى (died 1199/1785; GAL II 353; S II 479). Therefore our text must be composed in the 12-13th/18-19th century.

[1830] fol.362r-446r: A work about religious traditions and duties; titleless.

Fol.422v mentions Sulayman Ibn Abd al-Wahhab سليمان بن عبد الوهاب, a grandson of al-Imam Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Wahhab الإمام محمد بن عبد الوهاب who died 1206/1791 (GAL S II 530-2).

[1831] fol.448v-463r: A devotional book, without author and title. Incomplete at the end.

All texts cite late authors. Therefore they may go back to one compiler. It is possible that this compiler wrote in North Africa in the late 12th/18th century.

Ms.358.

وصف تفصيلي لمخطوطات الجزء الثاني

Koran: the text

Ms.1.

118 folios; 7×9 cm; 5 lines; vocalized muhaqqaq محقق, chapter-headings in thuluth ثلث and written in yellow ink, as can be found in Mamluk manuscripts of the 8th/14th century: compare David James, Qur'ans of the Mamluks (London 1988). Small dimensions like our Ms. are rare: cf. James, p. 240 no.47 and 241 no.51. - Thick brownish and spotted paper, in part damaged, worm-eaten and rubbed, in a few cases with some loss of text; the first page is replaced by a later hand who wrote on the inside of the front cover. Binding repaired. Only the original of the front cover is preserved; it has in the centre an ornament filled with flowers and remnants of a geometrical frame of which each corner and the middle of every side is provided with a small triangle consisting of three geometrical points. - Paper, script and front cover point to a Mamluk origin, perhaps the 8th/14th century.

[2001] fols. 1v-18r: al-Qur'an القرآن, Sura 36.

[2002] fols. 18v-91v: Anonymous: al-Hayakil al-sab'a الهياكل السبعة.

The text starts abruptly with al-Haykal al-awwal الهيكل الأول as follows:

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم. الحمد لله الذي لا ينسى من ذكره ولا يخيب من دعاه والحمد لله الذي إذا توكل العبد...

Lacunae are at least between fols. 27v and 28r, 48r and 49r, 63v and 64r, 76v and 77r, 89v and 90r. fol. 55v continues with al-

Haykal al-sadis الهيكل السادس, fol. 63v with al-Haykal al-sabi' الهيكل السابع.

The text ends on fol. 91v:

و فرج عني كل هم يا مفرج هم يعقوب! فرج عني يا مفرج ويا كاشف ضرر أيوب اكشف ضرري واغلب!

The text is, as the beginning of the first haykal shows, identical with Ms. Berlin 3665 and with Ms. Princeton 1965; our Ms. has not, however, the introduction which explains the marvellous power of the seven hayakil, the prayers and the praise of God. Nevertheless, our text is apparently longer than Ms. Berlin 3665/1 and Ms. Princeton 1965; its relation to them as well as to mss. Berlin 3665/2 and 3666/1 deserves a detailed investigation. - Our Ms. seems to be the oldest copy so far known.

[2003] fols. 92r-118v: Prayers, called hijab حجاب, asking for protection against evils.

The prayers are ascribed to Musa موسى (fols.92r-94r), Ali علي (fols.94v-102r), Muhammad محمد (fols.102v-106r) and Ja'far جعفر (fols.106v-118v). The text is different from the prayers called hijab حجاب or hirz حرز in mss. Berlin 3892ff. and Tübingen 178. Noteworthy is the ascription of the prayers to four of the 12 Shiite Imams: Musa موسى = Musa al-Kazim موسى الكاظم (died 183/799), the 7th Imam; Ali علي = most probably Ali Ibn Abi Talib علي بن أبي طالب (died 40/661), the first Imam or perhaps Ali al-Rida علي الرضا (died 203/818), the 8th Imam or Ali al-Hadi علي الهادي (died 254/868), the 10th Imam; Muhammad محمد = Muhammad al-Jawad محمد الجواد (died 220/835), the 9th Imam and Ja'far جعفر = Ja'far al-Sadiq جعفر الصادق (died 148/765), the 6th

Imam. See the table in Halm, Schia, p.37. Beginning (after the Basmala):

توكلت على الله وحده توكلت على الله الحي القيوم الذي لا يموت وتحصنت...

The text is incomplete at the end.

Shatibiya). - According to the colophon (fol. 20r) the author finished his commentary 17 Sha'ban 1143/25 February 1731 and wrote his notes (in addition, a few notes resulting from a later collation can be found in the margin) during 9 Shawwal 1152/9 January 1740. As these dates fall within the lifetime of the commentator Hashim Ibn Muhammad al-Maghribi, our text is apparently an autograph.

Yet neither of these historians, up to now our only sources on Molla Khalil Allah, mention our treatise, a sophisticated interpretation of the splitting of the moon (mentioned in Sura 54, 1), by referring to earlier interpretations by commentators of the Koran (e.g. al-Baydawi البيضاوي and the Sufis), but also to philosophers like Aristotle, Abu Nasr al-Farabi أبو نصر الفارابي and Ibn Sina ابن سينا (fol. 6v).

On Ibn Farah al-Ishbili (died 699/1300) and his poem in which terms from the science of hadith are used in puns → GAL I 372; S I 635. The commentary cannot be identified and contrary to a note on fol. 1r it is not written by al-Qarafi القرافي. As the text quotes verbatim from Qarafi's commentary (→ the following text and compare e.g. 2r14 with 11v6f.) it must have been composed after 962/1555. It is different from the commentary by Muhammad Ibn Muhammad Ibn al-Amir al-Kabir محمد بن محمد بن الأمير الكبير (died 1232/1816): → Ms. Berlin 1059. The text is a commentary by Ibn Hajar al-Asqalani (died 852/1448) on his own Nukhbat al-fikar fi mustalah al-athar نخبة الفكر في مصطلح الأثر, a summary of Ibn al-Salah al-Shahrazuri ابن الصلاح الشهرزوري (died 643/1243), Kitab Aqsa al-amal wa-al-shawq fi ulum hadith al-rasul = Kitāb Aqṣā al-ʿamal wa-al-shawq fī ulūm ḥadīth al-rasul = كتاب أقصى الأمل والشوق في علوم الحديث (علوم) الحديث → GAL I 359 no. 1 e; S I 611 no. 1 e.

This commented treatise on technical terms used in the science of Hadith was dictated by Ibn Hajar to his pupils in Cairo; fol. 30v gives an authorization (ijaza إجازة) of the transmitted text by offering a chain of transmitters which ends with Fath Allah Ibn al-Shaykh Mahmud al-Mawsili al-Hanafi فتح الله بن الشيخ محمود الموصلي الحنفي and mentions as date Shawwal 1134/July-August 1722. The title is not mentioned in our Ms. which, as Ms. Berlin 1096, on fol. 1r in the margin mentions the title Kitab Nukhbat al-fikar fi mustalah al-athar كتاب نخبة الفكر في مصطلح الأثر; this information should be supplemented by the addition ma'a sharhiha مع شرحها. The correct title is given by Hajji Khalifa II, col. 1936.

The author (died 1106/1697) is given as having the name Burhan al-Din Ibrahim Ibn Mar'i al-Shabrakhiti al-Maliki برهان الدين إبراهيم بن مرعي in GAL II 318 and S II 438. The titles al-Futuhāt al-wahbiya and Sharh al-Arba'in al-Nawawiya الفتوحات الوهبية and شرح الأربعين النووية.

are erroneously mentioned in GAL as separate books. Both refer to the same book, as can be seen from our Ms. The still unpublished text is a very extensive commentary on the Kitab al-Arba'in hadithan كتاب الأربعين حديثاً, a collection of 40 or 41 traditions made by al-Nawawi النووي (died 676/1277); → GAL I 396 no. [2024] fols. 2v-109r: Abu Bakr al-Shashi = Abu Bakr Muhammad Ibn Ahmad Ibn al-Husayn Ibn Umar al-Shashi al-Qaffal = أبو بكر الشاشي القفال, called Fakhr al-Islam al-Mustazhiri فخر الإسلام المستظهري: Kitab Usul al-fiqh al-musamma al-Shashi كتاب أصول الفقه المسمى الشاشي.

The colophon mentions this title and "Abu Bakr al-Shashi" as author. As the bio-bibliographical sources list quite a lot of names of jurists from Shash شاش (Tashkent) which contain the same kunya, it is helpful to have a look at the sources quoted or mentioned in the text in order to identify the author. We find al-Shafi'ī الشافعي (3v, 4v, 11r, 50r, 53v, 57r, 69r, 70r, 71r, 81r, 86r), Abu Hanifa أبو حنيفة (9v, 11v, 16r, 46r, 55r, 57r-v, 64v, 81r, 109r), Abu Yusuf أبو يوسف (32v, 64v, 74r), Muhammad al-Shaybani محمد الشيباني, in part his Kitab alsiyar al-kabir الكبير or his al-Jami' al-kabir الجامع الكبير (38r, 54r, 58v, 64v, 66r), Malik Ibn Anas مالك بن أنس or the Malikiya المالكية (57r, 76v); finally al-Karkhi الكرخي (38v) and al-Hamasi الحماسي (35r): these two sources belong to a later period. al-Karkhi is apparently identical with Abu al-Hasan Ubayd Allah Ibn al-Husayn Ibn Dallal al-Karkhi أبو الحسن عبيد الله بن الحسين بن دلال الكرخي (260/873 - 340/952); al-Hamasi is perhaps identical with al-Hasan Ibn Harb الحسن بن حرب (wrote ca. 400/1010; → GAS I 499) whose nisba in Hajji Khalifa is misread by the editor G. Flügel (III, p. 637, no. 7300) as al-Hassani الحساني and in the edition of Istanbul (II 1010) as الحوي. According to Hajji Khalifa, al-Hasan Ibn Harb refers to the doctrines of al-Shafi'i and Abu Hanifa. This can be confirmed by our Ms. More important, however, is the mention of "al-Qadi al-Imam Abu Zayd al-Marwazi القاضي الإمام أبو زيد المروزي" on fol. 104r: this scholar was a teacher of Abu Bakr Abd Allah Ibn Ahmad Ibn Abd Allah al-Marwazi al-Qaffal al-saghir أبو بكر عبد الله بن أحمد بن عبد الله المروزي القفال الصغير (→ Ibn al-Imad, Shadharat III, 208, 4) who died 417/1026 (→ GAS I 500f.); he was a pupil of the jurist and Hadith-scholar Abu Mansur al-Azdi al-Muhallabi al-Marwi أبو منصور الأزدي المهلب المروي who died 410/1019 (→ Subk , Tabaqat II, 196, 12f.). The quotation of Abu Zayd al-Marwazi in our text enables us to date its author to the 11th century. This date can be confirmed and specified by a reference to the Shafi'ite Ibn al-Sabbagh ابن الصباغ and his Kitab al-Shamil كتاب شامل on fol. 86r, 2f.; Abu Nasr Abd al-Sayyid Ibn Muhammad Ibn al-Sabbagh أبو نصر عبد السيد بن محمد بن الصباغ was born in 400/1009 in Baghdad and died in 1083 (→ GAL I 388; S I 671). Therefore, Abu Bakr al-Shashi cannot be identical with the Hanafite Ishaq Ibn Ibrahim al-Shashi al-Samarqandi إسحاق بن إبراهيم الشاشي السمرقندي who is said to have died during 325/937 (→ GAL I 174; S I 294) and who is said to have written the Kitab al-Usul كتاب الأصول which is attributed to him in the editions of our text published in India (e.g. Lucknow 1293/1876). The old editions of our Ms. which were published in India between 1264/1848 and 1302/1885 (→ GAL I 174; S I 294), attribute the text to Ishaq Ibn Ibrahim al-Shashi apparently by following Abd al-Qadir Abu al-Wafa' al-Qurashi عبد القادر أبو الوفاء القرشي (died 775/1373), al-Jawahir al-mudi'a fi tabaqat al-Hanafiya الجواهر المضينة في طبقات الحنفية (I, Haydarabad 1332/1913, p.136) and his epitomator, an Indian scholar from Lucknow, Abd al-Hayy al-Laknawi عبد الحي اللكنوي (died 1304/1886), who in his al-Fawa'id al-bahiya fi tarajim al-Hanafiya الفوائد البهية في تراجم الحنفية (published in India 1293/1876; → GAL S II 645 no. 13 and 857 no. 34 par. 15) repeated the information given by Abu al-Wafa' al-Qurashi (→ GAL S I 294). This report cannot be confirmed, however, by other bio-bibliographical sources; Sezgin (GAS I) with good reasons omitted any article on a Hanafite scholar called "Ishaq Ibn Ibrahim al-Shashi . Sezgin attributed the Kitab al-Usul to Nizam al-Din al-Shashi نظام الدين الشاشي from the 7th/13th century and based his attribution on the information given by the catalogue in Patna (Bankipore). In spite of this information and in spite of the attribution of the Kitab al-Usul to Badr al-Din al-Shashi al-Shirwani بدر الدين الشاشي الشرواني from the 8th/14th or 9th/15th century in the Ms. Peshawar 592, Brockelmann keeps to the above mentioned early date of the Kitab al-Usul and its attribution to Ishaq Ibn Ibrahim al-Shashi al-Samarqandi (→ GAL I 174 no.8); in GAL S I 294 he therefore explained the reference to Ibn al-Sabbagh as a late interpolation. Ignaz Goldziher (in: ZDMG 71,1917, p.443), however, had already doubted the correctness of the given year of the death of Ishaq Ibn Ibrahim al-Shashi al-Samarqandi. Sezgin (GAS I 498 no.1) accepted the above mentioned late date and the authorship as given in the catalogue of Patna.

In view of the above-given enumeration of sources and authorities quoted in the Ms. the proposed solutions are no longer acceptable. A recently (Beirut1982) published (uncritical) edition by Khalil al-

Mayyis خليل الميس attributed the text to Abu Ali Ahmad Ibn Muhammad al-Shashi أحمد بن محمد الشاشي (died 344/955), without offering convincing arguments. The text is printed (without text-critical notes), together with a commentary by Muhammad Fayd al-Hasan al-Kankuhi = Muhammad Fayz Allah Ganguhi = محمد فيض الحسن الكنكوهي an Indian scholar from the beginning of the 20th century (→ GAL S I 267). As already proposed by R. Levy in his Catalogue of the Arabic Manuscripts in the Library of the India Office II/3 (London 1936), Ms. no. 1439, the Usul al-Shashi أصول الشاشي most probably was written by Abu Bakr Muhammad Ibn Ahmad Ibn al-Husayn Ibn Umar al-Shashi al-Qaffal, with the cognomen Fakhr al-Islam al-Mustazhiri (429/1037-507/1113; → Subki, Tabaqat VI 70ff.; GAL I 390f.; S I 674). Brockelmann mentions among the works of Ibn Umar al-Shashi al-Qaffal ابن عمر الشاشي القفال the Kitab al-Usul and its alternative title Kitab al-Khamsin fi usul al-Hanafiya كتاب الخمسين في أصول الحنفية; he enumerates some old editions published in India without witting upon the identity with the Kitab al-Usul attributed elsewhere (→ GAL I 174; S I 294) to Ishaq Ibn Ibrahim al-Shashi.

The ascription of the Usul al-Shashi to Ibn Umar al-Shashi al-Qaffal from the 5th/11th century can be corroborated by an additional demonstration of its non-identity with Muhammad Ibn Ali Ibn Isma'il al-Qaffal al-kabir al-Shashi محمد بن علي بن إسماعيل القفال الكبير الشاشي (291/904-365/975), Mahasin al-shari'a fi furu' al-Shafi'iya محاسن الشريعة في فروع الشافعية (mentioned GAS I 498 no.2): the quotations from the Bab al-najasat باب النجاسات in Subki, Tabaqat II, 79 cannot be found in our Ms. and its beginning (→ Ms. Saray Ahmet (Istanbul) III, 1317/Catalogue II, 308) differs from our Ms. - In view of these observations, our Ms. is most probably also different from the Kitab fi usul al-fiqh which Subki (Tabaqat III, 200, 17) mentions among the works of al-Qaffal al-kabir al-Shashi.

Finally, our Ms. cannot be identical with Abu Bakr Abd Allah Ibn Ahmad Ibn Abd Allah al-Marwazi al-Qaffal al-saghir أبو بكر عبد الله بن أحمد بن عبد الله المروزي القفال الصغير (327/938-417/1026; → GAS I 500f.), al-Fatawa الفتاوى of which one ms. is preserved (Süleymaniye, Istanbul 675, fols. 1-122v; copied 895/1489-1490. → GAS I 501): the quotation from this work in Subki السبكي, Tabaqat طبقات II, 134, 8ff. cannot be found in our ms.

Future research into the contents of the Usul al-Shashi, other works by the same author (→ GAL) and their historical context may give more evidence of the author's starting-point from the discussions held in the 5th/11th century. These discussions on the principles of law culminated in the efforts of Ghazzali الغزالي a contemporary of Ibn Umar al-Shashi al-Qaffal, to create a more elaborate concept of ijtihad اجتهاد , i.e. of independent legal judgement which must be based on ilm علم → I. Goldziher, Streitschrift des Ghazali gegen die Batinijja-Sekte (Leiden 1956), pp. 86ff.; art. Idjtihad in EI2 and the Usul al-Shashi, fols. 76r-v. Enumeration of the chapters in our Ms.:

84 folios; 12,5×18cm; 15 lines; small naskhi, single words are written in red ink or overlined. Smooth, thin and in part brownish paper. Fol. 8v is damp-stained with some loss of text. Pasteboard binding with red leather spine; covers and flap with leather frame. Hand of the 12th/18th century.

مراقبة الوصول إلى علم الأصول Mirqat al-wusul ila ilm al-usul: بن فرامرز ملا خسرو

The Ms. does not mention the author; compare, however, the beginning of Ms. Princeton no. 949. On the author (died 885/1480) and this text on theological and juridical terms → GAL II 227 no.2 and S II 317 no.2.

As a comparison of the chapters on fol. 9v ff. shows, our text has the same sections as a later text, written by the Zaidite author al-Mansur billah al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad Ibn Ali Ibn Rasul Allah المنصور بالله القاسم بن محمد بن علي بن رسول الله (died 1029/1620; → GAL II 405; S II 558f.): compare the chapters in his much shorter work with the same title in Ms. Berlin 10299. Ms. 14.

239 folios; 13,5×20,5 cm; 21 lines; small, regular Turkish naskhi. The text is within a gold (fols.1-3r) and red frame; title-page with vignette (with the colours blue, golden, red and green). Smooth paper, sometimes spotted and damp-stained. Original red leather binding; covers and flap with centre-ornament and with a frame consisting of geometrical lines; the inside is pasted with marbled paper. Fol. 1r with owners' stamps: "Rashid Ibrahim" = Rashid Ibn Nu'man Ibn Uthman Ibn Muhammad, Istanbul 1277/1860; al-Sabri Ibn Abd Allah al-Khadimi, teacher (mudarris) of the Beyazit mosque in Istanbul, 1221/1806 and Zarif Mustafa, 1268/1851-2. The Ms. was copied by Ahmad Ibn al-Hajj Bashir Ibn Uthman Ibn Yusuf on 19 Safar 1094/17 February 1683.

[2027] fols. 1v-233v: al-Shaybani الشيباني: al-Jami' al-saghir الجامع الصغير, revised version with commentary by Umar Ibn Abd al-Aziz Ibn Maza عمر بن عبد العزيز بن مازة, called Jami' al-Sadr al-Shahid جامع الصدر الشهيد.

This still unedited version is based on the redaction by Abu Tahir Muhammad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Sufyan al-Dabbas أبو طاهر محمد بن محمد بن سفيان الدباس (Ms.: al-Dayyas الدياس) al-Baghdadi البغدادي, who died about 340/951. - On al-Shaybani (died 189/805) and his work on Hanafite applied law in the commented revision by Ibn Maza (died 536/1141) → GAS I 428 no. V e. Our Ms. mentions as author the name "Husam al-a'imma Burhan al-Din Imam al-Haramayn حسام الأئمة برهان الدين إمام الحرمین" (fol.1v2); as a comparison with Ms. Berlin 4437 shows, however, the text is composed by Ibn Maza. Sezgin (GAS I 429 j) mentions "Burhan al-Din Imam al-Haramayn" - according to him "most probably" from the 6th/12th century - as author of another redaction of Shaybani's al-Jami' al-saghir and refers to a Ms. in the Zahiriya الظاهرية (Damascus). This reference is incorrect, however, and the source mentioned by Sezgin does not confirm it. The entry in Sezgin is apparently based on a misunderstanding and should be dropped, as it appears to be the work by Ibn Maza. This work is mentioned in the new catalogue of the Zahiriya as no. 8291: the Ms. has a different beginning and is attributed to "Husam al-Din Umar Ibn Abd al-Aziz Ibn Umar Ibn Maza al-Bukhari حسام الدين عمر بن عبد العزيز بن مازة البخاري"; s. Fähras makhtutat dar al-kutub al-Zahiriya الظاهرية II, ed. al-Fiqh al-hanafi الفقه الحنفي, فهرس مخطوطات دار الكتب الظاهرية, Muhammad Muti' al-Hafiz محمد مطيع الحافظ (Damascus 1401/1980), p.245. Our Ms. contains numerous empty spaces; as a comparison with Ms. Berlin 4437 shows, they had been assigned for a later addition of the chapter-headings.

Ms. 15.

77 folios; 14,5×20,3 cm; 23 lines. Small naskhi, tending to nasta'liq. The text is written within a red frame; chapter-headings are written in red ink and single words are overlined in red. Original black cloth binding with dark brown leather spine; in addition the corners of the covers are pasted with leather. Owners' remarks on fols. 1r, 5r and 77, some in Turkish. Hand of the 10th/16th century.

Thick, smooth paper, slightly spotted; fols. 9 and 50 are slightly damaged. Original leatherbinding; covers and flap are decorated with geometrical lines and points and their inside is pasted with marbled paper. Owner's remark on fol. 1r: Mustafa Ibn Hasan al-Turkmani. [2030] fols. 9v-49v: Siraj al-Din Qari' al-Hidaya سراج الدين قارئ الهداية

الفتاوي السراجية al-Fatawi al-Sirajiya

The formal legal opinions of Qari' al-Hidaya (died 829/1426) were collected by his pupil Kamal al-Din Ibn Humam al-Hanafi كمال الدين بن همّام الحنفي (died 861/1457). The collection contains juridical questions by a judge and the answers by Qari' al-Hidaya. On further mss. of this still unedited text → GAL II 81 and S II 91.

The text of Ms. Berlin 4824 ends with fol. 48r 8 in our Ms., which has seven more questions and answers.

Owner's remark on fol. 6r: al-Sayyid Hafiz Salih Ibn al-Hajj Muhammad Qawuqji-zade. Owner's stamp on fol. 6v and 7r [2031] fols. 6v-105v: Abu al-Barakat Abd Allah Ibn Ahmad Ibn Mahmud al-Nasafi أبو البركات عبد الله بن أحمد بن محمود النسفي: Kanz al-daqa'iq fi al-furu' كنز الدقائق في الفروع.

On the author (died 710/1310) and this work on Hanafite applied fiqh, of which there are a number of commentaries, several printings in the 19th century and a translation into Persian → GAL II 196 no. III and S II 265 no. III. According to the introduction it is a summary, made by Nasafi, of his al-Wafi fi al-furu' الوافي في الفروع. In the margin and between the lines are a few notes. Fol. 1v-5v give an enumeration of all chapters. The Ms. is incomplete at the end (perhaps one folio is missing).

Thick, smooth paper, slightly water-stained and spotted. Modern red leather covers with flap, each with a gold frame and with a centre-ornament which is filled with flowers. Copied (at least fol. 111 till the end) by Yusuf Ibn Mahmud Ibn Yusuf Ibn Abd al-Nabi in the month Dhu al-Hijja 1095/November 1684.

[2032] fols. 2v-157v: Tahir Ibn Islam Ibn Qasim al-Ansari al-Khwarizmi طاهر بن إسلام بن قاسم الأنصاري الخوارزمي: Kitab Jawahir al-fiqh كتاب جواهر الفقه.

On the author (wrote 771/1369) and on more mss. of his still unedited work on the Hanafite furu', a compilation from many works, → GAL I 80 no. 1 and S I 89 no.1. Tahir al-Khwarizmi mentions his sources on fol. 3r-5r and gives us an idea of his broad knowledge of theology (with special preference for eastern theology of the school of Maturidi (الماتريدي) and fiqh of his time. Remarkable is his extensive use of fatwa (فتوى)-collections in the section on furu'. The description and enumeration of chapters in the catalogue of Ms. Berlin 3520 gives an idea of the contents. - A list of all chapters is given in our Ms. on fol. 2r. A few notes (in part in Turkish) can be found on fol. 1r, 157v-158r and in the margin.

Ms. 19.

486 folios; 15×21,2 cm; 27 lines; carefully written Turkish naskhi; single sentences are written in red ink. The text is within a golden frame; its beginning (fol. 8v) has a vignette with the colours gold, blue, red, green and brown; fol. 4v has a vignette with the colours gold, blue and green. Between covers and book is a marbled wrapper. Owners' stamps on fol. 8r, one (as on fol. 483v) with the year 1227/1812; Owner's name: Muhammad Qudsi Halimzade and the date Rabi' I 1206/end October 1791. The copy was ordered by Muhammad Khalil Efendi al-Muradi and accomplished by Mustafa Ibn Muhammad Ibn Ahmad Ibn Mahmud al-Kanji on 10 Muharram 1194/17 January 1780.

A voluminous commentary by al-Haskafi (died 1088/1677) on al-Timirtashi (died 1004/1595), Tanwir al-absar wa-jami' al-bihar تنوير

الأبصار وجامع البحار, a compendium of the Hanafite furu'. The commentary is only accessible in old printings of the 19th century published in India; → GAL S II 428 no. 1b.

The beginning of the text differs from Ms. Berlin 4623. Fol. 4v-7r contain an enumeration of all chapters. These folios as well as three preceding folios are not included in the Arabic numbering of the pages.

Ms. 20.

267 folios; 16×22 cm; 27 lines; unvocalized naskhi; single words are written in red ink. European paper with watermarks. Cloth binding with red leather spine and flap. Copied by Muhammad Ibn Hasan al-Baytar at the end of Muharram 1296/ca. 25 January 1879.

The author is only mentioned in Kahhale XI 163 with the name Muhammad Ibn Kamal al-Din Ibn Muhammad Ibn Husayn Ibn Muhammad Ibn Hamza al-Husayni al-Hanafi محمد بن كمال الدين بن محمد بن محمد بن حمزة الحسيني الحنفي (died 1085/1674). Two more mss. of this work on applied law are Princeton no.1241 and Köprülü no. 658. - Isma'il Pasha al-Baghdadi, Idah II p.695 ascribes the text to Izz al-Din Abu al-Abbas Hamza Ibn Ahmad al-Husayni al-Sharif al-Dimashqi al-Shafi'i عز الدين أبو العباس حمزة بن أحمد الحسيني الشريف الدمشقي الشافعي (died 874/1469-70). This cannot be correct, however, as the text refers to later works, e.g. (fol. 85v7) to Mu'in al-mufti معين المفتي by Muhammad Ibn Abd Allah al-Arabi محمد بن عبد الله العربي, who wrote ±

986/1577 (→ GAL II 311; S II 427). - The description of the above-mentioned Köprülü manuscript correctly mentions as date of death the end of the 11th/17th century; the catalogue of Köprülü library gives as name of the author: Muhammad Ibn Kamal al-Din Muhammad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Husayn Ibn Kamal al-Din Muhammad Ibn al-Sayyid Hamza al-Husayni al-Hanafi al-Dimashqi mawliḍan al-Harrani aslan wa-mahtidan محمد بن كمال الدين محمد بن محمد بن حسين بن كمال الدين محمد بن السيد حمزة الحسيني الحنفي الدمشقي مولدا الحراني أصلا ومحتدا (Catalogue I p. 318).

The Köprülü Ms. ends with fol. 265r24 of our Ms., which continues with an epilogue enumerating some of the sources which the author used. After this enumeration we are informed by the author that he finished his book on 18 Dhu al-Hijja 1080/8 May 1670.

In the margin the copyist repeated keywords and sentences. Fol. 5v-6v give an enumeration of the chapter-titles (in red ink) and the subsections. The chapter-titles are:

al-Tahara الطهارة (fol. 9v-26r); al-Salat الصلاة (26r-62r); al-Zakat الزكاة (62r-65r); al-Sawm الصوم (65r-70r); al-Hajj الحج (70r-72r); al-Nikah النكاح (72r-83r); al-Talaq الطلاق (83r-102v); al-Itq wa-fihi al-tadbir wa-al-istilad العتق وفيه التدبير والاستيلاء (102v-108r); al-Iman الإيمان (108r-114r); al-Hudud wa-al-ta'zir الحدود والتعزير (114r-120r); al-Jihad wa-fihi al-faz al-islam wa-al-kufr الجهاد وفيه أفاض الإسلام والكفر (120r-129v); al-Laqt wa-al-luqta الألق والمفقود (129v-131v); al-Abiq wa-al-mafqud (131v-134r); al-Shirka الشركة (134r-137v); al-Waqf الوقف (137v-147v); al-Bay' البيع (147v-157v); al-Kafala wa-al-hawala الكفالة والحوالة (157v-162v); al-Qada' القضاء (162v-168v); al-Shahadat الشهادات (168v-176v); al-Da'wa الدعوى (176v-183r); al-Wakala الوكالة (183r-185v); al-Iqrar الإقرار (185v-189v); al-Sulh الصلح (189v-193r); al-Mudaraba المضاربة (193r-196r); al-Wadi'a الوديعة (196r-201r); al-Ariya العارية (201r-204r); al-Hiba الهبة (204r-207r); al-Ijara الإجارة (207r-218v); al-Makatib المكاتب (218v-221r); al-Wala' الولاء (221r-222v); al-Ikrah الإكراه (222v-227r); al-Hajr الحجر (227r-229v); al-Ma'dhun

The text is perhaps part of the preceding text as it, too, deals with those who enter a covenant with unbelievers and even fight together with them.

those who enter a covenant of protection with unbelievers. The title is mentioned neither in Brockelmann (GAL II 486; S II 738f.) nor in Still unknown is its relation to older corpora juris which, like those by Malik Ibn Anas مالك بن أنس (died 179/795; → GAS I 457ff.), his pupil al-Shaybani الشيباني (died 189/805; → GAS I 421ff.) and the moderate Shiite Abd al-Razzaq Ibn Hammam عبد الرزاق بن همام (died 211/827; → GAS I 99; cf. his Musannaf fi al-hadith مصنف في الحديث , I-XI, Beirut 1970-2), rely more on traditions than on individual judgement (ra'y رأي).

[2040] fols. 1v-115v: Muhammad Ibn al-Hasan Ibn Zayn al-Din al-

الثاني بن علي بن أحمد العاملي: Sharh al-Istibsar = Istiqsad al-i'tibar fi sharh
al-Istibsar شرح الاستبصار = استقصاد الاعتبار في شرح الاستبصار

The author died 1030/1621 in Mecca; his work is a commenting redaction of Abu Ja'far Muhammad Ibn al-Hasan Ibn Ali al-Tusi أبو جعفر محمد بن الحسن بن علي الطوسي شيخ الطائفة (died 458/1066 or later), Kitab al-Istibsar fima ukhtulifa fih min al-akhbar كتاب الاستبصار فيما اختلف فيه من الأخبار, an extract from al-Tusi's Kitab Tahdhib al-ahkam كتاب تهذيب الأحكام (a commentary on al-Mufid المفيد [died 413/1022], al-Muqni'a المقنعة; → GAS I 550), in which traditions concerning that which is allowed and forbidden is critically examined. On al-Tusi → GAL I 405 and S I 707; the commentary by Zayn al-Din al-Amili زين الدين العاملي is mentioned by al-Mirza Abd Allah Efendi al-Isbahani الميرزا عبد الله أفندي الإصبهاني (12th/18th century), Riyad al-ulama' wa-hiyad al-fudala' رياض العلماء وحياض الفضلاء, ed. Ahmad al-Husayni أحمد الحسيني V (Qom 1401/1980), p. 590, 3 as "Sharh al-Istibsar شرح الاستبصار". Abd Allah Efendi adds: "Thalath mujalladat fi al-tahara wa-al-salat الصلاة والطهارة في الطهارة والصلوة"; this information cannot be confirmed from al-Tusi's Kitab al-Istibsar (→ the enumeration of chapters in ms. Berlin 1272) and from our ms., which appears to be a part of a more extensive work and which contains chapters not belonging to tahara and salat .

Our ms. has the following sections:

al-bab 3: Fi al-muharramat في المحرمات (3v);

al-bab 4: Fi al-ila' في الإيلاء (8r);

al-bab 5: Fi al-li'an في اللعان (11r); Kitab al-Firaq كتاب الفراق (60r);

Kitab al-itq كتاب العتق (92v); Khatama خاتمة (103v); Wasiya وصية (103v) etc.

The text ends in the chapter on mukataba مكاتبة (113v ff.). Our ms. has no consistent division in sections and subsections; in addition, it is possible that the order of the text is disturbed in some cases. At least in one case (after fol. 3v) there exists a lacuna. In addition, it is evident from the above-mentioned sections that our ms. contains only the last third of the original and is incomplete at the end: cf. al-Tusi الطوسي , Kitab al-Istibsar كتاب الاستبصار , ms. Berlin 1272, fol. 291v (Kitab al-Talaq كتاب الطلاق) - 356v (Kitab al-Wasaya كتاب الوصايا). Our text is mentioned with the title Istiqsad al-i'tibar fi sharh al-Istibsar استقصاء الاعتبار في شرح الاستبصار in GAL S III 1286 (ad p. 450, no. 3a) and ascribed there to the author Abu Ja'far Muhammad Ibn Abi Mansur al-Hasan Ibn Zayn al-Din al-Amili al-Sha'mi أبو جعفر محمد بن أبي منصور الحسن بن زين الدين العاملي الشامي . Brockelmann (GAL) mentions one ms. In the margin of the ms. are many notes.

Beginning (after the Basmala):

وبه نستعين. الحمد لله الذي جعل الكائنات على وجوده أعدل شاهد وأفاض على عباده من النعم ما ... أما بعد
فيقول محمد بن الحسن بن زين الدين ... إني قد اعتمدت في شرح الاستبصار في تصحيح الأخبار ما عليه
الأكثر من الاكتفاء بتريكية الواحد غير أن في نظري القاصر نوع الكلام ...

On the author (died 911/1505) and this still unpublished commented Qasida قصيدة on marriage law → GAL II 153 no. 196 (sic) and S II 191 no. 195 (Brockelmann wrongly "185"). The text consists of 5 verses which are based on a long Qasida by Siraj al-Din al-Bulqini سراج الدين البلقيني (died 805/1403; GAL S II 110) and on which Suyuti has written a commentary.

Beginning:

[2041a] fols. 4v-216v: Radi al-Din Abu al-Qasim Ali Ibn Sa'd al-Din Abu Ibrahim Musa Ibn Ja'far Ibn Muhammad Ibn Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Ta'us al-Ta'usi (= Abd al-Mahmud) رضي الدين أبو القاسم علي بن سعد الدين أبو إبراهيم موسى بن جعفر بن محمد بن أحمد بن محمد بن طاؤوس الطائوسي (= عبد كتاب الطرائف ومذاهب اللطائف = كتاب الطرائف في معرفة ma'rifat madhhab al-tawa'if مذهب الطوائف.

The author (died 664/1266; → Kahhale VII 248) wrote his book as a Shiite critic of the peculiarities of Sunnites and their division into four schools (Malikiya, Hanafiya, Shafi'iyā and Hanbaliya). The author introduces himself in the text with the pseudonym Abd al-Mahmud Ibn Ma'ruf عبد المحمود بن معروف and as a member of the ahl al-dhimma أهل الذمة, i.e. as belonging to Jews and Christians living under Muslim rule; he did so because he wished to present his criticism of Sunnite Islam without any restrictions. Against Strothmann pp. 88-162 (on the Tara'if → p. 101) and Brockelmann (GAL S I 912), this book gives evidence of Ibn Ta'us' interest in theological questions; cf. for example part II (fol. 116v ff.) which starts with a critic of the deterministic position of Sunnites. The quotations by Ibn Ta'us attest to his extensive knowledge of Sunnite and even Mu'tazilite sources: e.g. on p.483, 19f. of the new edition (→ below) the author mentions "al-Nazzam النظام, Kitab al-Futya كتاب الفتيا" - apparently a reference to a quotation from al-Nazzam's juridical work Kitab al-Nakth كتاب النكث in al-Jahiz' الجاحظ Kitab al-Futya كتاب الفتيا ; the latter is quoted in Shi'ite literature; → J. van Ess, Das Kitab al-Nakth des Nazzam und seine Rezeption im Kitab al-Futya des Jahiz, Göttingen 1972 (= Abhandlungen der Akademie der Wissenschaften in Göttingen, Philol. -hist. Kl. 3.F., Nr. 79), p. 10 and Daiber, Der Islam 51, 1974, p. 155-160.

The book is available in two defective editions: Teheran 1302/1884-5 and Qom 1400/1980 and was translated several times into Persian. It deserves more attention as a document of the dialogue between Sunnites and Shiites. The book is not a systematic discussion and is not divided into sections and chapters. The book turns out to be a reflection of current discussions. - A comprehensive study on Ibn Ta'us does not yet exist. More aspects come to light in Zeina Matar, The Faraj al-ma'mun فرج المأمون of Ibn Tawus: a thirteenth century work on astrology and astrologers. Ph.D. thesis University of New York 1986, and in E. Kohlberg: Medieval Muslim Scholar at Work: Ibn Tawus and His Library. Leiden, New York, Köln 1992 (= Islamic Philosophy, Theology and Science XII); on the Kitab al-Tara'if s. ib. pp. 57-59.

[2042] fols. 1v-96v: Muhammad al-Bulghari محمد البلغاري : Khazinat al-ulama' wa-zinat al-fuqaha' خزينة العلماء وزينة الفقهاء .

The author (died 821/1418) is not mentioned in Brockelmann (GAL). Kahhale XI 316 has only a short article on him: "Muhammad Ibn Mahmud al-Bulghari al-Hanafi: fadilun; min atharihi: Khazinat al-ulama' wa-zinat al-fuqaha' محمد بن محمود البلغاري الحنفي : فاضل : من آثاره : خزينة العلماء وزينة الفقهاء". Kahhale does not mention any Ms.; his information is taken from Isma'il Pasha al-Baghdadi, Hadiyat al-arifin إسماعيل باشا (II 183). The source of this information cannot be identified and bio-bibliographical books do not contain an entry on Muhammad al-Bulghari. According to his nisba the author belongs to the Turkic people called "Bulghar بلغار " (between the Volga and the Kama) in Islamic literature; as I. Hrbek, art. Bulghar (in EI2 I, 1960, p.1307) informs us, "we do not possess any remnants of literary activity of the Bulgars" (with the exception of tomb-inscriptions from the 12th till the 14th centuries). If date and ascription of the text are correct, our Ms. appears to be a unique remnant of the oldest Islamic literature written by Bulgars.

In the introduction al-Bulghari declares that by request of some friends he has collected all traditions relating to the shari'a شريعة and tariqa طريقة as an "instruction" (tabsira تبصرة) for those who desire it and as a note (tadhkira تذكرة) for those who have questions (fol. 2v10) and as a "shelter for the preachers" (junna lil-wa'izin جنة للواعظين).

The work has the following chapters, called "sessions" (majlis مجلس):

1) Fi bayan fadl al-tasmiya ma ja'a fihi min al-akhbar wa-al-riwayat wa-al-ayat wa-al-hikayat في بيان فضل التسمية ما جاء فيه من الأخبار والروايات والآيات والحكايات (fol. 2v-10r).

2) Fi bayan fadl al-wudu' wa-al-tahara في بيان فضل الوضوء والطهارة (10r-20v).

3) Fi bayan mawaqit al-salat wa-kayfiyatihā wa-afdaliha mimma ja'a fihi min al-akhbar wa-al-ayat wa-al-riwayat wa-al-hikayat في بيان مواقيت الصلاة وكيفيةها وأفضلها مما جاء فيه من الأخبار والآيات والروايات والحكايات (20v-23v).

4) Fi bayan fadl al-adhan wa-al-iqama في بيان فضل الأذان والإقامة (23v-27r).

5) Fi bayan fadl al-i'dad al-salat wa-al-kashf an mabda'ihā في بيان فضل الإعداد للصلاة والكشف عن مبدئها (27r-32v).

7 < sic >) Fi bayan ta'zim al-salat wa-al-khushu' fiha في بيان تعظيم الصلاة والخشوع فيها (32v-38v).

8) Fi bayan fadl al-dhikr al-thana' ba'd al-iftitah في بيان فضل الذكر الثناء بعد الافتتاح (38v-41v).

9) Fi bayan al-isti'dha ba'da al-thana' wa-khtilaf al-ulama' fihi في بيان الاستعاذة بعد الثناء واختلاف العلماء فيه (41v-53v).

10) Fi bayan fadl qira'at surat al-ikhlas في بيان فضل قراءة سورة الإخلاص (53v-

57v).

11) Fi bayan fadl al-ruku' wa-al-sujud في بيان فضل الركوع والسجود (57v-60v).

12) Fi al-qu'ud fi akhir al-salat في القعود في آخر الصلاة (60v-67v).

13) Fi bayan fadl al-salawat ala al-nabi (s'm) fi akhir al-salat في بيان فضل الصلوات على النبي (صعم) في آخر الصلاة (67v-74v).

14) Fi bayan fadl al-salawat ala al-nabi alayhi al-salam في بيان فضل الصلوات على النبي عليه السلام (74v-77r).

15) Fi bayan fadl al-khuru'j min al-salat في بيان فضل الخروج من الصلاة (77r-81v).

16) Fi bayan fadl al-jama'a في بيان فضل الجماعة (81v-86v).

18) Fi bayan fadl salat al-jum'a wa-fada'il yawmiha في بيان فضل صلاة الجمعة وفضائل يومها (86v-100v; lacuna after 96v).

The text ends abruptly on fol. 96v. It is not clear how much is missing from the work.

The author included many anecdotes (hikayat حكايات) as illustration of religious duties, mainly of prayers, and gives details on religious practice.

The author seldom mentions his sources. A first study of the text gives the impression that he has a preference for anecdotes and popular stories. In a similar way 163 years after our author Sharaf al-Din Husam al-Din al-Bulghari شرف الدين هسام الدين البلغاري compiled in his Risala-i Tawarikh-i Bulghariya (in Tatar language) fabulous stories on the propagation of Islam and the lives of saints (→ Hrbek, art. Bulghar in EI2 I 1307b).

Ms. 32.

40 folios; 16×22,7 cm; 19 lines; clearly written naskhi, written by two different hands; fols. 1-13 sometimes tend to riq'a and in part are written in violet ink. Single words are written in red ink or

Imadi al-Hanafi al-Dimashqi عبد الرحمن بن محمد بن محمد العمادي الحنفي الدمشقي
هدية على مذهب الإمام الجليل Hadiya ala madhhab al-Imam al-jalil Abi Hanifa أبي حنيفة.

The Ms. has the title (fol. 1r): Hadiyat Ibn al-Imad li-ibad<at> alubbad هدية ابن العماد لعباد (عبادة) الصلاة; cf. mss. nos. 31 and 38 and the description of Ms. no. 30. On fol. 40r follows a short note on "what must be done during the prayer" according to the doctrine of Abu Hanifa.

Ms. 33.

29 folios; 13×18,9 cm; 10 lines; vocalized naskhi; fols. 7-14 are written by a different hand. Single words are written in red ink. The text is collated. Cloth binding (one cover damaged) with red leather spine. Notes, in part in Persian, in the margin of fol. 28v, with the year 1246/1830. Copied 3 Dhu al-Qa'da 1230/7 October 1815.

الصحيفة السجادية الكاملة or al-Sahifa al-sajjadiya.

The titleless text is a fragment of a collection of prayers which are ascribed to Zayn al-Abidin (died between 92/710 and 99/717), a grandson of Ali Ibn Abi Talib and which were commented very often (→ GAS I 526-7). Our fragment is based on a redaction which e.g. can be found in the Berlin mss. 3769 and 3770; on further mss. and two rare editions in Delhi and Lucknow → GAS I 526. An English translation with annotations can be found in W. C. Chittick, The Psalms of Islam. As-Sahifat al-kamilat as-sajjadiyya: Imam Zayn al-'Abidin 'Ali Ibn al-Husayn. With a foreword by S. H. M. Jafri. London 1988. The prayers were written down by Muhammad Ibn al-Hasan Ibn Ahmad Ibn Ali Ibn Muhammad Ibn Umar Ibn Yahya al-Alawi al-Husayni محمد بن الحسن بن أحمد بن علي بن محمد بن عمر بن يحيى العلوي الحسيني in the midst of the 6th/12th century. As in the Berlin mss. (→ below) he informs us in a long riwaya رواية about previous transmitters and their dates. On fols. 8v-10v he gives (as Ms. Berlin 3769, fols. 10v-13r) an enumeration of all prayers according to the riwaya of al-Mutahhari المطهري the first prayer begins on fol. 10v; most of the following prayers (= Ms. Berlin 3769, fols. 19v-224r) are missing, however: apparently there is a very long lacuna after fol. 13v; fol. 14 seems to contain the end of the du'a' fi tadhallul li-llah دعاء في تذلل لله (Ms. Berlin 3769, fol. 224r) and on fol. 14v our Ms. continues with the last prayer, the du'a' fi istikshaf al-humum دعاء في استكشاف الهموم (= Ms. Berlin 3769, fol. 225v). The end (fol. 16r) is identical with Ms. Berlin 3769, fol. 228v. In the Berlin Ms. (fols. 228v-230v) as in our Ms. (fols. 16r-221), some more prayers by Zayn al-Abidin follow, with the chapter-heading: mimma ulhiqa bi-ba'd nusakh al-Sahifa wa-kana min tasbihihi a'ni Zayn al-Abidin (Ms. wrong al-Ayidin) alayhi al-salam مما ألحق ببعض نسخ الصحيفة وكان من تسبيحه أعني زين العابدين عليه السلام.

[2056] On fols. 22r, ult.-28v follow prayers for every day of the week. They are not in Ms. Berlin 3769, but can be found at the end of two Berlin mss. with the number 3770. In his description Ahlwardt mentions an edition published 1248/1832 in Calcutta.

Ms. 34.

58 folios; 11×15,5 cm; 11 lines, Turkish naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Fol. 1v has a primitively drawn vignette. In part brownish and water-stained paper. Leather cover, partly damaged. According to the colophon on fol. 58v copied Sha'ban 1208/March 1794.

[2057] 1v-58v: Abu al-Layth al-Samarqandi أبو الليث السمرقندي al-Muqaddima fi al-salat المقدمة في الصلاة , with anonymous commentary.

On text and author (died 373/983 or later) → GAS I 448. A critical edition of this text on the preconditions of prayer is being prepared by Muhammad Haron, University of the Western Cape/South Africa. The Ms. starts with the text of the Muqaddima which already contains some alterations and additions; the anonymous commentary begins on fol. 5v,6:

قوله بأن الصلوة يعني الصلوة في اللغة عبارة عن الدعاء وفي الشريعة عبارة عن اسم الأفعال التي سميت شروطا وركنا ، قوله فريضة هي المفروضة ، ..

The commentary is similar but not completely identical with that in Ms. Berlin 3510 and seems to have used it. As Ms. Berlin is copied approximately 1000/1591 our author apparently wrote after that date.

End:

والعاشر : ترك الإيمان كافر وتارك العمل لا كافر والحادي عشر : الأنبياء عليهم السلام في الإيمان لا في العمل متفقون ، والثاني عشر سواء بين المسلمين والمسلمات في اللفظ كما قالوا أجمعين لا إله إلا الله محمد الرسول (!) الله بشهادة وأما في العمل لا (!) يتبعون (..).

Ms. 35.

128 folios; 14×21,5 cm; vocalized Turkish naskhi, two different hands. Single words and sentences are written in red ink. The text is within a red frame. The paper is stained with water. Red leather binding with flap (loose), each with centre-medallion filled with flowers; the covers have a double-lined frame. The inside of both covers is pasted with marbled paper. Hand of the 13th/beginning 19th century.

[2058] fols. 1v-109r: Abu al-Layth al-Samarqandi أبو الليث السمرقندي : المقدمة في الصلاة , the Muqaddima fi al-salat , with commentary by Abd Allah Ibn Muhammad al-Marzifuni عبد الله بن محمد المرزيفونى .

On the Muqaddima → preceding Ms. - The commentator cannot be identified; according to the colophon he wrote his commentary in Istanbul (108v8); this must be added to those mentioned in GAS I 448f. The text begins with the Muqaddima, with some additions which are not specified as such. The commentary starts on fols. 6v2 in the same manner as the preceding Ms.; it is not identical with it, however, the end being totally different:

فلا تغفلوا من القرآن وسائر العلم لأنه قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : من علم القرآن وغيره في حال الصغر فضل في حال الكبر ، صدق رسول الله وصدق حبيب الله. تمت هذه الكتاب (!) بعون الله الملك الوهاب

The relation between this commentary and that of the preceding Ms. is not yet clear and needs further investigation. It seems that al-Marzifuni is later and may have used the commentary preserved in Ms. 34, which is slightly older.

[2059] fols. 110v-121v: Anonymous: Shurut al-salat شروط الصلاة

The text is identical with Ms. 37, fols. 67v-76v; → the description below.

[2060] fols. 122r-125r: A prayer, followed by a commentary in Turkish, called Sharh du'a' Qush شرح دعاء قوش. On fol. 125r follows a fragment of another prayer and on fols. 126r and 128v some scribe's notes, in part in Turkish (128v).

Ms. 36.

35 folios; 12,4×25,5 cm; 29 lines; Turkish naskhi; text written within a red frame; single words are overlined in red. Smooth paper, slightly spotted or water-stained (text on fol. 2v damaged). Copied 5 Shawwal 1100/23 July 1689 in Istanbul by Abd al-Salam al-Arzakiyani.

[2061] fols. 2v-34v: Lutf Allah al-Nasafi al-Kaydani لطف الله النسفي الكيداني
: Matalib al-musalli = Muqaddimat al-salat مطالب المصلي = مقدمة الصلاة with commentary (sharh شرح) by Muhammad al-Quhistani al-Samadani Shams al-Din . محمد القوهستاني الصمداني شمس الدين .

On the author (lived ca. 750/1349) and his treatise on the preconditions of prayer, commentated by Muhammad al-Quhistani in 947/1540 → GAL II 198 no. 1d and S II 269 no. 1d (mentions a rare edition printed 1302/1884-5 in Tashkent, together with a Persian translation and an edition and Persian translation of the commentary, published 1315/1897-8 in Lahore). There are a few notes in the margin. The commentator is not mentioned; however, compare Ms. Berlin 3525.

Ms. 37.

79 folios; 14×20 cm; ±15 lines; Turkish naskhi. Single words are written or overlined in red. The text on fols. 1-34 is written within a red frame. The binding is damaged; the front cover is lost. fol. 79v and the inside of the back cover contain a list of names and birthdays of the owner's family. The oldest date given there is 1216/1801-2 and the youngest is 1240/1824-5. Copied 1116/1694-5 (fol. 67r) and 1128/1715 (fol. 19v).

[2062] fols.1r-18r: al-Birkawi البركوي (al-Birgiliالبركلي) : Mu'addil al-salat معدل الصلاة .

On the author (died 981/1573) and his treatise on the necessity of prayer and the disadvantages of its omission → GAL II 441 no. 9 and S II 655 no.9. The beginning of the Ms. is defective; compared with Ms. Berlin 3529 our text does not have the introduction (muqaddima مقدمة: Berlin, fols. 19-25) and starts in the midst of the matlab fi adilla min al-kitab wa-al-sunna مطلب في أدلة من الكتاب وا

(Ms. Berlin, fols. 25r-29r); the Tanbih fi afat al-tark تنبيه في آفات الترك (Berlin, 29r-34v) is in our Ms. on fols. 4v-9r; the khatama ختامة follows on fols. 9r-18r (= Ms. Berlin, 29r-40v). - A second Ms. is text no. [2377].

[2063] On fols. 18v-19v follows a supplement on ruku' ركوع during prayer according to Koran and tradition.

Beginning:

خرَجَ أبو داود والنسائي عن أنس رضي الله عنه يقول : ما صليت وراء أحد بعد رسول الله ...

End:

ويقرأ في الحصر إلى آخره. تمت الكتاب بعون الله الملك الوهاب.

[2064] fols. 20v-32r: Abu al-Fath Ahmad Ibn Sa'id أبو الفتح أحمد بن سعيد (Ms. Berlin 2065: Abu al-Fath Muzaffar Ibn Ahmad Ibn Mas'ud al-Hanafi (أبو الفتح مظفر بن أحمد بن مسعود الحنفي): Aqidat bayan al-iman wa-al-shari'a عقيدة بيان الإيمان والشريعة .

Our Ms. has no title; the author is mentioned in GAL S II 994 no. 51 among those who cannot be identified. Our text, of which a second copy is Ms. Berlin 2065 (copied 1093/1682), sets out to prove that belief and law consist of 20 aspects, of which five are related to the heart (qalb قلب), five to the tongue (lisan لسان), five to the extremities of the body (jawarih جوارح and five to other limbs (kharij al-jawarih خارج الجوارح). The text gives definitions of central terms like iman إيمان, islam إسلام, ihsan إحسان, tawhid توحيد, shari'a شريعة, din دين, ijma' إجماع etc. The author follows the Hanafite doctrine.

[2065] fols. 32v-34v: Anonymous: Arba'un aqa'id أربعون عقائد

The text, a theological summary on the attributes of God, has no introduction and begins:

... وبعد فهذه أربعون عقائد. فصل منها عشرة واجبات وهي أن تعتقد أن الله تعالى واحد في أزلية غير منقسم

في ذاته

End:

إنك رءوف رحيم وصلى الله على سيدنا محمد وآله وصحبه وسلم تسليما كثيرا >إلى يوم الدين والقرار.

[2066] fols. 35r-39v are blank; on fol. 40r is a short poem in Turkish.

[2068] fols. 52v: Du'a ahdname دعا عهدنامه .

A short prayer in Arabic, as can be found written on shrouds (kafan كفن).

[2069] fols. 53r-58v: Anonymous: Kitab Tajwid (on Koran recitation), in fully vocalized Turkish.

The orthography of the text hints at a pronunciation of the Turkish as is usual in eastern Anatolia and among Kurdish tribes (information by B. M. Kellner, Free University of Berlin).

[2070] fol. 59r: Fragment of a treatise on Tajwid تجويد, in Turkish.

[2071] On fol. 59v follows a Turkish excerpt on Luqman لقمان the wise and on fols. 60r follows an Arabic excerpt on the belief in God.

[2072] fols. 60v-67r: Lutf Allah al-Nasafi al-Kaydani لطف الله النسفي
مطالب المصلي Matalib al-musalli الكيداني

On the author (lived ca. 750/1349) and on this treatise about prayer → GAL II 198 no. 1 and S II 269 no.1. Our Ms. has the title Kitab Fiqh Kaydani كتاب فقه الكيداني; however, compare Ms. Berlin 3524. In the margin are some notes. The text is collated.

[2073] fols. 67v-76v: Anonymous: Kitab Shurut al-salat كتاب شروط الصلاة.

Another copy is Ms. Berlin 3540. The text is different from those ascribed to al-Akhdari الأخضري (GAL S II 706 no.3), Abu Abd Allah Abd al-Rahman Ibn Sa'id أبو عبد الله عبد الرحمن بن سعيد (GAL S II 959 no.6), Asim Ibn Abi Hazim عاصم بن أبي حازم (S II 960 no.20) and Kamal Pasha كمال باشا (GAL II 451 no. 55). The text is collated. A few notes are in the margin or between the lines. fols. 76v-78r contain an appendix with short prayers, fols. 78r-79 some notes and excerpts in Turkish.

Ms. 38.

40 folios; 15×20 cm; 20 lines; naskhi; single words are written in red ink. Smooth paper, slightly spotted. Original leather covers with centre-ornament and frame; their inside is pasted with marbled paper. The flap is missing and the spine is damaged. Owner's stamp on fols. 1r (illegible). Copied 14 Sha'ban 1057/14 September 1647 (fols. 38v), apparently by Manjaq Pasha, student of Abd al-Rahman al-Imadi (→ below).

[2074] fols. 1v-38v: Abd al-Rahman Ibn Muhammad Ibn Muhammad al-Imadi : Hadiyat Ibn al-Imad عبد الرحمن بن محمد بن محمد العمادي li-ibadat al-ubbad هدية ابن العماد لعبادة العباد .

On the author (died 1051/1641) and further mss. of this unpublished text on the preconditions of prayer description of Ms. no. 30.

In the margin are some notes taken from Nihayat al-murad نهاية المراد ; al-Bazzaziya = al-Fatawa al-Bazzaziya (البيزازية = الفتاوى البيزازية → GAL II 225); Kanz al-daqa'iq كنز الدقائق = perhaps Kanz al-daqa'iq fi al-furu' (GAL S II 265) أبو البركات النسفي by Abu al-Barakat al-Nasafi كنز الدقائق في الفروع (GAL S II 630) الأختري Akhtari (by Sharh al-Masabih شرح المصابيح → GAL S II 315; or by Abd al-Izz al-Din Ibn Malak عز الدين بن ملك → GAL S II 932) عبد الرحمن الأذري Rahman al-Adhra'i.

[2075] fols. 38v-39r: Manjaq Pasha Ibn Muhammad Ibn Manjaq Ibn Abi Bakr al-Yusfi منجق باشا بن محمد بن منجق بن أبي بكر اليوسفي Qasida قصيدة in praise of the Emir of Damascus called al-Amir Ibn al-Amir Ibn al-Akarim wa-al-Amajid الأمير بن الأمير بن الأكارم والأمجد .

Manjaq Pasha (1005-1080/1596-1669) is a well-known poet. He wrote poems in praise of the Sultan (Sultaniyat سلطانيات) and of other notables in his time (→ GAL II 277 and S II 386; Kahhale XIII 8). The poems were collected by Fadl Allah Muhibbi فضل الله المحبي (died 1082/1671), the father of Muhammad al-Muhibbi محمد المحبي who in his Khulasa خلاصة IV pp.409-423 included an article on Manjaq Pasha ("al-Amir Manjaq الأمير منجق"). According to Zirikli (IIX 224 no.2) the edition of his poems (Damascus 1300/1301) differs from the mss. It is not clear whether the Qasida in our Ms. is included in this edition. Our Ms. was written during the lifetime of Manjaq Pasha and with great probability by himself, as can be seen from the proem of the Qasida (→ below).

The preceding text by Abd al-Rahman al-Imadi عبد الرحمن العمادي (fols.

1v-38v) is written by the same hand. As Muhibbi in his above-mentioned Khulasa (IV 410,11) informs us that Manjaq Pasha was a student of Abd al-Rahman al-Imadi, we can conclude that Manjaq Pasha may have copied Abd al-Rahman al-Imadi's Hadiya هدية directly from his teacher's exemplar and added the Qasida.

On the author (died 676/1278) of this collection of 40 traditions and his own commentary → GAL I 396 no. IX, 1 and S I 683 no. IX, 1. The text and the commentary by Nawawi is edited with French translation by Louis Pouzet, Une herméneutique de la tradition islamique (Beyrouth 1982); → description of Ms. no.10. As a comparison with the edition of Pouzet shows, the text of our Ms. is slightly shortened and ends with the sixth tradition and its commentary (ed. Pouzet p.26).

[2080] fols. 140v: Abu Damirda' أبو دمرداء: Du'a' دعاء.

The author of this short prayer cannot be identified.

Ms. 40.

65 folios; 12×19 cm; ± 13 lines; vocalized naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. The text is within a red frame. Yellowish, spotted paper, in part repaired. Original leather binding, covers and flap with golden centre-medallion. Copied 1142/1729-30.

[2081] fols. 1v-62r: Ali Ibn Sultan Muhammad al-Qari' al-Herewi
الحزب الأعظم والورد الأفخم : علي بن سلطان محمد القارئ الهروي

On the author (died 1014/1605) and his collection of prayers → GAL II 396 no. 51 and S II 540f. no. 51. The text was printed in the 19th century seven times, in two cases with Hindustani translation (Delhi 1310/1892-3) and Turkish paraphrase (Istanbul 1278/1861-2).

[2082] fols. 62v-65v: Some short personal prayers (دعاء 'du'a').

Ms. 41.

40 folios; 16,5×24 cm; 24-25 lines; regular nasta'liq. Single words and sentences are written in red ink. Smooth, yellowish paper. Original marbled pasteboard binding with red leather spine. Copied by Umar Fadil Efendi Jamal al-Din, also called Jamal al-Din Umar Fadil al-Ardrumi, teacher in the madrasa al-sultaniya (fol. 40r), during 1276/1859-1860 (fol. 39r) and 1277/1860-61.

[2083] fols. 1v-39r: Mustafa Ibn Kamal al-Din Ibn Ali al-Bakri al-Siddiqi المطلب التام السوي على حزب الإمام النووي : مصطفى بن كمال الدين بن علي البكري الصديقي
ala Hizb al-Imam al-Nawawi

On al-Bakri al-Siddiq (died 1162/1749) → GAL II 349 and S II 477. He wrote his commentary on al-Nawawi (died 676/1278), al-Hizb (a prayer; in our Ms. written in red ink and also separately on fols. 39v-40r), at the request of his friend Hasan حسن . In the introduction al-Bakri gives a survey of al-Nawawi's life and works; then he informs the reader of the effects of prayers and gives a list of those authorities on whom his text is based. On al-Nawawi's Hizb (printed) and on the unpublished commentary by al-Bakri al-Siddiqi → GAL I 397 no. XXII and S I 685 no. XXII. According to the colophon the commentary was written in 1140/1727. The commented text, al-Nawawi's Hizb, is separately copied, also on the following two pages:

[2084] fols. 39v-40r: al-Nawawi حزب :النووي Hizb.

The text is also included in the commentary by al-Bakri al-Siddiqi البكري الصديقي (→ preceding text).

Ms. 42.

47 folios; 16,2×22,3 cm; 17 lines; carefully written naskhi. Smooth paper. Cloth covers with flap and red leather spine. Copied by Muhammad Hasan Ibn al-Shaykh Ahmad, the son of al-Alim al-Allama (= Muhammad Najib al-Qala'i) on 14 Sha'ban 1290/22 September 1873 and collated with the original by another scholar on 13 Dhu al-Qa'da 1290/2 January 1874.

[2085] fols. 1v-46v: Muhammad Najib al-Qala'i محمد نجيب القلعي : Fath al-ilah bi-tahqiq sujud al-salat فتح الإله بتحقيق سجود الصلاة.

Author and text on prostration during the prayer are mentioned neither in Brockelmann (GAL) nor in Kahhale or in Bursali. The author is perhaps identical with the father of Muhammad Rashid Ibn Najib al-Qala'i محمد رشيد بن نجيب القلعي, who in approximately 1215/1800 copied Ms. Berlin 4451, a copy of Quduri's القدوري Mukhtasar fi furu' al-Hanafiya مختصر في فروع الحنفية. According to the colophon of our Ms., the copyist (Muhammad Hasan) is a descendant of Muhammad Najib al-Qala'i; he is the son of Ali, a son of Ahmad, who is said to be the son of Muhammad Najib al-Qala'i. In view of these observations the author may have written in the second half of the 12th/18th century.

Beginning (after the Basmala):

الحمد لله المحمود بجميل الصفات وجليل المحامد الحميد المجيد الذي شهدت سائر الكائنات أنه الربّ الواحد ...
أما بعد فيقول الفقير ... محمد نجيب : هذه نبذة لطيفة وزبدة بعيدة ..

End:

Ethics

Ms. 43.

168 folios; 16,7×26 cm; 21 lines; carefully written naskhi, in part vocalized. Single words and sentences are written in red ink. The Arabic text is interspersed with Syriac (Serto), which in part is written in red ink. The text is within a red frame. Yellowish paper; the edges, especially at the top, are damaged. The centre-ornament on both covers is damaged and scarcely visible. Reader's remark on fols. 1 mentions Aleppo, apparently the place of origin of this Ms. Copied during 1591 by Ubayd Allah Gregorius "on behalf of the bishop (mutran) of Karkar", apparently in the year of translation (→ below).

[2086] fols. 2v-166v: Barhebraeus (= Gregorius Abu al-Faraj Ibn al-Ibri (غريغوريوس أبو الفرج ابن العبري): Kitab al-Ithiqun كتاب الإيثيقون = Ethikon.

Barhebraeus (died A.D. 1286), Ethikon was originally written in Syriac. This Syriac version was first edited in 1898 by P. Bedjan: Ethicon, seu Moralia Gregorii Barhebraei (Paris and Leipzig). A new edition of Memra I with English translation by G.B. Teule appeared in 1993 in the Series Corpus scriptorum christianorum orientalium [Lovanii] no. 534.535 (= Scriptorum syri 218.219). - The book is a work on ethics which is heavily based on Ghazzali's الغزالي Ihya' ulum al-din إحياء علوم الدين; → Baumstark 315f. and Teule (Corpus no. 535) pp. 112ff.

According to the colophon of our Ms. (fol. 166v), it was translated into Arabic on behalf (bi-rasm برسم) of the deacon (shammas شماس) Safar Ibn Maqdisi Mansur سفر بن مقدسي منصور (on him → CGAL IV 15) at the beginning of Adhar 1909 (Seleucid era) /1591. Therefore, the attribution of the translation to Yuhanna Ibn al-Jarir al-Shami يوحنا بن الجريير الشامي (end of the 17th century; → CGAL II 275; 278; 281; 283) must be wrong. The available sources mention as translator of Barhebraeus' Ethikon also Daniel Ibn al-Khattab دانيال بن الخطاب (born A.D. 1327); s. CGAL II 281f. and 283f. According to Jean-Maurice Fiey (Bibliographie de Bar Hebraeus, in: Parole de l'Orient 13, Kaslik/Liban 1986, pp. 279-312) p. 292, however, the translation attributed to Daniel Ibn al-Khattab is in fact by Da'ud al-Himsi داوود الحمصي (died 1500?). Teule (Corpus no. 535, p. XIVf.) attributes this translation to Daniel of Mardin from the 14th century and assumes at least three different Arabic translations. A comparison shows the identity of our version with that of two mss. in Oxford which is anonymous and classified by Teule as "translation B".

Our Ms. was translated in 1591 on behalf of Safar Ibn Maqdisi Mansur; as the colophon mentions this year as date of the copy and as copyist Ubayd Allah Gregorius, who copied the text "on behalf of the bishop of Karkar كركر", - we can conclude that the copyist is also the translator and that the Ms. is an autograph. Confirmation of this may be the fact that the version contains single sentences in Syriac which are not translated. The bishop of Karkar (perhaps a district of Baghdad; → Yaqut, Mu'jam al-buldan, ed. F. Wüstenfeld IV, Leipzig 1869, p. 262, 7) may have ordered the translation and the deacon of Aleppo, Safar Ibn Maqdisi Mansur, may have delegated it to Ubayd Allah Gregorius.

Ms. 44.

9 folios; 12,9×17 cm; 19 lines; clearly written naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Thick, brownish paper. Copied 10 Rabi' II 912/30 August 1505 by Muhammad Ibn Ahmad Ibn Ibrahim Ibn Abd al-Rahman Ibn Abd al-Aziz al-Iwardi al-Maliki.

[2087] fols. 1v-9r: Ibn al-Jawzi ابن الجوزي: Kitab Hifz al-umr كتاب حفظ العمر .

On the author (died 591/1200) → GAL II I 501ff.; S I 914ff. The title of these considerations on life and its dignity is mentioned neither in GAL nor in Abd al-Hamid al-Alushi عبد الحميد العلوشي , Mu'allafat Ibn al-Jawzi مؤلفات ابن الجوزي (Baghdad 1965). The text is different from Ibn al-Jawzi, Tanbih al-na'im al-ghumr ala mawasim al-umr تنبيه النائم الغمر على مواسم العمر (GAL I 505 no. 55; S I 919 no.55); →

Sheshen, Nawadir I 58.

The text consists of three chapters:

- 1) Fi bayan sharaf al-umr wa-al-hathth ala ightina'ihfi fi al-khayr في بيان شرف العمر والحث على اغتنائه في الخير (fols.2r-3r);
- 2) Fi dhikr man kana yubadiru al-umr wa-yubalighu fi hifz lahazatihi في ذكر من كان يبادر العمر ويبلغ في حفظ لحظاته (3r-6r);
- 3) Fi dhikr sabab tadyi' al-umr في ذكر سبب تضييع العمر (6r-9r).

Beginning (after the Basmala):

الحمد لله الذي جعل عمر الأدمي سفرا إلى الأخرى طويلا وقصيرا. فسار الناس ببضائع الأعمال فربح
الميقظون ربحا كثيرا... أما بعد : فإني رأيت العمر بضاعة للأدمي فعجبت من تفریط الناس فيه وكأنهم ما
علموا أن الدنيا ميادين سباق على مقدار الهمم وتفاوت الهمم على قدر الإيمان باللغو ...

End:

ونسأل الله سبحانه وتعالى توفيقا يحرسنا به من الزلل ويحثنا على الجدّ والإخلاص في العمل بمنه وكرمه
وصلّى الله على سيدنا محمد وآله وصحبه وسلم. آخر كتاب حفظ العمر. تأليف الشيخ الإمام جمال الدين أبي
الفرج عبد الرحمن بن الجوزي الحنبلي،

In the colophon the copyist informs us that he omitted the chain of transmitters (isnad إسناده) of reported traditions.

On fol. 9v follows a short poem ascribed to Abu Yusuf أبو يوسف (died 182/798; → GAS I 419), a pupil of Abu Hanifa أبو حنيفة .

Ethics: tobacco

Ms. 45.

2 folios; 14×20 cm; 20 lines; naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Brownish paper, slightly spotted. Hand of the 11th/17th century.

[2088] fols. 1v-2v: Molla Husayn Ibn Iskandar ملا حسين بن إسكندر :
Risalat al-Fawa'id al-fakhira fi umur al-akhira رسالة الفوائد الفاخرة في أمور (رسالة مختصرة a summary (risala mukhtasara), الآخرة).

The author of this treatise against smoking tobacco died around 1084/1673. The title is mentioned neither in Brockelmann (GAL II 435; S II 646) nor in Kahhale (III 314). As paper and ink suggest the 11th/17th century, the Ms. may be an autograph.

Beginning (after the Basmala):

وبه ثقتي، الحمد لله ربّ العالمين والصلاة والسلام على سيدنا محمد وعلى آله وصحبه أجمعين، يقول العبد
الفقير إلى مولاه الغني منلا حسين بن إسكندر الحنفي، أما بعد : فهذه رسالة مختصرة من رسالتي المسماة
بالفوائد الفاخرة في أمور الآخرة وفيها ذكر الدخان وهل هو من المباح أو من الحرام،

End:

وتمام ما ذكر في هذه الرسالة مبسوط في رسالتي المسماة بالفوائد الفاخرة في أمور الآخرة التي اختصرت هذه
منها، وبالله التوفيق، تمت رسالة المنلا حسين المختصرة بحمد الله وعونه،

In the margin of the colophon is added (apparently by the same hand):

ويجب على كل مؤمن أن يدعو الله تعالى أن ينصر السلطان وعساكر المسلمين بحرمة سيد المرسلين أمين،

The text consists of four chapters (فصل) and has a lacuna between fols. 1 and 2 (apparently two folios are missing).

It is unclear whether our text is a part of Husayn Ibn Iskandar, Muqaddima fi al-aqa'id wa-al-fiqh ala madhhab al-Imam Abi Hanifa , مقدمة في العقائد والفقہ على مذهب الإمام أبي حنيفة with commentary by the author himself (written 1069/1658-9), called Miftah al-falah wa-kimiya' al-sa'ada wa-al-salah al-muta'alliq bi-al-dukhan مفتاح الفلاح وكمياء السعادة والصلاح المتعلق بالدخان , Ms. Damascus, Zahiriya no. 1345 (→ Fähras Maktabat Dar al-kutub al-Zahiriya : فهرس مكتبة دار الكتب الظاهرية hanafi محمد مطيع الحافظ II by Muhammad Muti' al-Hafiz الفقه الحنفي

Damascus 1401/1981, p.195f.; this Ms. is already mentioned in GAL
S II 646 no.2).

Ms. 46.

9 folios; 12×18,5 cm; 19 lines; irregular naskhi. Single words are written in red ink or overlined in red. Thin, brownish and slightly water-stained paper. Hand of the late 12th/18th century.

[2089] fols. 1r: Ibn al-Buldaji ابن البلدجي : al-Ikhtiyar sharh al-mukhtar lil-fatwa الاختيار شرح المختار للفتوى .

A fragment (only the end) of al-Buldaji (died 683/1284), al-mukhtar lil-fatwa, a compendium of Abu Hanifa's أبو حنيفة legal doctrines, including differing opinions of other scholars and the commentary (sharh) by al-Buldaji himself; → GAL I 382 no.1 and S I 657 no.1.

[2090] fols. 1v-9v: An anonymous treatise on smoking tobacco.

A later hand at the top of fol. 1v ascribed the text to Abd al-Ghani al-Nabulusi عبد الغني النابلسي. This cannot be correct, however: Abd al-Ghani al-Nabulusi's treatise on the allowance of smoking tobacco, his al-Sulh bayna al-ikhwan fi hukm ibahat al-dukhan الصلح بين الإخوان في حكم إباحة الدخان (GAL II 346 no.32 and S II 474 no.32) is different from our Ms.; moreover, Abd al-Ghani al-Nabulusi's work is much longer (cf. Ms. Berlin 5494).

Our text is identical with the anonymous Risala fi al-dukhan رسالة في الدخان which is preserved in two mss. of the 12th/18th and 13th/19th century in the University Library of Princeton (Mach no. 2092).

Other mss. related to ethics : → text nos. [2384], [2385], [2398], [2399], [2409], [2414], [2421] and [2465].

Paraenetic works

Ms. 47.

179 folios; 15,5×12 cm; 16 lines; naskhi. The chapter-headings are written in red ink or in large letters. The paper is heavily damaged (in part repaired) and water-stained; some loss of text on every page. Hand of the 11th/17th century (?).

[2091] fols. 1r-179v: Abu al-Layth al-Samarqandi أبو الليث السمرقندي: Tanbih al-ghafilin تنبيه الغافلين.

Considerations on morals and piety. On the author (died 373/983 or later) and this text → GAS I 449f. The beginning (the first two chapters) is missing; the text ends in the chapter on rifq رفق = ed. Cairo, repr. Beirut 1979, p. 205ff.). The sequence of some chapters differs from the edition and the mss.

Ms. 48.

322 folios; 13,8×20,4 cm; 21 lines; small naskhi. Chapter-headings are written in red ink and single sentences are overlined in red. The paper is in part spotted and the first folio is damaged. Original leathercovers with centre-ornament; the binding is repaired. Copied Rajab 1073/February 1663 by Ibrahim Ibn Uthman.

[2092] fols. 1v-320v: (Ps.) al-Ghazzali الغزالي: Mishkat al-anwar al-kabir = Mishkat al-anwar fi lata'if al-akhbar lil-tahdid ila sunan al-sayyid al-mukhtar مشكاة الأنوار الكبير = مشكاة الأنوار في لطائف الأخبار للتحديد إلى سنن السيد المختار.

A still unedited paraenetic book based on Koran and tradition. In Hajji Khalifa (II col. 1693) it is ascribed to Ghazzali. As a comparison shows, it is different from Ghazzali, Mishkat al-anwar wa-misfat al-anwar مشكاة الأنوار ومصفاة الأنوار, a mystical work (= GAL S I 751 no.34a); it is mentioned (with additional mss.) in GAL S I 751 no.34c and is identical with Ms. Berlin 8745: → the description and the survey of all 47 chapters in the catalogue by Ahlwardt. Like the Berlin Ms. our text does not mention any author. It cannot have been written by Ghazzali and may have been composed by Ala' al-Din Ali Ibn Muhammad al-Misri علاء الدين علي بن محمد المصري who died in 877/1472; → Bouyges, Essai, p. 249 no. 257 and 258 and Badawi, Mu'allafat, p. 381f. (with additional mss.).

Our Ms. differs from the known mss. insofar as it includes a commentary. The commented text is overlined in red ink. Some pages have glosses in the margin. On fol. 32r is a drawing: concentric circles representing the cosmos.

On fols. 321r and 322v are some notes by a later hand.

Ms. 49.

251 folios; 15×21,2 cm; 23 lines; clear naskhi. Single words or sentences are in a few cases overlined in red or black ink. Thick paper, in part damaged, spotted, worm-eaten and water-stained with some loss of text on fols. 175-177. Owner's stamp on fols. 1r and 47r. The binding is repaired. Original leather covers with frame and centre-ornament, with an additional small ornament below and above it. Copied in 1117/1705-1706.

[2093] fols. 1v-251v: Ahmad Ibn Abd al-Qadir al-Rumi أحمد بن عبد القادر
wa-maqami' al-ashrar مجالس الأبرار ومسالك الأخيار ومحايق البدع ومقامع الأشرار .

The author (died 1041/1631 or 1043/1634-35) wrote this book as an encouragement to religious life. It consists of 100 "sessions" (majalis); → the survey of chapters given in the description of Ms. Berlin 8845. Each session starts with a thematic tradition which is taken from al-Baghawi البغوي (died 516/1122 or later), Masabih al-sunna مصابيح السنة (on this Hadith-collection → GAL I 364 and S I 620) and which is extensively discussed. These discussions give a good idea of those books on tafsir, Hadith, law, dialectical theology and mysticism which were used at that time.

On more mss. and on an old edition with Hindustani translation (Lucknow 1321/1903) → GAL II 445 and S II 661f.

The text is collated; in the margin are some notes.

Ms. 50.

65 folios; 14,5×20,3 cm; 16 lines; naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Thick, in part spotted and water-stained paper. Paste-board binding with brown leather spine and flap. Owner's remark on fol. 1r mentioning Yusuf (Ibn) Ubayd. Hand of the 11th/17th century.

[2094] fols. 1v-65v: Molla Husayn Ibn Iskandar al-Hanafi ملا حسين بن

جواهر المسائل فيما يحتاج إليه كل عاقل وجاهل

On the author (wrote about 1060/1650) and this still unedited paraenetic work on religious principles, prescriptions and admonitions → GAL S II 646 (mentions two mss. in Mosul).

- 22) Fi bayan ahwal al-akhira wa-ma yata'allaqu biha وما يتعلق بها (63v-65v).

The Ms. is incomplete at the end.

Beginning (after the Basmala):

أما بعد حمدنا الله حقّ حمده والصلاة والسلام على سيدنا محمد رسول الله وعبيده وعلى آله وصحبه من بعده، يقول العبد الفقير إلى مولاه الغني المدعو بمنلا حسين بن إسكندر الحنفي عامله الله بلطفه الحقي : فإني استخرت الله تعالى في جميع مسائل مختلفة متفرقة من أهمّ المهمّات التي لا بد للمكلف من معرفتها ...

The Ms. seems to have been written during the lifetime of the author (by himself?); confirmation of this being perhaps the expression amalahu Allah bi-lutfihi عامله الله بلطفه at the beginning of the text.

Other paraenetic works: → text nos. [2046], [2118], [2127]-[2129], [2207], [2294], [2298], [2373] and [2396].

Theology: creed, eschatology, kalam كلام

Ms. 51.

76 folios; 14×20 cm; 17 lines; somewhat stiff naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Yellowish paper, sometimes water-stained. Pasteboard binding with leather spine. Copied in the middle of Jumada II 1030/7 May 1621 by Muhammad Ibn Sayyid Abd al-Haqq (fol. 72v).

[2095] fols. 1v-72v: al-Shaybani الشيباني: Aqida عقيدة, with commentary by Alawan Ibn Atiya Ibn al-Hasan Ibn Muhammad al-Hamawi علوان بن عطية بن الحسن بن محمد الحموي: Bayan al-ma'ani fi sharh aqidat al-Shaybani بيان المعاني في شرح عقيدة الشيباني.

On al-Shaybani (died 189/805) and his Creed in 79 verses → GAS 431 no. X. Its authenticity is perhaps doubtful. On Alawan (died 936/1530) → GAL II 333; S II 461. Further mss. of his still unedited commentary are mentioned in GAS I 432 no. X b (2 mss.); another copy is Princeton no. 2209 (Sharh al-aqida al-Shaybaniya شرح العقيدة الشيبانية).

As Alawan informs us at the beginning of his commentary (1v 11ff.), he used the commentary by Ajlun عجلون (died 876/1472; → GAS I 431f.) which he summarized and supplemented. According to Ms. Berlin 1935, Alawan finished his commentary in 925/1519. At that time he was approximately 70 years old. His commentary refers to many sources and shows his thorough acquaintance with lexicography, grammar, tafsir, hadith, fiqh and theology.

The commented text is written in red ink. In the margin are a few notes.

[2096] fols. 73r-76r: Two excerpts from Ibn Hajar al-Asqalani ابن حجر العسقلاني (died 973/1565 or later), al-Fath al-mubin fi sharh alarba'in الفتح المبين في شرح الأربعين, a commentary on Nawawi النووي (died 676/1278), Kitab al-Arba'in كتاب الأربعين, a collection of 40 traditions; → GAL I 396 no. IX 11; S I 683 no. IX 11 and on Nawawi's Kitab al-Arba'in → the description of Ms. 10.

[2097] fols. 1v-4v: Anonymous: Aqidat ahl al-sunna عقيدة أهل السنة .

The text abruptly begins as follows:

إنّ العالم محدث والعالم عبارة عما سوى الله تعالى ودليل حدوثه خلوه من الأعراض..

As a comparison shows, our text is a paraphrase of Abu al-Ma'ali Abd al-Malik Ibn Abd Allah al-Juwayni أبو المعالي عبد الملك بن عبد الله الجويني (died 478/1085), Kitab Luma' al-adilla fi qawa'id ahl al-sunna كتاب لمع الأدلة في قواعد أهل السنة, a creed following the Ash'arite doctrine; compare text, French translation and glossary by Michel Allard, Textes apologétiques de Juwayni (Beyrouth 1968), pp. 99-195. Other editions are by Fawqiya Husayn Mahmud فوقية حسين محمود (Cairo 1965) and by Abd al-Aziz Izz al-Din al-Sayrawan عبد العزيز عز الدين السيروان (Beirut 1987).

On the top of fol. 1r the copyist added: hadha fi ilm usul al-kalam هذا في علم أصول الكلام.

[2098] fols. 4v-7r: al-Juwayni الجويني: Kitab al-Waraqat كتاب الورقات.

On text and author → description of Ms. 11. The Ms. has neither author nor title; the copyist added at the beginning: hadha fi ilm usul al-fiqh هذا في علم أصول الفقه .

On the author (died 892/1486 or 895/1490) and his Aqida with his own commentary (still unedited) → GAL II 251; our text is identical with mss. Berlin 2008 and 2009 (end different). Some notes and excerpts, in part in Persian, can be found on fols. 1r and 41v.

On al-Yaziji, a Hanafite jurist, preacher and teacher at the Umayyad mosque of Damascus (1050-1121/1640-1709) → Kahhale II 275. Brockelmann (GAL) has no entry on al-Yaziji; neither Brockelmann, nor Kahhale or Sezgin (GAS I 431f.) in their chapters on al-Shaybani (died 189/805) mention al-Yaziji's commentary on al-Shaybani's Creed (Aqida). According to a remark on fol. 34r, al-Yaziji finished his commentary on 13 Safar 1079/23 July 1668. Some notes are in the margin; lacunas are after 19v and 29v.

End:

The date mentioned on fol. 79v (10 Muharram 1093/19 January 1682) shows that the text was copied during the lifetime of the author.

[2104] fols.7r-198r: al-Ghazzali الغزالي: Kitab Ihya' ulum al-din : كتاب إحياء علوم الدين, part I. The Ms. starts with the end of chapter 3 in the first book (Kitab al-ilm كتاب العلم), in the edition of Cairo 1346/1927, vol. I p. 34, 2. It ends with the last chapter of Kitab Tartib al-awrad wa-tafsil ihya' al-layl كتاب ترتيب الأوراد وتفصيل إحياء الليل (= end of vol. I of the Cairo edition).

The text is collated by a later hand; in the margin are some notes.

Ms. 56.

225 folios; 14×26 cm; 24 lines. Nasta'liq. Chapter-headings are written in red ink; the commented text is overlined in red. Brownish paper, heavily stained with water; therefore, the text of a few pages is not easily readable. Flexible leather cover with ornamental frames, damaged. Owner's remark on fol. 76v, mentioning Muhammad Ali Ibn Abi al-Qasim and the year 1223/1808. Hand of the 12th/18th century.

[2106] fols. 1v-76r; 78r-86v; 89r-225r: parts of Abu Ja'far Nasir al-Din al-Tusi أبو جعفر نصير الدين الطوسي (died 672/1274), Tajrid al-aqa'id (al-kalam) تجريد العقائد (الكلام), with commentary (al-Sharh al-jadid الشرح الجديد) by Ala' al-Din Ali Ibn Muhammad al-Kushji علاء الدين علي بن محمد الكوشجي (died 879/1474).

al-Tusi belonged to the Imamite Shi'a; → Halm, Schia, p.79ff. and references given there. His summa of Imamite scholastic theology, the Tajrid al-aqa'id (Strothmann 57ff.), was commented very often (→ GAL I 509 II 2 and S I 925-927 II 2). On the mss. and four old lithographic editions of the commentary by al-Kushji → GAL (as above) no. c. Our Ms. is incomplete, as becomes evident from a comparison with the description of a copy in the Buhar Library in Calcutta (→ Husayn, Catalogue, p.497) and in Berlin (Ms. no. 1763).

Our Ms. contains the following parts:

The following pages till 88v are blank. fols. 89r-225: [al-Maqsad al-thani fi al-jawahir wa-al-a'rad المقصد الثاني في الجواهر والأعراض]. The beginning is missing; on fol. 147v begins the 5th subsection (fasl فصل) on a'rad أعراض. This subsection can also be found in Ms. Berlin 1764, which until now could not be identified exactly.

Ms. 57.

54 folios; 15,5×21,5 cm; 21 lines; clearly written naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Smooth paper. Modern cardboard binding. A note on fol. 1r mentions Husayn Salim al-Dajani, Mufti of Yafa (1202-1274/1788-1858; → Kahhale IV 10). Hand of the 13th/19th century.

A comparison of the Ms. Berlin 2041 with our text does not confirm the assumption of Ahlwardt that the copyist of the Berlin Ms. omitted some words in the introduction. The text is collated. On fol. 11v follows a poem (takhmis تخميس) in praise of God..

Ms. 61.

[2114] fols. 1v-258v: Ibrahim al-Laḡani al-Maliki إبراهيم اللاقاني المالكي

شرح جوهرة Sharh Jawharat al-tawhid al-musamma bi-hidayat al-murid التوحيد المسمى بهداية المرید.

On the author (died 1041/1631) and his creed Jawharat al-tawhid consisting of 144 verses in rajaz metre which is provided by the author with an extensive commentary called Hidayat al-murid (still unedited) → GAL II 317 (wrong: "Hadiyat al-murid هدية المرید") and S II 436 (also called [Kitab] al-Jawahir al-kabir [كتاب] الجواهر الكبير).

According to the colophon, the author finished his commentary on 2 Safar 1029/8 January 1620. The creed is preceded by letter "s ص" (= al-musannif المصنف) and the commentary by the letter "sh ش" (=sharih شارح).

An edition of the Jawhara with commentary (Tuhfat al-murid تحفة المرید) by Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad al-Bayjuri إبراهيم بن محمد البيجوري and notes by Ahmad al-Ujhuri أحمد الأجهوري appeared in Cairo (about 1968).

Beginning and end of our commentary: → description of Ms. Berlin 2047.

Ms. 62

10 folios; 15,8×21,3 cm; 19 lines; naskhi, tending to ruq'a. Single words are written in red ink. Copied 1 Dhu al-Qa'da 1163/2 October 1750 by Muhammad Ibn Salim al-Hifni (fols. 4v and 7v) = Muhammad Ibn Yusuf Ibn Bint Muhammad Ibn Salim al-Hifnawi al-Shafi'i? The date of birth given in Kahhale XII 136, however, does not match the date of our copy.

[2115] fols. 1v-4r: Muhammad Ibn Muhammad al-Maghribi al-Azhari al-Khalwati محمد بن محمد المغربي الأزهري الخلوتي: Raf' al-haraj an al-awamm fi qawlihim "Allahumma salla wa-sallam alayka ya khayr al-anam" رفع الحرج عن العوام في قولهم "اللهم صلى وسلم عليك يا خير الأنام".

It is allowed to say to somebody Allahumma salla wa-sallam alayka ya khayr al-anam. The author cannot be identified; he may be identical with Muhammad al-Azhari al-Tafilati al-Maghribi al-Hanafi محمد الأزهرى التافلاتي المغربي الحنفي (died 1191/1777; → Kahhae IX 37), but this is not certain. Confirmation of this may be the reference of the following text (fol. 6v9) to Mustafa al-Bakri al-Siddiqi مصطفى البكري as "teacher" (ustadhuna أستاذنا) of al-Azhari; Mustafa al-Bakri al-Siddiqi lived 1143-1196/1731-1782 (→ Kahhale XII 32).

Beginning (after the Basmala):

الحمد لله الذي منح أهل التعريف أعلا مقام والصلاة والسلام على سيدنا محمد وآله وصحبه الأعلام، أما بعد فيقول الفقير لمولانا الغني محمد بن محمد المغربي الأزهرى : قد اشتهر على السنة العوام اللهم صلى عليك يا سيد الأنام...

End:

والحمد لله والصلاة والسلام على كل بكرة وعشية على سيدنا محمد وعلى آله وصحبه الحافظين لسنته السنوية فأبدت لطائف الرقائق بالحجج (؟) السوية، تم وكمل بحمد الله.

The text is collated; see the note at the end (fol. 4r). On fol. 4v follows a remark by the copyist (s. above).

On the author compare the preceding text. The treatise is directed against those who maintain that adad "number", "quantity" and kamal "perfection" cannot be attributed to God. According to the author, both terms do not mean any finiteness (la yatanaha لا يتناهى).

Beginning (after the Basmala):

الحمد لله الموصوف بكل كمال بلا نهاية المتقدس نعوت الجلال... أما بعد فيقول... محمد بن محمد المغربي

End:

... والصلاة والسلام على سيدنا المرسلين وعلى آله وصحبه الأكرمين ما أقام الله طائفة ظاهرين على الحق إلى
يوم الدين، تمّ وكمل،

At the end of the text follows a note by the copyist, similar to that on fol. 4v.

Ms. 63.

161 folios; 27×20 cm; 28 lines; Yemenite naskhi. Chapter-headings and single words are written in red ink or with large letters. In the margin are some notes, in part by a later hand. Paper sometimes worm-eaten, stained with water and repaired. Pasteboard binding, repaired. The inside of the covers is pasted with marbled paper.
Hand of the 9th/15th century.

Beginning and end of the text are missing. In the margin of fols. 1r and 161v a later hand added in red ink: Kitab al-Minhaj ala madhhab al-i'tizal كتاب المنهاج على مذهب الاعتزال. This statement is incorrect. A comparison with Ms. Berlin 1870 (copied 854/1450) and a closer look at the text enable us to identify the text with a Zaidite author from the 14th century:

[2117] fols. 1r-161v: Imad al-Din Yahya Ibn Hasan Ibn Musa al-Qurashi al-Sa'di : Kitab Minhaj al-tahqiq wa-mahasin al-talfiq fi usul al-din = al-Minhaj ila taqwim ali'wajaj min al-kutub al-mu'tamida fi usul al-din كتاب منهاج التحقيق ومحاسن التلفيق في أصول الدين = المنهاج إلى تفويم الاعوجاج من الكتب المعتمدة في أصول الدين

Brockelmann (GAL S II 995 nr.60) mentions three mss.; like Ahlwardt in his description of the mentioned Berlin Ms., he could not identify the text and its author. However, a closer look at the text and its sources enables us to fix a terminus post quem and the time in which the text must have been composed: on fol. 147v25f. we find the following sentence:

wa-min-hu ma sami'a-hu al-nas wa-sami'na-hu min (26) lisan
Imam zamani-na wa-hujjat dahri-na al-Imam al-Nasir li-din Allah Amir al-mu'minin Muhammad Ibn Amir al-mu'minin - ammara Allah arkan al-islam bi-tul umri-hi.

ومنه ما سمعه الناس وسمعناه من ٢٦ لسان إمام زماننا وحجة دهرنا الإمام الناصر لدين الله أمير المؤمنين
محمد بن أمير المؤمنين - عمر الله أركان الإسلام بطول عمره.

In this passage the author mentions as his contemporary the son of al-Imam al-Mahdi li-din Allah Ali Ibn Muhammad الإمام المهدي لدين الله علي بن محمد (died Rabi' I 773/September 1371), namely al-Imam al-Nasir li-din Allah Salah al-Din Muhammad Ibn Amir al-Mu'minin Ali Ibn Muhammad الإمام الناصر لدين الله صلاح الدين محمد بن أمير المؤمنين علي بن محمد, who took over the Imamate from his father and died in the year 793/1391: → the Yemenite historians Yahya Ibn al-Husayn Ibn al-Qasim Ibn Muhammad Ibn Ali يحيى بن الحسين بن القاسم بن محمد بن علي (1035-1100/1625-1689), Ghayat al-amani fi akhbar al-qatr al-yamani غاية سعيد عبد الفتاح عاشور الأمانى في أخبار القطر اليمني ed. Sa'id Abd al-Fattah Ashur and Muhammad Mustafa Ziyade محمد مصطفى زياده (Cairo 1968) pp. 523,16f.; 524,3f.; al-Shawkani الشوكاني, al-Badr al-tali' bi-mahasin min ba'd al-qarn al-sabi' البدر الطالع بمحاسن من بعد القرن السابع, II (Cairo 1348/1929), pp. 225f.

Therefore, our text must have been compiled by the author between 773/1371 and 793/1391. - According to the Yemenite historian Zabbara زبارة (died 1380/1960), Fi ta'rikh a'immat al-Yaman في تاريخ أئمة اليمن (Ta'izz 1952), p. 268, Imad al-Din died 780/1378. If this date is correct, the author must have written his text between 773/1371 and 780/1378, shortly before his death. To the mss. mentioned in GAL (s. above) we can add five more mss. in the Great Mosque of San'a'/Yemen: → Muhammad Sa'id al-Malih أحمد محمد عيسوي and Ahmad Muhammad Isawi محمد سعيد المليح and Fahras فهرس makhtutat al-Maktaba al-gharbiya bi-al-Jami' al-kabir bi-San'a' فهرس (Alexandria 1978), pp. 207-208 = ilm al-kalam علم الكلام nos. 148, 149, 150 and 151; Fahras فهرس p. 205 = ilm al-kalam no. 147, with commentary by Izz al-Din Ibn al-Hasan عز الدين بن الحسن, with the title al-Mi'raj ila istikhraj asrar al-Minhaj al-muqawwima lil-i'wizaj المعراج إلى استخراج أسرار المنهاج المقومة للاعوجاج.

It may be worthwhile to mention here a second work by Imad al-Din, namely al-Risala al-damigha wa-al-hujja al-baligha (manzuma) (منظومة) الرسالة الدامغة والحجة البالغة a short refutation of the faqih Muhammad al-Ruda'i al-Ash'ari → Abd الله محمد الرضا الأشعري : فقيهه محمد الرضا الأشعري Masadir al-fikr al-arabi عبد الله محمد الحبشي (San'a' without date), p. 115 (1 Ms.). The Minhaj al-tahqiq wa-mahasin al-talfiq is a mine of Zaidite and Mu'tazilite sources. It refers to early Mu'tazilites of the 3rd/9th and 4th/10th centuries and their discussions and has used many sources, of which we mention the following:

It is possible that some excerpts are taken from al-Malahimi's Kitab al-Mu'tamad fi

Ms. 65.

47 folios; 14×19,5 cm; 19 lines; naskhi. Single words are written in red ink or overlined in red. Thin, brownish-yellowish and sometimes spotted paper. Primitive, flexible pasteboard binding, slightly damaged. Hand of the end of the 12th/18th century.

On the author (lived between A.D. 1046 and 1239) and this refutation of Christianity by a physician who became a convert to Islam → GAL S II 145; F. Sepmeijer, Een weerlegging van het christendom uit de 10e eeuw. De brief van al-Hasan b. Ayyub aan zijn broer Ali (thesis Free University Amsterdam), Kampen 1985, pp.1f. - The letter by al-Hasan Ibn Ayyub is almost completely incorporated into the text by Nasr Ibn Yahya of which so far only two mss. were known (one was edited in Cairo 1312/1894-5).

Other mss. on theology: → text nos. [2025], [2064], [2065], [2071], [2151], [2282], [2300], [2302], [2318], [2325], [2327], [2329], [2331], [2354], [2357]-[2361], [2363], [2365], [2366], [2370], [2375], [2376], [2379], [2391], [2397], [2400], [2401], [2403], [2405], [2410], [2412], [2422], [2423] and [2455].

Sufism

Ms. 66.

183 folios; 12,6×17,5 cm; 19 lines; naskhi. The text is collated. Thick, brownish paper; fols. 1-9 are heavily spotted and the text is in a few cases damaged. Pasteboard binding, covers slightly damaged. According to a remark in the margin of fol. 2r, the Ms. was bequeathed by Shaykh Ali Ibn Ibrahim al-Madani al-Hanbali. Hand of the 8-9th/14-15th century.

On al-Harawi (died 481/1088), Manazil al-sa'irin, a survey of Sufism → GAL I 432 nr.I and S I 774 nr. I. al-Herewi's text has been recently edited with Persian translation by Rawan Farhadi روان فرهادي (Teheran 1361 h.š/1982-3). A French translation by J. Sourdell-Thomine appeared in 1957 in Damascus (Guide des lieux de pèlerinage). On al-Herewi → the monograph (with extracts from his works) by S. De Laugier de Beaurecueil, Khwadja 'Abdallah Ansari, mystique Hanbalite (Beyrouth 1963).

The first folio of the Ms. (containing the proem) is missing; the Ms. starts:

من عنده الهمام الحقّ والتحقيق قال رضي الله عنه.

Then follows the beginning of al-Herewi's text (= ed. Farhadi p. 10, 2).

After fol. 9v is a lacuna because fol. 9v ends with the commentary on al-Herewi ed. Farhadi p.24 and fol. 10r (l.2) continues with al-Harawi ed. Farhadi p.30, 11. - A long lacuna is also after fol. 172v, which ends with the beginning of the commentary on al-Herewi ed. Farhadi p.136, ult.; fol. 173r continues with al-Herewi ed. Farhadi p. 196, 6 and its commentary. - The Ms. is incomplete at the end, as it ends with the commentary on al-Herewi ed. Farhadi p. 210, 1-5 (= fol. 183v5-7).

The author of the commentary is not mentioned in our Ms.; as fol. 2r6 refers to the commentary by Afif al-Din al-Tilimsani عفيف الدين التلمساني (died 690/1291) our commentary must have been composed in the 8th/14th century. In view of the supposed age of the Ms. we must consequently assume that our commentary was copied during or shortly after the lifetime of the commentator. He can be identified with Abd al-Razzaq al-Kashani عبد الرزاق الكاشاني (died 730/1330) as a comparison with Ms. Leiden Or. 702(2) (= fols. 86v-155v) shows; our Ms. begins in the Leiden Ms. on fol. 86v14. - An edition of this commentary appeared 1995 in Beirut.

Ms. 67.

10 folios; 12×17,5 cm; 15 lines; naskhi. Single words are overlined in black. Smooth and somewhat brownish paper. Owner's stamp on fol. 1r mentioning the name "Sayyid Hafiz Mustafa Mayzanizade" = "Mustafa Ibn Hafiz Asim Mayzanizade al-Naqshbandi al-Mujaddidi al-Amidi". Copied at the end of Dhu al-Hijja (10)21/22 February

[2136] fols. 1v-10r: Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Abd al-Malik al-Tibrizi

سراج القلوب Siraj al-qulub : أحمد بن محمد عبد الملك التبريزي

On the author (wrote in the 5th/11th century) and this treatise on the Sufi stations (maqamat مقامات) in 41 chapters → GAL I 433 nr. 3a and S I 775 nr. 3a. The text is edited by Abd al-Latif Muhammad al-Abd عبد اللطيف محمد العبد (Cairo 1978). - Fol. 1r contains an enumeration of authors and works on different subjects. A modern hand added some biblio-graphical notes and the remark that the text was published in 1976 (sic) in Cairo.

Ms. 68.

30 folios; 13×18 cm; 19 lines; somewhat irregular, but clearly written naskhi. Single words are written in red ink or overlined in red. The text is collated. Smooth and in part slightly brownish paper. Copied at the end of Safar 922/5 April 1516.

[2137] fols. 1v-30v: Abu Hamid (Ms.: Ahmad) Ibn Muhammad Ibn

أبو حامد (م. أحمد) بن محمد بن محمد الغزالي الطوسي

مدخل السلوك إلى منازل الملوك Madkhal al-suluk ila manazil al-muluk

On the author (died 505/1111) and these reflexions on mystical piety and the duties of belief → GAL I 423 nr.36 and S I 751 nr. 36 (4 mss.). Bouyges, Essai, p. 142 nr.232 doubts the attribution to Ghazzali whose authorship is accepted by Abd al-Rahman Badawi عبد الرحمن بدوي, Mu'allafat مؤلفات, p. 360 nr.232. The text is now available in an edition by Muhammad Riyad al-Salihi محمد رياض الصالحي (Damascus 1385/1965).

Ms. 69.

10 folios; 13,2×18 cm; 21 lines; irregular, but clearly written naskhi. Single words and sentences are written in red ink. Thick, brownish paper. Copied during Rabi' I 914/July 1508 by Abu Bakr al-Dhabbah Ibrahim al-Hanbali (→ fol. 7v), on whom compare al-Hasan Ibn Muhammad al-Burini الحسن بن محمد البوريني (died 1024/1615), Tarajim al-A'yan min abna' al-zaman تراجم الأعيان من أبناء الزمان I, ed. Salah al-Din al-Munajjid صلاح الدين المنجد (Damascus 1959), pp. 279-282.

[2138] fol. 1v-7v: Sadr al-Din al-Qonawi صدر الدين القونوي al-Tawajjuh al-awla bi-haqq al-haqq jalla wa-ala التوجه الأولى بحق الحق جل وعلا

A still unedited mystical treatise by al-Qonawi (died 672/1263) on the path which leads to God's vicinity. fol. 1r mentions as title al-tawajjuh al-awla. The same text, without author, is in Ms. Berlin 2995, with the title Ujala (or: Risala) fi al-tawajjuh al-atamm عجالة (أو رسالة) في التوجه الأتم. In a few mss. the same text is ascribed to Sadr al-Din's teacher, the famous mystic Ibn Arabi ابن عربي, with the additional title variants al-Ta'rif bi-kayfiyat al-tawajjuh al-atamm كتاب التعريف بكيفية التوجه الأتم or Kitab Ujalat al-ta'rif bi-kayfiyat al-atamm عجالة التعريف بكيفية الأتم. All these variants ultimately are based on the beginning following the amma ba'du أما بعد (fol.1v16f.): fa-hadhihi ujalatun tatadammanu al-ta'rif bi-kayfiyat al-tawajjuh (+ al-atamm Ms. Berlin 2995) al-awla nahw al-haqq jalla wa-ala فهذه عجالة تتضمن التعريف بكيفية التوجه (الأتم) الأولى نحو الحق جل وعلا.

Brockelmann (GAL I 448 no. 148 and S I 800 no. 149 [sic]) mentions our text among the works of Ibn Arabi and at the same time (!) as al-Risala al-Tawajjuhiya الرسالة التوجيهية among those written by Sadr al-Din al-Qonawi (GAL S I 808 no. 18). Yahya, Histoire II p. 507f. no. 772 has abandoned the ascription to Ibn Arabi; the authorship of Sadr al-Din al-Qonawi, as assumed by him, is confirmed by our Ms. which, moreover, is a copy made by a respected scholar from Damascus (→ above). Two more copies attributed to Sadr al-Din al-Qonawi are Princeton no. 2763.

Ms. 70.

121 folios; 11×16,5 cm; 15 lines; regular naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Brownish paper, sometimes stained with water and spotted; fol. 1 is damaged. Original leatherbinding; covers and flap with centre-ornament and frame consisting of geometrical lines and dots. Owner's remark on fol. 1r: Qasim Ibn Ali Ibn Muhammad Bizziru al-Tunisi; fol. 116r mentions the year 1264/1847-8.

According to the colophon (fol. 115v), the Ms. was collated (harrara حرر) by the copyist (mentioned with the additional nisba "al-Andalusi") at the end of Jumada II 1203/25 March 1789. This is confirmed by some additions in the margin of the text, written by the same hand as the colophon. Bizziru informs us that he collated our Ms. with an autograph of Abd al-Ghani al-Nabulusi عبد الغني النابلسي. This is possible as our Ms. must have been copied at the beginning of the 12th/18th century - perhaps in the lifetime of Abd al-Ghani al-Nabulusi: our Ms. refers to him with with the addition amaddana Allah bi-madadihi wa-nafa'ana Allah bi-ulumihi أمدنا الله بمدده ونفعنا الله بعلومه (fol. 1r) or nafa'ana Allah ta'ala bihi نفعا الله تعالى به (fol. 115r). It may have been copied between 1088/1677, the date of the composition of the commentary and 1143/1731, the year of its author's death (→ below).

Khamrat al-khan wa-rannat al-alhan fi sharh Risalat Arslan al-Dimashqi خمرة الخان ورنة الألحان في شرح رسالة أرسلان الدمشقي.

On Raslan (died ca. 695/1296), the author of this mystical treatise on the unity of God (→ text nr. 142) and on the commentary (unedited) by Abd al-Ghani al-Nabulusi (died 1143/1731) → GAL I 452 nr. I 4; S I 811 nr. I 4 and S II 475 nr. 112 (7 mss.). The colophon informs us that the commentary was finished in Rajab 1088/1677.

The commented text is written in red ink. Beginning and end of text and commentary can be found in the description of Ms. Berlin 2434.

Ms. 71.

61 folios; 17,5×26 cm; 21 lines; naskhi, in part without diacritical points. Single words are written in red ink. Thick, brownish paper, the first folio is damaged. Original red leatherbinding (repaired); covers and flap with centre-ornament and vignettes as in Ms. Shehid Ali 378 (dated 719/1319), cf. Weisweiler, plate 13 and p. 168, nr. 319. - Owner's remark: Mustafa Iyas (sic) al-marhum Ibrahim Agha Shaykhsard-zade (?); bequeathed by Uthman al-Kurdi. According to the title-page, the text was copied during the month Rabi' I 877/August 1472; the colophon (fol. 61v) mentions as copyist Abd Allah Ibn Muhammad Ibn Uthman al-Misri.

[2140] fols. 1v-61v: Abd Allah Ibn As'ad Ibn Ali al-Yafi'i عبد الله بن أسعد ابن علي الياضي الرسالة المكية في طريق السادة الصوفية
:بن علي الياضي

On the author (died 768/1367) and his unedited introduction to the mystical path and its eight conditions → GAL II 177 nr. 8 and S II 228 nr.8 (2 mss.).

Beginning (after the Basmala):

فقد ألفت هذا التأليف في مكة حرسها الله تعالى : الحمد لله العظيم شأنه القوي سلطانه الظاهر إحسانه... أما بعد
ثم استدرسته بمدينة دمشق وزدت فيه فوائد حتى إذا طالع المرید الصادق ونبهه الله تعالى من رقدة الفعلة...

End:

وإياكم من نومة الغافلين وصلى الله على سيدنا محمد في الأولين والآخرين وعلى آله وصحبه الطاهرين إلى يوم
الدين ، والحمد لله رب العالمين ،

The text is divided into numerous chapters and sections and refers to the Islamic tradition-literature and earlier Sufis. In the margin are a few notes.

Ms. 72.

39 folios; 15,3×21 cm; 19 lines; small, regular written naskhi.

Single words are written in red ink. Thick paper, slightly spotted.

Modern cardboard binding. On fol. 1v owner's remark: Ibrahim Ibn al-Hajj Mustafa Ibn al-Hajj Muhammad al-Uruqi (or: al-Uruni) and the date Rajab [1]184/October [1]740. Hand of the beginning 12th/17-18th century.

[2141] fols. 1v-21v: Abu al-Hasan Nur al-Din Ali Ibn Khalil al-Marsafi al-Shafi'i : أبو الحسن نور الدين علي بن خليل المرصفي الشافعي كتاب الكوكب الشاهق كتاب الكوكب الشاهق
المخلص من منهجي السالك

On the author (died 930/1524) → GAL II 332; S II 460; Kahhale VII 88. This introduction to the mystical path is different from Marsafi, al-Manhaj al-salik ila ashraf al-masalik (→ fols. 23r-39v) and from the same, al-Muqni' wa-al-mawrid al-adhb li-man yashrab wa-yakra' (Ms. Berlin 3038).

It consists of five chapters:

1) Fima yukhbaru an ma'na al-suluk wa-yukshafu an haqa'iq al-masluk (fols. 1v-11r);
فيما يخبر عن معنى السلوك ويكشف عن حقائق المسلوك

2) Fima yaridu ala al-dama'ir min al-khawatir al-khams فيما يريد على

(11r-13r); الضمائر من الخواطر الخمس

3) Fi ma'rifat al-maqamat al-aliya wa-ahwal al-siyar في معرفة المقامات العلية

(13r-17r); وأحوال السير

4) Fi al-ilm wa-al-ma'rifa في العلم والمعرفة (17r-18v);

5) Fi al-tawhid في التوحيد (18v-21v).

The text is mentioned neither in Brockelmann (GAL) nor in Kahhale.

Beginning (after the Basmala):

فقد سألتني بعض الإخوان : وبه نستعين ، الحمد لله المنقذ من شاء من عباده من الضلال المنعم... أما بعد unification (tawhid) → GAL I 452 no. 1; S I 811 no. I and S III 1257

(addition to p. 144, 4g with the correct date of the author's death).

According to GAL S I 811, the text is only available in an old printing (Cairo 1317/1899) of the commentary (Fath al-rahman فتح الرحمن) by Zakariya' al-Ansari زكرياء الأنصاري . It has also the title al-Risala al-Raslaniya (رسالة رسلان) or Risalat Raslan (→ Ms.

Berlin 2427).

النابلسي , is text no. [\[2139\]](#).

On the author (died 930/1524) and this still unedited summary of al-Risala al-qushayriya (الرسالة القشيرية) (by al-Qushayri القشيري who died 465/1072; → GAL I 432 no. 1 and S I 771 no.1), on the principles of mystics, → GAL II 332 and S II 460. Our Ms. contains fasl 2, 3 and 4; as Ms. Berlin 3037 shows, the complete text consists of 26 fusul فصول.

Ms. 73.

139 folios; 11×16,4 cm; 17 lines; not very carefully written naskhi. Spotted paper. Pasteboard covers with leather spine (slightly damaged). Flap and covers are pasted with marbled paper (damaged). Hand of the 12-13th/18-19th century.

[2144] fols. 1v-139v: Ahmad Ibn Yusuf Ibn Ahmad al-Dimashqi al-Qaramani (أحمد بن يوسف بن أحمد الدمشقي القرمانى) : al-Rawd al-nasim wa-al-durr al-yatim fi manaqib al-sultan Ibrahim Ibn Adham (الروض النسيم والدر اليتيم في مناقب السلطان إبراهيم بن أدهم).

This unpublished legend by Qaramani (938/1532-1019/1611) is a glorification of the ascetic life of the repentant Ibrahim Ibn Adham Ibn Mansur (إبراهيم بن أدهم بن منصور) who died in 161/778. The text is an extract from a translation (made during 1019/1610) from the Turkish original entitled al-Tiraz al-mu'lam fi qissat al-sultan Ibrahim Ibn Adham (الطراز المعلم في قصة السلطان إبراهيم بن أدهم), written by Derwish Hasan al-Rumi (درويش حسن الرومي) (→ GAL II 301 and S II 412).

A survey of the contents can be found in the description of Ms. Berlin 9055; beginning and end differ from Ms. Berlin:

Beginning (after the Basmala):

وبه نستعين ، الحمد لله الذي اولى<ب>نا من مزيد النقم والبلوا وارفع عنا من الضرر والسقم واشكروه...

On fol. 2r, ult. follows the text as the beginning of Ms. Berlin 9055.

End:

[2145] fols. 3v-80r: Abu al-Mawahib Abd al-Wahhab Ibn Ahmad Ibn Ali al-Sha'rani : أبو المواهب عبد الوهاب بن أحمد بن علي الشعراني كتاب الموازين Mawazin al-durriya al-mubayyina li-aqa'id al-firaq al-aliya . الدرية المبينة لعقائد الفرق العلية

On the author (died 973/1565) and his unpublished rather unsystematic collection of Sufi considerations on God and the world → GAL II 337 no. 24 and S II 466 no. 24 (3 mss.). Compare now also Michael Winter, The Writings of Abd al-Wahhab al-Sha'rani عبد الوهاب الشعراني : a Sufi source for the social and intellectual life of 16th century Egypt, thesis Los Angeles 1972.

In the introduction of our text the author explains that everyone who considers the thoughts of the Sufis may be absolved from his guilt. They do not depart from the orthodox faith as people often suspect.

Beginning (after the Basmala):

الحمد لله ربّ العالمين والصلاة والتسليم على سيدنا محمد وعلى سائر الأنبياء والمرسلين وعلى آلهم وصحبهم فهذه عقيدة شريفة انقدحت(?) لي من تصفح عبارات الأولياء المحققين أصحاب الدوائر الكبرى : أجمعين وبعد كالشيخ أبي القاسم بن قسي صاحب كتاب خلع النعلين وكالشيخ محي الدين العربي وكالشيخ صفي الدين ابن أبي منصور وكالشيخ عبد الكريم الجيلي وكالأستاذين الكبيرين سيدي محمد وفاء وولده سيدي علي وفاء...

Ms. 75.

38 folios; 10,7×16 cm; 19 lines; regular naskhi. Single words and chapter-headings are written in red ink. Thick paper, slightly water-stained. Hand of the 12th/18th century.

[2146] fols. 1v-38r: Abd al-Wahhab Ibn Ahmad Ibn Ali Ibn Ahmad Ibn Musa Ibn Mawlay Ibn Abd Allah Ibn al-Zaghali (= al-Sha'rani) عبد الوهاب بن أحمد بن علي بن أحمد بن موسى بن مولاي بن عبد الله بن الزغلي (= الشعراني) مدارج السالكين إلى رسوم طريق العارفين

On the author (died 973/1565) and this unpublished text on the behaviour and aims of the Sufis → GAL II 337 no. 15; S II 465 no.15I; Taha Abd al-Baqi Surur طه عبد الباقي سرور, al-Tasawwuf al-islami wa-al-Imam al-Sha'rani التصوف الإسلامي والإمام الشعراني, Cairo 21952; and Winter (as description of Ms. 74).

An enumeration of the chapters as well as beginning and end of the text can be found in the description of Ms. Berlin 3104. The end of our Ms. differs:

وأن يرينا الباطل باطلا ويرزقنا اجتنابه آمين ، والحمد لله ربّ العالمين وصلى الله على سيدنا محمد وآله ..
وصحبه وسلم تسليما تمّ ،

In the margin are some notes. The text is collated. On fol. 1r precedes a collection of some wise sayings.

[2147] fol. 38v: Anonymous: [Risala fi al-nafs] wa-fi da'iha wa-adwiyatiha [رسالة في النفس] وفي دائها وأدويتها, the first page.

Beginning (after the Basmala):

اعلم أنّ النفس لطيفة مودوعة في القلب لها الأخلاق والصفات المذمومة والحمودة : قال رضي الله تعالى عنه
كما أنّ الروح في القلب لها الأخلاق والصفات المحمودة والنفس لا تعرف ...

The Ms. gives on fol. 38r below the following information: wa-li-ba'd al-sada - radiya Allah anhu - fiha (sc. fi al-nafs) wa-fi da'iha (Ms. datiha) wa-adwiyatiha (داتها) رضي الله عنه - فيها (في النفس) وفي دائها (داتها) وأدويتها. A later hand added in the margin: lil-Shaykh Abd al-Rahman al-Sulami للشيخ عبد الرحمن السلمي. This identification is wrong; Abd al-Rahman al-Sulami (died 412/1021; → GAS I 671-4), Kitab Uyub al-nafs wa-mudawatiha (ed. Etan Kohlberg, Jerusalem 1976) has some similarity to our text insofar as both mention the uyub al-nafs and their remedy (mudawat); however, they are totally different from each other. Finally, another anonymous text on uyub al-nafs and their remedy in Ms. Berlin 2997 is also different.

Worthy of notice is a long quotation from the mystic Abu Abd Allah Ibn (al-)Khafif (ال)خفيف (268/882-371/981) on fol. 38v11ff., which shows the same structure as the above-mentioned text by Abd al-Rahman al-Sulami namely the enumeration of the uyub al-nafs and their remedy (mudawat). We do not know of such a work by Ibn Khafif (ابن خفيف → GAS I 663f.; Schimmel, Mystische Dimensionen, index), but it is quite possible that he wrote such a book which may have inspired Abd al-Rahman al-Sulami and the anonymous author of our ms.

The quotation from Ibn Khafif (ابن خفيف) is as follows (38v11-ult., the end of the ms.):

وسئل الشيخ الكبير أبو (أبي المخطوط) عبد الله بن خفيف قدس سره عن النفس ما هي؟ فقال إنها لا تعرف بذاتها ولكن بظهور أفعالها يستدلّ عليها وإنّ من صفاتها المخالفة للحق وإنها مائلة إلى الشهوة ويثقل عليها العبادة ولها عيوب كثيرة ولكن لكل عيب منها له مداواة ، ومن عيوبه صحبة العوام الباطلين (الباطلين المخطوط) وأهل السوق الغافلين ومداواتها صحبة العلماء الخاشعين وعباد الله الصالحين ، ومن عيوبها صحبة التجار وأهل الديوان وإمامة الأتراك وملازمة باب الأمرء والاشتغال بأمرهم لأجل الدنيا ومداواتها صحبة الزهاد والمتورعين والتذكر بأهوال القيامة وأنواع العذاب للظالمين ، ومن عيوبها صحبة أهل الإباحة والزنادقة وصحبة القراء المداهنيين والمتفهمة الغافلين والمتصوفة الجاهلين ، ومداواتها صحبة أهل المهابة والديانة والسياسة من <...>

Ms. 76.

18 folios; 15,2×20,7 cm; 20 lines; stiff naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. In a few places worm-eaten and spotted paper; the first two folios are damaged with some loss of the text. Owner's remark on fol. 18r: Rashid Abu Shaykh Naji. Copied 18 Jumada II 1008/5 January 1599 by Darwish Ibn Yahya Ibn Abi al-Jud al-Ansari from an autograph which was written by the author on 7 Rajab 933/9 April 1527 (fol. 15v).

On the author (died 973/1565) and this unedited treatise on the different ranks of the Sufi → GAL II 336 no. 6 and S II 465 no. 6. The text is collated with the autograph (→ fol. 15v, note in the margin). Lacunas are after fols. 4 and 5. An enumeration of the five chapters as well as beginning and end can be found in the description of Ms. Berlin 3044.

[2149] fols. 16r-18r contain notes and excerpts from different works, among them Ibn Arabi ابن عربي, al-Futuhat al-Makkiya الفتوحات المكية (17r) and al-Sha'rani (17v-18r).

Ms. 77.

6 folios; 16×22 cm; 23-25 lines; irregular naskhi. Water-stained and spotted paper. Cardboard binding. Owner's remark (name illegible) mentioning the year 1221/1806-7. Hand of the late 12th/18th century.

[2150] On the author (died 1058/1648) → GAL S II 510 and 902; Kahhale VIII 312 and XI 112. The title is only mentioned in

Kahhale, who took his information from Isma'il Pasha al-Baghdadi إسماعيل باشا البغدادي, Hadiya هدية II p.282.

The text is a refutation of pantheistic ideas of Sufis and was written near Mecca in the year 1057/1647 on request of an unnamed scholar in India (من أقاصي الهند min aqasi al-Hind).

According to fols. 2v-3r the author divided the text into six sections: muqaddima مقدمة, four chapters and a nubdha yasira نبذة يسيرة. On fol. 3r9, however, he begins with a "comment on the introduction" (Sharh al-muqaddima شرح المقدمة), which in his opinion is "more appropriate"; the rest of the Ms. does not contain any chapters as mentioned on fols. 2v-3r. Unfortunately, the Ms. is incomplete at the end; we, therefore do not know whether our Ms. is part of a much longer work or - more probable - not finished by the author.

Ms. 78.

7 folios; 15,5×22 cm; 20 lines; somewhat stiff naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Thick, slightly water-stained, spotted and damaged (fols. 5-7) paper. Cardboard binding. Copied during Mu rram 1169/October 1755 by Muhammad Ibn Abd Allah Ibn Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Mustafa al-Hanbali al-Khalwati (fol. 1r).

[2151] fols. 1v-7r: Mustafa Ibn Kamal al-Din al-Bakri al-Siddiqi al-Khalwati مصطفى بن كمال الدين البكري الصديقي الخلوتي: A titleless treatise on the repetition of God's attributes and formulas in praise of God and its meaning.

On the author (died 1162/1749) → GAL II 350f. and S II 477f. The identity of our text with one of al-Khalwati's known works is unclear. It is different from al-Mudam al-bikr fi bayan ba'd aqsam al-dhikr wa-tark al-dhikr المدام البكر في بيان بعض أقسام الذكر وترك الذكر → Ms.

Berlin 3727 which according to the description by Ahlwardt is based on an earlier and not finished version on dhikr. The text in our Ms. has the character of an unfinished treatise: it begins without Basmala and proem abruptly with a quotation (fol. 1v):

قال القاضي عبد الله المقيم يومئذ ببغداد : رأيت النبي صلى الله عليه وسلم في المنام وهو مصفر اللون فقلت :

[2152] On fols. 1v16-2r12 follows a quotation from Abd al-Ghani al-Nabulusi عبد الغني النابلسي , Sharh al-tajalliyat شرح التجليات and then the author starts:

اعلم أنّ التوحيد الشهودي بعد القول والمجاهدة النفسانية في تحصيله والرياضة تمرين النفس ...
The author describes the meaning of asma' Allah أسماء الله in accordance with the Khalwatiya خلوتية, those who do not mingle with the people, and in contrast to the Jalwatiya جلوتية, those who concentrate on "notions" (khawatir خواطر) falling into the heart (qalb قلب) as a kind of revelation (injila' انجلاء, inkishaf انكشاف).

The continuation of fol. 3v is on fol. 4r15 and fol. 4r1-4 is a repetition of fol. 3r1-4. Then follows an insertion on fol. 4r4-14. The text on fols. 4v-5 containing the enumeration of God's attributes is incomplete and we find blank interstices. On fols. 6r-7r follows a note (fa'ida فائدة) on al-dhikr الذكر, starting with the phrase naqaltu min kutub al-qawm radiya Allah anhum : adab al-dhikr al-mushar ilayhi ... نقلت من كتب القوم رضي الله عنهم ... on dhikr in the Sufi order of the Khalwatiya → F. de Jong, art. Khalwatiyya in: EI2 IV (1978), p.992.

End (fol. 7r, margin):

ومن طرد عن الذكر فقد عزل من تلك الولاية والله الموفق لا إله غيره ولا ربّ سواه ،

A later hand added on fol. 1r the wrong identification Islah al-sufiyya bi-al-dhikr fi ayy lugha kana lil-Nabulusi إصلاح الصوفية بالذكر في أي لغة كان للنابلسي, apparently misled by the quotation on fols. 1v-2r.

Ms. 79.

16 folios; 14,8×22,4 cm; 17 lines; naskhi. The paper of fols. 1 and 16 is slightly damaged. Hand of the late 13th/19th century.

[2153] fols. 1v-14r: Muhammad al-Zayni al-Hashimi al-Husayni
محمد الزيني الهاشمي الحسيني: Kitab Ma'rab al-yaqin fi maratib al-muqarribin كتاب مأرب اليقين في مراتب المقربين

According to the colophon the author wrote his treatise during the year 1182/1768-9. He is perhaps identical with Muhammad al-Hasani al-Husayni al-Baghdadi al-Najafi al-Zayni محمد الحسنى الحسينى (died 1216/1801) who is mentioned as a poet, commentator of the Koran and adib أديب in Kahhale IX 230.

The author wrote his treatise, a description of the ten degrees (martaba مرتبة) or circles (da'ira دائرة) of man on his way to the nearness (qurb قرب) of God, as an explanation of what Muhammad Nur al-Din محمد نور الدين (not identifiable) has said; al-Zayni understands his treatise to be a contribution to hall uqud fara'id al-dawa'ir حل عقود فرائد الدوائر (1v6) and to hall rumuz al-dawa'ir bi-fayd Allah al-batrin al-zahir al-awwal wa-al-akhir حل رموز الدوائر بفيض الله الباطرين (14r1f.). The terminology is that of the late school of Ibn Arabi ابن العربي. A discussion of different degrees of nearness to God can often be found in later mystical literature; compare, for example, Abd al-Aziz Ibn Abd al-Salam al-Sulami عبد العزيز بن عبد السلام (died 660/1262: → GAL I 431), al-Fawa'id fi ihtisar al-maqasid الفوائد في اختصار المقاصد, Ms. Berlin 3013, fol. 27r (maratib al-qurb مراتب القرب) and already al-Junayd الجنيد (died between A.D. 908 and 910) who distinguished three classes among those who strive for unification with God: → Ali Hassan Abdel-Kader, The Life, Personality, and Writings of Al-Junayd, London 1962 (repr. 1976), Arabic text p. 56/transl. p. 176f.

Our text is divided into three sections:

1) Muqaddima مقدمة (fols. 1v-2v);

2) al-Maqsad المقصد (2v-11r), on the ten circles which can be found in a drawing of concentric circles on fol. 1r.

3) al-Khatama الخاتمة (11r-14r), , a description of the highest degree, the insan al-kamil الإنسان الكامل.

Beginning (after the Basmala):

أما بعد فهذه بطاقة كتبها في حل عقود فرائد ... الحمد لله الذي اختار الإنسان لخلافته وشرفا بين الخلائق
الدوائر الموضوععة في مراتب القرب والبعد بالنسب والنظائر الصادرة من قلم مولانا العبد الصادق ... مير

[2170] fols. 11v-14r: Rashid al-Din al-Watwat al-Khwarizmi رشيد الدين
الوطواط الخوارزمي: Risalat al-Rashid al-Khwarizmi fi al-shakk ala qiyas الرسالة الرشيد رسالة الرشيد
الخوارزمي في الشك على قياس الخلف والأشكال المقتصرة على الكلي والكثير

The author (died 578/1182 in Khwarizm خوارزم) is wellknown as poet and philologist (→ GAL I 275f.; S I 486; EI2 VIII, art. Rashid al-Din al-Watwat). We do not know of any treatise on logic written by him.
The introduction to this treatise is written in an elegant style, in part in rhymed prose. The authorship of Rashid al-Din al-Watwat al-Khwarizmi seems quite possible.

Beginning (after the Basmala):

فقد عرض لمحرر هذا المكتوب : وبعد ... الحمد لله على سوابغ نعمائه ولواحق الآية والصلاة على نبيه النقيه
في تعيين عكس القضية...

End:

ولا يكون العكس صحيحا كما رأيت من الأمثلة في هذه الرسالة والله أعلم بحقائق الأشياء ، تمت الرسالة

[2171] fols. 15v-114v: Ali Ibn Muhammad al-Sayyid al-Sharif al-Jurjani : علي بن محمد السيد الشريف الجرجاني Hashiya ala sharh Qutb al-Din ala al-Shamsiya = Hashiya ala al-Tasawwurat = Kuchak حاشية على شرح قطب كوجك = حاشية على التصورات = الدين على الشمسية

Extensive notes by al-Jurjani (died 816/1413) to Qutb al-Din al-Razi al-Tahtani (died 766/1364), Tahrir al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya (= al-Qutbi) (القطني) , a commentary on Najm al-Din al-Katibi (died 675/1276 or later), al-Risala al-Shamsiya fi al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya (part I = al-Tasawwurat (التصورات); → GAL I 466 I 1a; S I 845 I 1a and description of Ms. 86.

The text is collated. In the margin are many glosses. On a Ms. with glosses to al-Jurjani's notes by Imad al-Din Ibn Yahya al-Farisi عماد الدين بن يحيى الفارسي (Qara Hashiya) → Daiber, Catalogue, no. 204.

[2172] fols. 116v-126r: Mansur منصور: Hashiya ala sharh Qutb al-Din حاشية على شرح قطب الدين

Glosses to Qutb al-Din's commentary on Najm al-Din al-Katibi نجم الدين الرسالة الشمسية في al-Risala al-Shamsiya fi al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya ,الكاتبى (on which → above, fols. 15v-114v).

The author cannot be identified. He seems to refer to the glosses by al-Sharif al-Jurjani : الشريف الجرجاني → sharh al-Qutbiya lil-Risala al-Shamsiya wa-hawashihi al-sharifa (fol. 116v). Therefore, he may have written his glosses to Qutb al-Din al-Razi al-Tahtani ,قطب الدين الرازي التحتاني Tahrir al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya (= al-Qutbi) (القطني) after 816/1413.

Beginning (after the Basmala):

أحمد الله على ما وقفنا للتصديق بمصنّف الرسالة الشمسية الإشراق والسلام على من أشرقها وجمعها ... قال الفقيه نعمان(؟) المشهور بمنصور: يقول إن للمنطق فأقول ..

In the margin are some glosses. The libraries of Berlin and Princeton do not have a comparable text.

Ms. 86.

157 folios; 10×20 cm; 13 lines; Persian nasta'liq. Single words are written in red ink or overlined. Smooth, slightly brownish and slightly spotted paper; fols. 15-18 are somewhat damaged by a small hole and the first folios are slightly stained by water. Original leather binding with frame, slightly damaged. Owner's stamp on fols. 2v, 3r and 156r. [2173] fols. 2v-156r: Najm al-Din Ali Ibn Umar al-Qazwini al-Katibi نجم الدين علي بن عمر القزويني الكاتبي: al-Risala al-Shamsiya fi al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya الرسالة الشمسية في القواعد المنطقية (al-Tasawwurat التصورات); commentary by Muhammad Ibn Qutb al-Din Muhammad al-Razi al-Tahtani محمد بن قطب الدين محمد الرازي التحتاني: Tahrir al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya = al-Qutbi تحرير القواعد المنطقية = القطبي, with glosses by al-Sayyid al-Sharif al-Jurjani السيد الشريف الجرجاني, called al-Kuchak الكوجك. al-Katibi (died 675/1276 or later), al-Risala al-Shamsiya, a short description of logic, was very often commented. The commentary by Qutb al-Din al-Tahtani (died 766/1364) for its part was often glossed.

Those glosses by al-Jurjani (died 816/1413) are available in old editions; → GAL I 466 no. 1/1 and S I 845 no. 1/1.

Ms. 85.

In the margin are a few notes. Our Ms. is identical with the Ms. Berlin 5260; it has an addition at the end like Ms. Berlin 5261/1.

Ms. 87.

8 folios; 12×18,4 cm; 15 lines; Turkish naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Smooth, brownish paper. Cardboard covers, pasted with marbled paper (front cover damaged). Hand of the 12th/18th century.

[2175] After a short fragment on logic in Turkish (fols. 1v-2r1) the Ms. contains:

[2176]2r-7v: Anonymous: A titleless treatise on the four syllogistic figures (ashkal أشكال).

The text begins with the introduction of four code letters as description of the quality and quantity of logical propositions. On a parallel in medieval Latin logic → I.M. Bochenski, Formale Logik (Freiburg/München 21962. = Orbis Academicus III, 2), pp. 244ff. - Fols. 2v-7v contain a description of the four syllogistic figures and their modi; the first figure is missing. [Communication by dr. J. Lameer, Leiden, The Netherlands].

The author refers to a work called al-Mutawwalat (المطولات) (fols. 5r6 and 6r8); this may be the Sharh al-Mutawwal (الشرح المطول) (finished 748/1347) by Sa'd al-Din al-Taftazani (سعد الدين التفتازاني), the "long commentary" on Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Rahman al-Qazwini Khatib Dimashq (محمد بن عبد الرحمن القزويني خطيب دمشق) (died 739/1338), Talkhis al-Miftah (تلخيص المفتاح), an extract from the 3rd part (on rhetoric) of al-Sakkaki (السكاكي) (died 626/1229), Miftah al-ulum (مفتاح العلوم) (→ GAL II 295; S II 516 no.4). If this identification is correct, our text must have been composed after the first half of the 14th century. In any case, it is heavily indebted to Najm al-Din al-Qazwini al-Katibi نجم الدين القزويني الكاتبي (died 675/1276 or later), al-Risala al-Shamsiya fi al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya الرسالة الشمسية في القواعد المنطقية which was commented very often (→ GAL I 466 and S I 845); → the edition published 1323/1905 in Cairo, with the commentary by Qutb al-Din Mahmud Ibn Muhammad al-Razi قطب الدين محمود بن محمد الرازي and the glosses by al-Sharif al-Jurjani الشريف الجرجاني, al-Siyalkuti السيلكوتي, al-Dasuqi الدسوقي, Isam al-Din عصام الدين, Shirbini شربيني, al-Dawwani الدواني and Sa'd al-Din al-Taftazani, part II pp. 302ff./Engl. translation in N. Risalat al-Adab رسالة الآداب with commentary by al-Hasan Pashazade ,الحسن باشازاده, called Fath al-

On al-Kalanbawi (died 1205/1791) and his treatise on the art of disputation (al-adab fi al-munazara (الآداب في المناظرة) → Kahhale II 296.

Brockelmann could not identify the author and mentions him as commentator of several treatises (GAL S II 288, 291, 302; S III 1239 above) and among authors whose lifetime is unknown (S II 1015 no. 18a). However, in GAL S II 302 no.1 Brockelmann mentions the Risalat al-adab with the commentary by Hasan Pashazade and an old edition (Istanbul 1281/1864-5).

Beginning (after the Basmala):

الحمد لله ذي الجلال والاکرام والصلوة على رسوله الملمزم حجته الباهرة على الكفرة ... فيقول العبد القاصر ...

Muhammad Yazdi al-Herewi مظفر الدين محمد يزدي الهروي .

On Iji (died 756/1355) and his semantic treatise on the term wad' → GAL II 208 no. III and S II 288 no. III. The commented text is overlined in red. The author of the commentary is not mentioned in our text. Compare, however, Ms. British Museum (London) 421, no. 12 (mentioned GAL II 208 no. 8); on three more mss. of this unedited commentary → GAL S II 289 no. 8.

The commentator, who is not mentioned in any bio-bibliographical source, seems to have used the commentary by Ali Ibn Muhammad al-Jurjani علي بن محمد الجرجاني (died 816/1413), who begins his commentary with nearly the same words (compare Ms. Princeton 3422 with fols. 2r12f of our Ms.). As a comparison with the mss. Princeton 3422 and Tübingen 63/2 shows, however, our text is much longer and its beginning and end are different:

Beginning (after the Basmala):

نحمدك يا من أفضت علينا ببوالغ الحكم سوابغ النعيم ... وبعد : أيها الحائز لقصة سبق التدقيق عند سباق فرسان التحقيق الفائز بدرك نهاية ... قال العلامة خاتم المحققين عضد الملة والدين : هذه فائدة تشتمل على مقدمة وتقسيم وخاتمة وجه الترتيب ان المذكور فيها إما أن يكون مقصودا أو يتفرع على المقصود ...

Ms. 100.

15 folios; 11×16 cm; 15 lines; small naskhi. Smooth paper, damp-stained (with some loss of text on fols. 9-12). According to fol. 15v copied (harrarahu حرره) by Ahmad Ibn Abi Bakr. Hand of the (late ?) 12th/18th century.

[2190] fols. 1v-15v: Ali Ibn Sulayman al-Mansuri علي بن سليمان المنصوري : Risala fi kayfiyat al-nutq bi-al-dadd. رسالة في كيفية النطق بالضاد.

A treatise on the correct pronunciation and use of the letter Dad.

Author (died 1134/1722; → Kahhale VII 104) and title are not mentioned in the Ms. The identification is proposed by Naphtali Kinberg (Tel Aviv University) in a letter, dated 18 April 1994. He refers to a second Ms. in the Gazi Husrev Library (now destroyed by the Serbs), Sarajevo (former Yugoslavia): s. K. Dobrača, Katalog arapskih, turskih i perzijskih rukopisa. Gazi Husrev-Begovabiblioteka u Sarajevu. Sarajevo 1963, I 98-101, Ms. no.

2626/8 = fols. 74-82. Both mss. have the same hamdala حمدلة and refer to Ali Ibn Ghanim al-Maqdisi al-Hanafi علي بن غانم المقدسي الحنفي (died 1004/1595; → GAL II 312; S II 429), Bughyat al-murtad li-tashih al-dad بغية المرتاد لتصحيح الضاد (fols. 1v). Our author has a very bad opinion of this treatise and even doubts its ascription to Ali Ibn Ghanim al-Maqdisi; he says that he came to know the work by al-Maqdisi, since he already had finished his introduction (muqaddima مقدمة). Our author mentions Abu Hayyan (al-Gharnati) أبو حيان (الغرناطي), Sibawaih سيبويه, Ibn Jinni ابن جني and others. Moreover, he criticizes al-Mar'ashi المرعشي (= Muhammad Ibn Abi Bakr al-Mar'ashi

Sachalqizadeh محمد بن أبي بكر المرعشي ساچقلي زاده, died 1150/1737; →

Kahhale XII 14) and quotes from Mar'ashi's Risala fi kayfiyat ada' al-dadd al-mu'jama رسالة في كيفية أداء الضاد المعجمة (= Sarajevo no. 2626/3) and a treatise on tajwid تجويد, called Juhd al-muqill جهد المقل (on both see Ghanim Quduri al-Hamd غانم قدوري الحمد, al-Dirasat al-sawtiya ind ulama' l-tajwid الدراسات الصوتية عند علماء التجويد, Baghdad 1986).

Our Ms. is different from al-Mansuri's Radd al-ilhad fi al-nutq bi-al-dadd رد الإلحاد في النطق بالضاد (= Sarajevo 2626/10).

Beginning (after the Basmala):

The beginning of the text (still unedited) is identical with Ms. Berlin 7637/4b and differs from the text ascribed to al-Tawzari (التوزري → below). Its authenticity and identity with other texts bearing the same title (→ GAL I 268 no.2; S I 756 no. 70) is not yet clear; on more details →

Ms. 105, fols. 2-197r.

[2200] fol. 45r, 20-28 is an excerpt from al-Buni البوني; fol. 45v is blank; fol. 46r contains a short note on love and fol. 46v a short prayer; the circle on fol. 46v cannot be identified.

On al-Tawzari (died 505/1113 or later) , his Qasida (which sometimes is ascribed to al-Ghazzali الغزالي (compare also the text fol. 45r, 1-19 which is different and the references given above) and on the commentary (still unedited) by Abu Yahya Zakariya' al-Ansari ( died 926/1520) → GAL I 269 2b and S I 474 no. 1b. Beginning and end can be found in the description of Ms. Berlin 7638. In the margin are some glosses.

On the still unpublished commentary (4 mss.) → GAL I 269 no. 2d and S I 474 no. 1d ("al-Busiri البوصري" instead of al-Bosrawi البصري is wrong) ; on al-Tawzari → the preceding text.

[2204] fols. 101r-136v: al-Busiri البوصيري: Qasidat al-Burda قصيدة البردة , with commentary by Zakariya' Ibn Muhammad al-Ansari زكرياء بن محمد الأنصاري (died 926/1520) , called al-Zubad (GAL: al-Zubda) al-ra'iqa fi sharh al-Burda al-fa'iqa الزبد الرائقة في شرح البردة الفائقة.

Ms. 105.

200 folios; 11×16 cm; 14 lines; naskhi. Single words and sentences are written in red ink or overlined in red. Thick, sometimes yellowish paper, in a few cases slightly water-stained. Pasteboard covers with leather frame and spine. Binding repaired. Copied from the author's exemplar by al-Hajj Hasan Ibn Ali Ibn Bara'i al-Tibani al-Khalwati in the middle of Ramadan 1164/7 August 1751 (fols. 197r) .

[2205] fols. 2v-197r: al-Ghazzali الغزالي: al-Qasida al-munfarija القصيدة المنفرجة, with commentary by Ahmad Ibn Yasin أحمد بن يسين , called al-Badr al-mutalali bi-sharh Munfarijat al-Imam al-Ghazzali البدر المتلالي

بشرح منفرجات الإمام الغزالي. The authorship of the commented religious poem is doubtful (→ also Ms. 104, fol. 45r, 1-19) . It starts (as Ms. Berlin 7637, no. 4) : الشدة أودت بالمهج يا ربّ فعجل بالفرج
Brockelmann GAL S I 756 no. 70 mentions some mss. but no commentary. The poem should not be confused with another qasida with the same title and sometimes ascribed to Ghazzali; compare Bouyges, Essai, pp. 134f. no. 218 and (on the differing qasida) p. 148 no. 255. The author of the commentary, Ahmad Ibn Yasin (=Yasin) (=ياسين) cannot be identified. According to the colophon he wrote his extensive commentary during Rajab 1149/November 1736.

Beginning of the commentary (after the Basmala) :

الحمد لله الذي يذكره تفرج الكروب والشدائد وبالالتجاء إليه تزول المحن والمكائد...وبعد فيقول الملتجئ إلى مولاه القوي المتين المدعو بأحمد ابن يسين: هذه لفاظ شريفة رقمتها ومعان لطيفة وضعتها على منفرجة حجة الإسلام الغزالي ... ،

The commented text and the commentary begins on fol. 4r.

End (fol. 196v):

...ونسألك ونتوسل إليك بهم أن تكمل لنا وإخواننا لمسلمين ذلك بمثلك وفضلك العظيم ... ان الحمد لله رب العالمين ،

Other poetic works: → text nos. [2087] (fol.9v) , [2301], [2324], [2350], [2388], [2416], [2418], [2457] and the sections on fiqh, theology and arithmetic.

Ms. 106.

99 folios; 12,5×20 cm; 17 lines; nasta'liq. Single words are written in red ink. Paper slightly water-stained and spotted. Leather covers and flap have a centre-ornament filled with flowers; a similar ornament can be found in Weisweiler, plate 39, illustration no. 62. The inside of the covers is pasted with marbled paper (in part repaired) . Binding repaired. Owner's remark on fol. 98v: Nur Allah Ibn Mustafa. fol. 99r mentions as copyist of an excerpt from Ghazzali's Ihya' ulum al-din "Uskudari Shaykh Mahmud Efendi". Copied 1012/1603-1604.

[2206] Besides some notes and excerpts, mainly from tradition literature (fols. 2r-v and 99r-v) the Ms. contains the following text:

[2207] fols. 3v-98v: Abu Hafs Umar Ibn Abi al-Hasan (Brockelmann: Husayn) al-Nisaburi al-Samarqandi أبو حفص عمر بن أبي الحسن النيسابوري السمرقندي رونق المجالس Rawnaq al-majalis : A collection of moral tales (hikayat حكايات) on the Prophet and his contemporaries, on Sufis and saints, originally written in Persian and translated into Arabic by Isa Ibn Abi Sa'id Ibn al-Amin al-Nisaburi عيسى بن أبي سعيد بن الأمين النيسابوري .

On the contents → Ahlwardt's description of Ms. Berlin no. 8855. As the Berlin manuscript was copied in approximately 900/1494, Brockelmann (GAL S II 285 no. 4b) assumed the 9th/15th century as lifetime of the author. Isma'il Pasha al-Baghdadi إسماعيل باشا البغدادي , Hadiya هدية , col. 793 mentions the year 840/1436-37 (taken over by Zirikli VII 282) . Other mss. on narratives: → text nos. Geography.

Ms. 107.

6 folios; 15,2×20,6 cm; 22 lines; regular naskhi. Slightly water-stained paper with watermark (star with half-moon on fols. 1 and crown on fol. 6) . According to an additional note by a different hand on fol. 5v, the Ms. was copied (kutiba) during Jumada II 1093/June 1682.

[2208] fols. 1r-5v: Anonymous: Kitab Fada'il al-quds al-sharif كتاب فضائل القدس الشريف.

The text begins without Basmala:

قال رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم : لا تشدّ الرجال إلا إلى ثلاثة مساجد : مسجد الحرام ومسجد الرسول والمسجد الأقصى ، صدق رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم أي لا تشدّ ... ،

End:

... الذين أنعمت عليهم غير المغضوب عليهم ولا الضالين آمين ، يا آله العالمين ويا خير الناصرين برحمتك يا أرحم الراحمين ، تمّ ،

The text often refers to traditions about the Prophet and his ashab and tabi'un تابعون, but does not quote any sources which could offer a terminus post quem. The text seems to be collated (one correcting addition of a homoioteleuton is in the margin of fol. 4v) .

Our Ms. is one of the few texts on fada'il al-quds, on the excellences of Jerusalem. Other examples are Abu Bakr al-Wasiti (أبو بكر الواسطي) (5th/11th century) , Fada'il al-bayt al-Maqdis (فضائل البيت المقدس) (ed. Ishaq Hasun إسحاق حسون, Jerusalem 1979) and Ibn al-Jawzi (ابن الجوزي) (died 597/1201) , Fada'il al-quds (فضائل القدس) (ed. Jibra'il Sulayman Jubur جبرائيل سليمان جبور, Beirut 1979) . Other examples are mss. Berlin 6098-6104. On the origin and development of the fada'il-literature → R. Sellheim, art. Fadila (فضيلة) in EI2 II (1965) and Ernst August Gruber, Verdienst und Rang. Die Fada'il (فضائل) als literarisches und gesellschaftliches Problem im Islam (Freiburg/Br. 1975 = Islamkundliche Untersuchungen 35) , esp. pp. 68ff.

The book was often commented (→ GAS I 156-159) ; the notes and glosses in the margin of our Ms. may in part be derived from these commentaries.

Ms. 109.

On the author (died 1038/1628) and this biography of the prophet Muhammad → GAL II 445 and S II 661 (6 mss.) . The biography is strongly influenced by the legendary picture of the prophet as developed in Islamic mysticism since Abd al-Qadir al-Jilani عبد القادر الجيلاني (died 561/1166) and Ibn Arabi ابن العربي (died 638/1240) . An analysis of the still unedited text may add to our knowledge of the prophet as an ideal figure; → Andrae pp. 164ff.

The text consists of numerous chapters (bab باب) and sections (fasl فصل) and begins with the middle of section one = Ms. Leiden Or. 2638 (CCA 1093) , fols. 3r, 13.

The author of the text cannot be identified. As the qasida is written in praise of Özdemir Uthman Pasha أوزدمر عثمان باشا, who died as Grand Vizier on 29 October 1585 (5 Dhu al-Qa'da 993) , and as the Ottoman historian Mehmed Pasha (مصطفى باشا) (called Asafi (أصفي) finished in 994 or 995 his history of Özdemir's adventurous career in rhymed prose (→ Franz Babinger, Die Geschichtsschreiber der Osmanen und ihre Werke, Leipzig 1927, p. 117) , our text may be a fragment of this work; Babinger (p.117 note 2) mentions some more, anonymous works, which may contain our text; of them, the Shifa' al-qulub wa-liqa' al-mahbub شفاء القلوب ولقاء المحبوب does not contain our qasida; → Ms. Leiden Or. 801 Warn. described by M.J. de Goeje, Catalogus codicum orientalium Bibliothecae Academiae Lugduno-Bataviae V, Lugduni Batavorum 1874, p. 233.

214 folios; 14x21 cm; 12-14 lines; naskhi. Single words are written or overlined in red ink. Yellowish thin paper, in part water-stained and spotted. Red leather covers with centre-ornament filled with flowers. Binding repaired. Hand of the 11th/17th century; fols. 207r mentions Muhammad Nasir Ibn Shah Husayn al-Sayyaf al-Tibrizi and the year 1062/1652. The title can be found on fol. 1v. The text appears to be an Arabic adaption of different Hippocratic texts, among them Hippocrates' Regimen in Acute Diseases (al-Amrad al-hadda الأمراض الحادة, on which → GAS III 33) . As in the text on fols. 108v-113v we should not expect to detect a new Hippocratic text. A similar result was obtained by Manfred Ullmann in his research on the Arabic transmission of medical texts ascribed to Galen: → Ullmann, Die Schrift des Rufus von Ephesos (→ below, description of fols. 210v-211v) , pp.14f.

The book starts with a chapter on headache (al-suda' الصداع, fols. 6r-9v) and continues with chapters on al-ilal al-barida fi al-ra's ka-al-sar' wa-al-falij wa-al-laqwa wa-al-tashannuj al-hadith baghtatan wa-al-ri'sha wa-al-sakta wa-nahwiha العلل الباردة في الرأس كالصرع والفالج واللقوة (9v-14r) ; awja' al-ayn (أوجاع العين 14r-v) ; al-ru'af (الرعاف 14v-15r) ; ilal al-fam al-harra (علل الفم الحارة 15r-16r) ; al-zukam wa-al-nazla (الزكام والنزلة 16r-17r) ; al-su'al wa-khushunat al-sadr (السعال وخشونة الصدر 17r-19r) ; nafth al-dam (نفث الدم 19v-20r) ; al-sill (السل 20r-21v) ; dhat al-janb (ذات الجنب 21v-22v) ; al-khafaqan (الخفقان 22v-23r) ; qillat al-laban (قلة اللبن 23r-24r) ; ilal al-ma'ida (علل المعدة 24r-26r) ; al-atah (العطش 26r-v) ; ilal al-kabd (علل الكبد 26v-28r) ; al-tihal (الطحال 28r-v) ; al-istisqa' (الاستسقاء 28v-

A collection of practical medical advices addressed to the reader in the 2nd person plural. The text apparently belongs to those late texts which were written by an Arabic compiler on the basis of some knowledge of Hippocratic-Galenic medicine (compare also above fols. 4v-53v) ; it is different from the Arabic ps.-Hippocratic wasiya-literature (on which → below fols. 152v-154v) . The title cannot be found in any list of Hippocratic writings: → Gerhard Fichtner, Corpus Hippocraticum. Beginning (after the Basmala and the title) :

قال : رأيت الناس يغفلون عن الطبّ والأطباء إلا عند حال العلة ووجدنا مداواة الصحيح في المطعم والمشرب أخفّ من معالجة السقيم ، اعلموا رحمكم الله أنّ ثلاثة أشياء تنقص من عمر الناس : دخول الحمام على الشبع والجماع على الامتلاء وكثرة أكل القديد ..

Our text is taken from the 10th and last chapter and can be found (with divergences) in the edition by Mahdi Mohaghegh and M.T. Daneshpajuh (Teheran 1989) , pp. 108, 18-154, 12.

[2221] fols. 152v-154v: Wasaya وصايا, ascribed to Hippocrates.

Similar to the text on fols. 108v-113v, these admonitions are not based on a translation of a Greek text written by Hippocrates; they show typical Islamic features (→ the beginning below) . The Arabic compiler may have been inspired by the Old Islamic wasaya-literature on which → Albert Dietrich, Das politische Testament des zweiten 'Abbasidenkalifen al-Mansur, in: Der Islam 30, Berlin 1952, pp. 133-165; at the same time he may have used some Hippocratic texts like the Hippocratic Oath (Horkos; → on its Arabic translation GAS III 28 I) , the Nomos (namus ناموس; → GAS III 38f. no. 11) or the Diatheke (= Wasiya وصية) by Hippocrates (→ GAS III 39 no. 12a) ; the Diatheke is preserved in two different Greek versions, → Karl Deichgräber, Medicus Gratosus.

bearing the title Wasaya fi al-tibb وصايا في الطب and mentioned in GAS III 39 no. 12d as a Hippocratic text. Our text is different from those wasaya mentioned in GAS III 39 no. 12.

It may be interesting to note that the ps.-Hippocratic wasaya-literature at least in part was already available in the 4th/10th century: the wasaya-text mentioned GAS III 39 no. 12d is already reproduced (with some divergences) in Ali Ibn al-Abbas al-Majusi علي بن العباس المجوسي , Kamil al-sina'a al-tibbiya = al-Kitab al-Malaki كامل الصناعة الطبية (on this work → GAS III 320-2; Ullmann, Medizin 140ff.) ; compare the edition Bulaq 1294/1877 I 8,7ff. with the Wasaya ascribed to Hippocrates in Ms. Irak Museum 1370, p. 1, 2ff. and Ms. Mosul, al-Madrassa al-Ahmadiya المدرسة الأحمدية no. 152, fol. 88v36ff.

[2222] fols. 154v-167r: Jumal wa-jawami' al-Iskandar fi ta'arruf al-mizaj .
جمال وجوامع الإسكندر في تعرف المزاج

According to the list of titles on fols. 1v, the text is taken from Hippocrates (min kalam Abuqrat (من كلام أبقراط). In the text itself (fol. 154v2) , in an addition above the line the copyist has attributed the work to "al-Iskandar الإسكندر".

This may be interpreted as an indication that the text is a summary made by the Alexandrians. GAS III 140ff. mentions the Summaria Alexandrinorum of Galen (a summary of 16 Galenic works made in the 6th century) ; but the Summaria of Galen's De temperamentis (Peri kraseōs = ed. Kühn I, Leipzig 1821 [repr. Hildesheim 1964], pp. 509-694) , the Jawami' al-mizaj (جوامع المزاج) of which several manuscripts are preserved (→ GAS III 147f.) are different from our text: → Dietrich, Medicinalia 36 (description of Ms. Manisa, Kitapsaray 1759, fols. 166r-192v) . Our text may be an independent Arabic adaption of Galenic themes.

The commentaries and summaries mentioned in GAS III 87f. and in Gerhard Fichtner, Corpus Galenicum. Verzeichnis der galenischen und pseudogalenischen Schriften (Tübingen 1987) , no. 9, are different from those in our text, which in addition has no relationship to the redactions by Ibn Rushd (ابن رشد), the Talkhis Kitab al-Mizaj (تلخيص كتاب المزاج, ed. [2226] fols. 173r-182v: Anonymous medical treatise which on fol. 1v is mentioned as Risala min Buqrat (= Hippocrates) fi madarr al-sharab wa-bayan awja' al-mafasil wa-al-niqris wa-mu'alajatiha رسالة أوجاع المفاصل والنفرس ومعالجاتها . The text is different from al-Razi (died 313/925) , Awja' al-mafasil and id., Awja' al-niqris = Risala fi al-niqris wa-mudawatiha = أوجاع النفرس = رسالة في النفرس ومداواتها (mentioned GAS III 288 nos. 27 and 28) and may be an adaption of Hippocratic-Galenic themes discussed in several texts.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

الحمد لله ربّ العالمين والصلوة على نبيينا محمد وآله أجمعين ، إنّ الله تبارك وتعالى لما خلق الحيوانات مختلفة الأمزجة والطباع لم يجعل أغذيتهم من جنس واحد لأنّ الغذاء الواحد لا يجانس أمزجة شتى ،

End:

[2227] fols. 182v-197r: Abu Ishaq Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad Ghadanfar al-Tibrizi : Hasil al-Masa'il أبو إسحق إبراهيم بن محمد غضنفر التبريزي حاصل المسائل . A summary of Hunayn Ibn Ishaq (died 260/873) , al-Masa'il fi al-tibb . The author of this summary of Hunayn's collection of medical answers and questions cannot be identified. Two more mss. are mentioned in GAS III 251, "Auszüge" b; one of them is dated 858/1454 and may serve as terminus ante quem. On Hunayn's Masa'il fi al-tibb → GAS III 249ff.; Ullmann, Medizin 118;346; id., Natur- und Geheimwissenschaften 458; Dietrich, Medicinalia, pp. 39ff.; the text is edited by Jalal Muhammad Musa جلال محمد موسى

(Cairo 1978) ; an English translation by Paul Ghalioungi was published in 1980 in Cairo (Questions on Medicine for Scholars by Hunayn Ibn Ishaq) .

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

قال مولانا أفضل المتأخرين فخر الحقّ والدين أبو إسحق إبراهيم بن محمد المعروف بغضنفر التبريزي – أنار الله لما فرغت من اختصار الموسوم بمسائل حنين وتجريده عن الزوائد من غير تغيير : برهانه وأسكنه جنانه وتصرف في ترتيبه ومعانيه فوجدت...

[2228] fols. 197r-198v: Hubaysh حبيش : al-Qawl fima awradahu min lawazim al-umur al-tabi'iyah الطبيعىة .

On the medical works by Hubaysh (died at the end of the 3rd/9th century) , a nephew of the famous translator Hunayn حنين , → GAS III 265f. and Ullmann, Medizin, p. 119. Our text is nowhere mentioned, perhaps because it is not an elaborate treatise and a summarizing survey on the different phases of life and external appearances of man and their dependence upon the four (Galenic) humours, including a short discussion of those factors which affect them. The text confirms the acquaintance of Hubaysh with ophthalmology and does not seem to be derived from the medical texts known to have been written by Hubaysh. It may be worthwhile to compare the (still unpublished) Ziyadat زيادات , an appendix to Hunayn, al-Masa'il fi al-tibb المسائل في الطب (on which → above fols. 182v-197r) ; on the Ziyadat → Ullmann, Medizin, p. 118 (note 5) . In addition to the information given by Ullmann, we can mention a Syriac version of the Ziyadat in Ms. Mingana (Birmingham) 589 F, fols. 35r-112r (→ A. Mingana, Catalogue of the Mingana Collection of Manuscripts I: Syriac and Garshuni Manuscripts. Cambridge 1933, 1126f.) .

Beginning:

: القول فيما أورده حبيش من لوازم الأمور الطبيعىة وهو الأسنان والألوان والسحنات والأجناس فالأسنان أربعة

سنّ النمو إلى نحو من ثلاثين سنة دموية ثم سنّ الشباب...

End (fol.198r9ff.) :

وجعل الدماغ باردا رطبا لئلا يلتهب ويجفّ عن كثرة الحركات وليمكن الفكر وسهولة الانطباع والله أعلم وأحكم ، فهذه جمل وضوابط سهلة التحفظ نافعة جدًا... فمن بدّله بعد ما سمعه فقد تعرض نفسه من الآفة بما بعده والسلام ، على من اتبع الهدى ،

[2229] fols. 198v-200r: Anonymous: Kalam fi bayan al-tu'um wa-kayfiyatiha . كلام في بيان الطعوم وكيفياتها .

End:

لأنه لكثافة مادته يكون زمان البسط الذي هو سبب اللذة أكثر من زمان الدسومة والله أعلم ، تم ،

Unfortunately we cannot compare the treatise with two other texts on the same theme which both are lost, i.e. the Kalam fi al-tu'um كلام ascribed to Galen (→ GAS III 131 no. 125) and the Kitab fi ikhtilaf al-tu'um by Hunayn حنين (→ GAS III 256) .

[2230] fols. 200r-201v: Anonymous: A note on ma'jun ruh al-arwah معجون روح الأرواح . The text is different from Abu al-Barakat al-Baghdadi's أبو البركات البغدادي description of the antidote called amir al-arwah أمير الأرواح (→ beginning and end of Ms. Konya, Yusuf Aga 4983, fols. 157b-159a in Dietrich, Medicinalia 230) and can not be found in al-Qalanisi القلانسي (wrote 590/1194; → Ullmann, Medizin 307) , Kitab al-Aqrabadhin كتاب الأقرباديين , ed. Muhammad Zuhayr al-Baba محمد زهير البابا (Aleppo 1983) , pp. 56-86.

[2231] fols. 201v-202v: Anonymous: Risala fi alamat al-amzija wa-dhikr i'tiqadat al-atibba' fi al-mu'alajat wa-ashab al-qiyas wa-al-tajriba wa-al-hiyal رسالة في علامات الأمزجة وذكر اعتقادات الأطباء في المعالجات وأصحاب القياس والتجربة والحيل .

The title can only be found on fol. 1v. The author gives a survey of the opinions on the Galenic temperaments held by analogists (ashab al-qiyas أصحاب القياس) , empiricists (ashab al-tajarib أصحاب التجارب) and methodists (ashab al-hiyal أصحاب الحيل).

In this tripartition of doctrines the author follows Galen's Peri hairéseōn tois eisagoménois (ed. Kühn I 64-105) in the translation of Hunayn Ibn Ishaq حنين بن إسحق : Firaq al-tibb lil-muta'allimin = Kitab Arasis فرق الطب للمتعلمين = كتاب أراسيس (→ GAS III 79f.) ed. Muhammad Salim Salim محمد سليم سالم (Cairo 1977) pp. 16ff., 23ff. and 44ff. The text seems to have been compiled by an Arabic author who used the available Arabic translation of Galen.

Beginning (without Basmala and title) :

End:

لأن أصحاب التجارب لا يتجاوزون حواسهم وعلوم الحس يسيرة جدًا إذا أضيفت إلى علوم العقل ،

[2232] fol. 203r: Anonymous: A short note on ma' al-lahm al-ma'mul ماء اللحم المعمول .

The text is perhaps a fragment from Galen's lost work Peri paramythías which in the 9th century had been translated into Syriac by Ayyub al-Ruhawi أيوب الرحاوي and Hunayn Ibn Ishaq and into Arabic by Hubaysh حبيش → Hunayn Ibn Ishaq's letter to Ali Ibn Yahya بن يحيى on the translations of Galen's works ed. G. Bergsträsser, Hunayn Ibn Ishaq über die syrischen und arabischen Galen-Übersetzungen (Leipzig 1925 = AKM 17/2) , p. 49, 14/German translation p.40 = ed. Abd al-Rahman Badawi عبد الرحمن بدوي, Dirasat wa-nusus fi al-falsafa wa-al-ulum ind al-Arab دراسة Dirasat wa-nusus fi al-falsafa wa-al-ulum ind al-Arab (Beirut 1981) , p. 177, 6: Kitab fi sarf al-ightimam كتاب في صرف الاغتمام. The text is apparently also mentioned in Ibn Abi Usaybi'a ابن أبي أصيبعة (as above on 143v-146r) ed. Müller 84, ult. ss. with the title Kitab fi naby al-ghamm كتاب في نفي الغم; compare Moritz Steinschneider, Die arabischen Übersetzungen aus dem Griechischen (Graz 1960) p. 352f. and GAS III 69. Our Ms. mentions Hunayn and not Hubaysh (the nephew and pupil of Hunayn) as translator; this may be due to a confusion and wrong attribution. In this case, it would be helpful to compare Hubaysh, Kitab al-Aqrabadhin كتاب الأقرابادين which unfortunately is lost, but quoted by Razi الرازي, Kitab al-Hawi كتاب الحاوي → GAS III 266 and Ullmann, Medizin, p. 302. al-Qalanisi القلانسي, Kitab al-Aqrabadhin كتاب الأقرابادين, ed. Muhammad Zuhayr al-Baba محمد زهير البابا (Aleppo 1983) does not contain an identical lemma; some similarities can be found in the entries on mufrih (translation of anushdaru أنوشدارو) on which → Irene Fellmann, Das Aqrabadhin al Qalanisi (Beirut-Wiesbaden 1986. = BTS 35) pp. 246f.

Beginning:

author of the text and also the copyist of the whole Ms.?

A second Ms. of this description of an Indian antidote with an Aramaic name is Konya, Yusuf Aga 4983 (copied 723/1323) , fols. 154v-157r. According to Dietrich, Medicinalia 228 the Konya Ms. is perhaps an extract from Abu al-Barakat al-Baghdadi (died after 560/1165) , Barsha'tha al-mujarrab برشعنا المجرب, Ms. Ayasofya 3555. Our Ms. seems to contain only the beginning, perhaps one third of the original.

[2237] fols. 208r-209r: Ibn al-Baytar ابن البيطار, al-Jami' li-mufradat al-adwiya wa-al-aghdhia الجامع لمفردات الأدوية والأغذية, a fragment.

On Ibn al-Baytar (died 646/1248) → Ullmann, Medizin, pp. 280-282.

Our Ms. has the lemma on duhn al-ajur (دهن الأجر "olive oil") which is longer than the text of the edition (II, Bulaq 1291/1874, pp. 109f.) : the passage fols. 208r4 (wa-huwa harr وهو حار - 209r, ult. is not in the edition; the text fols. 209v1 (Min hash'a'ish Ibn al-Baytar من حشائش ابن البيطار - 210v7 = ed. Bulaq II pp. 109, 31-110, 16. In the printed text follows a passage on the quality (sifaصفة) of duhn al-ajur (110, 16-28) which is not in our ms.

[2238] fols. 210v-211v: Rufus روفس, A note on thum ثوم ("garlic") , with anonymous commentary. On Rufus (2nd half of the 1st century A.D.) and his medical works, of which many survived only in Arabic translation → GAS III 64ff.; Ullmann, Medizin, pp. 71ff.; id., Die arabische Überlieferung der Werke des Rufus van Ephesos, in: Proceedings of the 1st International Symposium for the History of Arabic Science II (Aleppo 1979) , p. 348-357. Ullmann has edited several texts by Rufus: → Rufus von Ephesos, Krankenjournal, Wiesbaden 1978; → Die Schrift des Rufus von Ephesos über die Gelbsucht in arabischer und lateinischer Übersetzung. Göttingen 1983 (= Abhandlungen der Akademie der Wissenschaften in Göttingen, Philol.-hist. Kl. 3.F. no. 138) . Our text is different from Ibn al-Baytar ابن البيطار , al-Jami' الجامع (→ on 208r-209r) I 152, 17ff.. Its beginning (qala Rufus - al-kulli الكلي – قال روفس) seems to be derived from Razi الرازي (Rhazes; died 311/923 or 320/932; → Ullmann, Medizin 128ff.; GAS III 274ff.) , al-Hawi في الحاوي في الطب (Hyderabad 1955ff.) XX p. 217, 6 = French translation in Ch. Daremberg/Ch.-É. Ruelle, Oeuvres de Rufus d'Éphèse (Paris 1879) II 534 no. 406 (the Rufus-quotation in Razi is longer) . Our Ms. has added a long commentary introduced by fa-innahu ya'ni فإنه يعني .

Beginning:

إنّ الثوم يضرّ بالرأس والعين والرئة والكلي ، فإنه يعني به أنّ هذه الأعضاء متى كان زائلا عن : قال روفس الاعتدال إلى الحرارة أو إلى اليبس أو إلى الحرارة واليبس معا فإن الثوم يضرّها ، والثوم غذاء ودواء كثير المنافع وهو بنفسه ترياق وينفع من جميع ما ينفع منه الترياق الكبير المسمى الفاروق والبرّي منه المسمى سقوريديون...

End:

وجملة القول في الثوم إنه خلف من كل دواء حار ولا خلف منه ،

Arabic references to thum can be found in A. Dietrich, Dioscurides Triumphans II, Göttingen 1988 (= Abhandlungen der Akademie der Wissenschaften, Philol.-hist. Kl., 3.F. no. 173) , p. 298f.

As the list of quoted texts shows, the youngest author is Razi الرازي; he is quoted more than the other authors. Razi offers us a terminus post quem for the composition of our text. Perhaps a comparison with the unpublished Rasa'il al-tibbiya رسائل الطبية (= al-Kunnash الكناش) by Abu Sahl Bishr أبو سهل بشر بن يعقوب بن إسحاق المتطبب al-Sijzi السجزي from the 2nd half of the 4th/10th century (→ GAS III 325f.) could be helpful: according to the excerpts given in Dietrich, Medicinalia, pp. 66-68, Abu Sahl al-Sijzi's Rasa'il al-tibbiya mostly quotes the same authors, whose names are given in an identical manner. The work consists of 4 maqalat مقالات, of which the first maqala مقالة discusses (in 11 rasa'il رسائل) the diseases and their remedies from the head to the stomach.

On the author (died 1008/1599) and this small and still unedited medical handbook → GAL II 364 no. 3 and S II 492 no.3. An enumeration of the chapters as well as beginning and end can be found in the description of Ms. Berlin 6321.

[2245] fols. 148v1-12: Fa'ida fi alamat al-mawt , فائدة في علامات الموت , a fragment from Abu Yusuf al-Kindi : أبو يوسف الكندي : Jawami' al-tibb جوامع الطب.

Among the medical works by al-Kindi (died shortly after 256/870) who mainly became known as a philosopher, a book called Jawami' al-tibb ("Summaria on medicine") is not mentioned; → GAS III 244-247. The small text is published by Gerrit Bos in: Zeitschrift für Geschichte der arabisch-islamischen Wissenschaften 6, Frankfurt 1990 (1991) , pp. 190-194: A Recovered Fragment on the Signs of Death from Al-Kindi's "Medical Summaries". His study shows that the text is based on an old translation (not by Hunayn Ibn Ishaq حنين بن إسحق , who is mentioned in GAS III 32) of Hippocrates' Prognostikon and includes some additional observations by Kindi.

[2246] fols. 148v13-149v: Anonymous: Dhikr ba'd ma'ajin mashhura azimat al-nafl in sha'a Allah ta'ala ذكر بعض معاجين مشهورة عظيمة

Ms. 116.

162 folios; 12 lines; naskhi, in a few cases vocalized. Single words are written in red ink. Smooth, brownish paper, water-stained and in a few cases spotted. The paper of fols. 1-3 and 60-162 is repaired (sporadic with some loss of the text) . Original leather binding, made from one piece; slightly damaged and rubbed. Covers with a double frame and with a centre-ornament, with an additional ornament above and below it. Owner's stamps and remarks: Muhammad Ishaq (rest illegible) and the year 1272/1855-6 (fol.1r) ; Abd Allah (?) [2248] fols. 1v-162r: Ali Ibn Isa علي بن عيسى: Tadhkirat al-kahhalin تذكرة الكحالين.

A copy of the famous textbook on ophtalmology by Ali Ibn Isa, a Christian physician in Baghdad (died after 400/1010) . A German translation was published by Julius Hirschberg and Julius Lippert: Ali Ibn Isa, Erinnerungsbuch für Augenärzte. = Die arabischen Augenärzte I, Leipzig 1904. An English translation was published by C.A. Wood: Memorandum of a tenth-century oculist for the use of modern ophtalmology, Chicago 1936. The Arabic text was published in 1383/1964 in Hyderabad by al-Sayyid Ghawth Muhi al-Din al-Qadir al-Sharafi السيد غوث محي الدين القادر الشرفي.

The text was translated in the Middle Ages into Latin (perhaps by Gerard of Cremona) and into Hebrew and could not be replaced by a better work until the beginning of the 18th century; → E.

Hand of the early 12th/17-18th century.

On Ibn al-Ha'im (died 815/1412) and his introduction into arithmetic (edited by Khudayr Abbas Muhammad Khalifa al-Munshidawi (خضير عباس محمد خليفة المنشادوي, Baghdad 1989) , of which the author himself wrote this summary, called al-Wasila, → GAL II 126 no.7 and S II 155 no.7; ib. no. 7b mentions 4 mss. of the commentary by Sibṭ al-Maridīnī (سبط المارديني (died 912/1506; → GAL II 167; S II 215) who - as can be seen in our Ms. -wrote a commentary on the summary and not on the long version called al-Ma'una. In the margin are a few notes. The text is incomplete at the end.

Ms. 118.

17 folios; 15×20,7 cm; 17-21 lines; naskhi; fols. 4ff. and 9ff. are written by a different hand. Single words are written in red ink or overlined in black. Smooth paper. Hand of the 12th/18th century.

On the author (died 815/1412) and this still unedited treatise on arithmetic → GAL II 125 no.2 and S II 154 no.2. The end differs from Ms. Berlin 5986 and 5987 and is as follows: ومن رام التبحر في التصرف في المجهول بالأعداد المتناسلة فعليه بالمعونة التي فاقت كثير هذا الفن قاطبة ، والله الحمد أولاً وآخراً وظاهراً وباطناً والحمد لله وصلى الله على سيدنا محمد وعلى آله وصحبه وسلم والله أعلم ،

After fols. 8v seems to be a lacuna and as the end differs from the Berlin mss., it is possible that the text following fol. 8v does not belong to the preceding.

Ms. 119.

26 folios; 10,8×15,3 cm; 15 lines; clearly written naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Brownish, spotted and water-stained paper. Hand of the 11th/17th century.

On Ibn al-Ha'im (died 815/1412) and his poem about algebra in 60 verses and on the commentary by al-Ansari (died 916/1511) → GAL II 125 no. 3c; S II 155 no. 3c and on al-Ansari → GAL II 99; S II 117. Three more copies are Mingana 955 (1661) ; 1891 (1287) and 1892 (752 II) . The texts are still unedited. The commented text is written in red ink.

Beginning:

قال سيدنا ومولانا ... أبو يحيى زكريا الأنصاري : بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم ، الحمد لله الذي جبر قلوب العلماء بامتداد حذره المتين ، ... قال الناظم رحمه الله تعالى بحمد إلهي تعالى لا بغيره أبدئ ما أحول أي ما أطلبه لحيلة ..

The Ms. is incomplete at the end (perhaps one folio is missing) .

Ms. 120.

42 folios; 16,5×21,8 cm; 21 lines; irregular naskhi. Single words and sentences are written in red ink. Yellowish paper. Modern cardboard binding. According to a remark on fol. 1r, the owner of the Ms. was Muhammad Ibn Yahya al-Taji who copied the text for his own use (li-nafsihi) during Ramadan 1135/June 1723. Later owners are Muhammad Hibat Allah and (according to a note by a modern hand) Ibrahim Ibn Isma'il Ibn Siddiq Ibn Hasan Ibn Arabi al-Ya'qubi al-Maghribi al-Hasani.

(الحنفي المصري) . He wrote a commentary on Ibn al-Ha'im (died 815/1412) , Nuzhat al-hussab, which in fact is a summary, made by Ibn al-Ha'im himself, of his Murshidat al-talib ila asna al-matalib = مرشدة الطالب إلى أسنى المطالب = المرشدة في صناعة الغبار, on arithmetic. On the still unedited texts → GAL S II 154 no. 1, "Abkürzungen" a, "Commentare" d (mentions one Ms.) . A survey of the contents of the commented text can be found in the description of Ms. Berlin 5979.

Ms. 121.

51 folios; 15,2×21,5 cm; 25-30 lines; clearly written naskhi. Single words and sentences are written in red ink; fols. 49 and 51 are copied by a later hand in ruq'a-script. Black cloth binding with red leather spine and flap connected with the cover by a red leather stripe. Hand of the 12th/18th century (with the exception of fols. 49 and 51) .

[2253] fols. 1r-51v: Ibn al-Ha'im (ابن الهائم): Nuzhat al-nuzzar fi ilm al-ghubar , نزهة النظار في علم الغبار, also called Nuzhat al-hussab (al-ahbab) fi ilm (ta'rif) al-hisab , نزهة الحساب (الأحباب) في علم (تعريف) الحساب (شرح) by Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Muhammad al-Ghazzi Shihab al-Din (أحمد بن محمد بن محمد الغزي شهاب الدين). On Ibn al-Ha'im (died 815/1412) and his Nuzhat al-nuzzar, an abridgement by the author of his introduction to arithmetic, the Murshidat al-talib ila asna al-matalib , مرشدة الطالب إلى أسنى المطالب → GAL II 125 and S II 154. The author of the commentary (completed 18 Sha'ban 947/18 December 1540) , al-Ghazzi Shihab al-Din (died 983/1575) is not mentioned in our Ms.; he can be identified by a comparison with Ms. Berlin 5982 (→ the description by Ahlwardt) . The Berlin Ms. no. 5982 (in fact two copies) is mentioned by Brockelmann (GAL II 125 no. 1c) wrongly as a commentary on Ibn al-Ha'im, Murshidat al-talib. The commentary by Ghazzi is mentioned by Brockelmann only in a supplementary note in GAL S III 1258, l. 33f.; he refers to the Garrett collection (Princeton) : → the Catalogue by Mach, no. 4807 (lists 5 mss.) . The mentioned texts are still unedited. Our Ms. is incomplete at the beginning; according to a later note on the inside of the front cover 3 folios are missing.

On the author (died 1030/1621) and this introduction to arithmetic which was commented many times → GAL II 415 no. 8 and S II 595 no. 8. A new edition was published in 1976 in Aleppo by Jalal S.A. al-Chilli wrote his commentary on difficult places in Baha' al-Din al-Amili (died 1030/1621) , Khulasat al-hisab (a compendium of arithmetic) in the 11th/17th century. Further mss. of this still unedited commentary: → GAL S II 596f. and Princeton no. 4827. On the Khulasat al-hisab by al-Amili → preceding Ms. The title of the commentary can be found in Ms. Princeton 4872. The colophon has the title: Nubdhat al-ajza' al-munabbiha (?) ila (?) kathrat al-ikhwan نبذة الأجزاء المنبهاة (؟) إلى (؟) كثرة الإخوان .

[2258] fols. 33v-34v: Fragment of a commentary on a mystical work, discussing ruh روح. The author refers a.o. to Shihab al-Din al-Suhrawardi شهاب الدين السهروردي (born 539/1145), Kitab Awarif al-ma'arif (→ GAL S I 789) , who can be used as terminus post quem.

A treatise on seven preconditions for the appearance of rainbows. The author mainly follows Aristotle's theory of visual rays and reflections; → Aristotle, Meteorology III 4-5 and H. Daiber, Ein Kompendium der aristotelischen Meteorologie in der Fassung des Hunayn Ibn Ishaq حنين بن إسحق, Amsterdam-Oxford 1975, p. 90f. - The text is published by L. Cheikho (al-Mashriq المشرق 15, Beirut 1912, pp. 736ff.) and translated into German by E. Wiedemann, Gesammelte Schriften zur arabisch-islamischen Wissenschaftsgeschichte II (ed. by D. Girke and D. Bischoff) , Frankfurt/M. 1984, pp. 746-748. Nearly the same text is al-Qazwini القزويني (died 610/1213) , Aja'ib al-makhlūqat عجائب المخلوقات ed. Faruq Sa'd فاروق سعد (Beirut 1978) pp. 144, 20-145, 15. al-Qazwini, however, offers the seven preconditions slightly summarized to four preconditions and mentions as source "al-Qadi Umar Ibn Sahlan al-Munawi القاضي عمر بن سهلان المناوي = Zayn al-Din Umar Ibn Sahlan al-Sawi زين الدين عمر بن سهلان الساوي (al-Sawaji الساجي; → GAL S I 830f.) , who wrote for the Sultan Sanjar Ibn Malikshah سنجر بن ملكشاه (511-552/1117-1157) a Persian meteorology entitled al-Risala al-Sanjariya fi al-ka'inat al-unsuriya (الرسالة السنجرية في الكائنات العنصرية ed. Muhammad Taqi Daneshpajuh, Du risala dar bara-i athar-i ulwi, Teheran 1337/1958, pp. 1-56). The section on the rainbow (ed. Daneshpajuh 23-27) corresponds with al-Qazwini, not with our Arabic Ms. which is perhaps part of an older, longer source, which also was used by al-Sawi in the 6th/12th century.

[2260] fols. 36r-38r: Fragment of a trigonometrical work, with commentary. fol. 38r: drawing illustrating the vision of the Halo (belonging to fols. 35r-v?) . Other mss. on arithmetic: → text no. [2466].

[2262] fols.33v-137r: Ibn Abi Shukr al-Mudkhal al-mufid ابن أبي شكر (part II) المدخل المفيد . Compare the description of the preceding text. The text does not repeat the title. According to the introduction, it is a continuation of the preceding text and like the latter a selection of what the author collected on al-Ahkam ala al-mawalid الأحكام على الموالييد (33v3f.) according to scholars in the past and present (al-hukama' al-mutaqaddimin wa-al-fudala' al-muta'akhhirin الحكماء المتقدمين والفضلاء المتأخرين) . The text consists of 3 maqalat مقالات, each with many sections (fasl فصل 33v-51v: al-maqala al-ula المقالة الأولى , consisting of 10 sections. 51v-77v: al-maqala al-thaniya fi dhikr al-ahkam al-kulliya المقالة الثانية في ذكر الأحكام الكلية , consisting of 11 sections. 77v-137r: al-maqala al-thalitha fi dhikr dalalat al-buyut al-ithna ashar wa-ma yata'allaqu biha min ahwal al-mawlud المقالة الثالثة في ذكر دلالات البيوت الاثنا عشر , consisting of 12 sections. As this enumeration shows, the text is identical with Ms. Vatican 1400 which in GAL S I 868 no. 1 correctly is titled al-Mudkhal al-mufid fi hukm al-mawalid المدخل المفيد في حكم الموالييد . As we have seen in the description of the preceding text this is not quite correct, as we have here only part II of al-Mudkhal al-mufid. The Vatican Ms. is incomplete at the beginning and begins in the middle of the 4th fasl in the first maqala. The description of Levi della Vida, Elenco, pp. 216f. incorrectly speaks of 4 (instead of 3) maqalat.

Beginning:

الحمد لله رب العالمين العاقبة للمتقين والصلوة والسلام على سيد محمد وآله الطاهرين ، قال سيدنا وأستاذنا أفضل المتأخرين... قد ذكرت فيما تقدم من المدخل ما تبعته بذكر ما جمعته وانتخبته من الأحكام على الموالييد...

End:

وفيمنا ذكرنا كفاية فنختم الكتاب في هذا الباب ، والحمد لله وحده والصلوة والسلام على خير عبد عبده وعلى آله ، الله يهبهم (؟) في قبول العبادة عمدة ولا حول ولا قوة إلا بالله وأستغفره وأتوب إليه وحده ما شاء الله كان وما لم يشأ لم يكن ،

[2263] fols. 137v-182v: Ibn Abi Shukr Fi kayfiyat al-hukm ala tahwil sini al-alam = perhaps Kitab al-Nujum في كيفية الحكم على تحويل سني العالم and perhaps Risala fi kayfiyat al-hukm ala al-masa'il al-nujumiya رسالة في كيفية الحكم على المسائل النجومية . Further mss.: → GAL I 475 no. 4; S I 868 no.6 and perhaps no. 20; Sheshen ششن , Nawadir III p. 69 mentions one Ms. with the title: Risala fi kayfiyat tahawil sini al-alam رسالة في كيفية تحاويل سني العالم; also Zahiriya no. 10 (Fahras ilm al-hay'a فهرس علم الهيئة by I. Khuri الخوري, Damascus 1389/1969, p. 69) . The text is different from no. 6780 (Fahras p. 253) : Kitab Ahkam al-nujum كتاب أحكام النجوم

Beginning:

الحمد لله رب العالمين والعاقبة للمتقين والصلوة والتسليم على محمد نبيه الكريم وعلى آله الطيبين الطاهرين وصحبه أجمعين ... قال العبد الفقير ... إني قد رتبت هذا الكتاب في كيفية الحكم على تحاويل سني العالم بما جمعت المتقدمون وانتخبت الفضلاء المتأخرين (كذا) ... قد نبئت بذكر القول على ذلك فنقول إن رأس سنة العالم هو وقت حلول الشمس ...

End:

فحكّم على كل واحد منهما بحسب موضعه وقوته من طالع سنة العالم ومن صاحبه في مدخل تلك السنة وفيما ذكرنا كفاية ،

Because this text follows part I and II of Ibn Abi Shukr, Kitab al-Mudkhal al-mufid كتاب المدخل المفيد, we could assume its identity with part III which in the introduction of part I (→ fol. 1v) is called Ghunyat al-mustafid fi al-hukm ala al-mawalid غنية المستفيد في الحكم على المواليد. As a comparison with the Ghunyat al-mustafid in Ms. W Ms.Or.182 of the Wellcome Institute shows (→ Iskandar, Catalogue, pp. 99f.) , however, this is not the case; the Ghunyat al-mustafid (mentioned in GAL S I 869 no. 21 with 2 mss.) is not in our Ms.

The text has no introduction but states that its author, Abu Ma'shar al-Balkhi أبو معشر البلخي, used the accounts of the Greeks and of other early scholars and then begins as follows:

نبئت بالحمل : قران زحل والمشتري في الحمل دلّ على قتل ملك بابل وهو العراق وآذربيجان وناحية أرمينية وفارس وفلسطين ...

End:

وربما ذكرت هذه الثلاثة العلوية لطول مقامها ولثبتهما في البروج وذلك أنها الدلالة على كلما في العالم الأسفل والله أعلم بحقائق الأمور والأشياء ،

This astrological treatise on conjunctions is identical with Abu Ma'shar (died 272/886) , Kitab al-Qiranat كتاب القرانات, also called Kitab al-Iqtiranat كتاب الاقترانات, or Kitab al-Dalalat ala al-ittisalat wa-qiranat al-kawakib fi al-buruj al-ithnay ashar كتاب الدلالات على الاتصالات or Kitab al-Dalalat ala al-ittisalat lil-kawakib wa-qiranat al-kawakib fi al-buruj al-ithnay ashar كتاب الدلالة على الاتصالات etc.; → GAS VII 144; Ullmann, Natur- und Geheimwissenschaften, p. 320. As the beginnings of other mss. show (→ GAS VII 144; add Ms. Najaf, Maktabat Ayat Allah al-Hakim مكتبة آية الله الحكيم, Majmu'a مجموعة no. 852, pp. 2-34) , our text is similarly a revised version of Abu Ma'shar's work on conjunctions; in view of its transmission among treatises by Ibn Abi Shukr ابن أبي شكر, it may be a revision made by Ibn Abi Shukr. It is different from Ibn Abi Shukr, al-Hukm ala qiranat al-(الحكم على قرانات الكواكب في البروج الاثني عشر → GAL I 474 no.5; S I 868 no.5) = Risala fi iqtiranat al-kawakib al-sab'a fi al-buruj al-ithnay ashar رسالة في اقترانات الكواكب السبعة في البروج الاثني عشر (British Museum 414 no. 2) = (as I suppose) al-Dalalat ala al-ittisalat wa-qiranat al-kawakib fi al-buruj al-ithnay ashar الدلالات على (Ms. in Kütahya/Turkey; → Sheshen, Nawadir III 69).

Ms. 127.

48 folios; 13×19 cm; 11 lines, text within red frame; carefully written Turkish naskhi. Single words and chapter-headings are written in red ink. Yellowish paper. Original rose-coloured paper cover with yellowish-green spots. Copied 1229/1814 (fol. 41v) .

This unpublished treatise by Sibt al-Maridini (died 912/1506) on the use of the "cut" quadrant is an excerpt, made by the author himself, from his Izhar al-sirr al-mawdu' fi al-amal bi-al-rub' al-maqtu' إظهار السر الموضوع في العمل بالربع المقطوع .

More mss.: → GAL II 168 no. 8; S II 216 no.8; Daiber, Catalogue, no. 27. In the margin of fol. 4v the names of months and their corresponding constellations are mentioned.

[2266] fols. 19v-41v: Isma'il Ibn Mustafa al-Kalanbawi إسماعيل بن مصطفى الكلبوي : Risalat al-Irtifa' = Risala fi al-amal bi-rub' al-muqantarat = رسالة في العمل بالربع = رسالة الارتفاع = المقتنرات .

On the author (died 1205/1791) → Kahhale II 296. This treatise is neither mentioned in Brockelmann (→ GAL S II 1015 no. 18a in an appendix on un- identifiable authors) nor in Kahhale. A second copy, as our text without author, is Princeton 4975. A third Ms., preserved in the Köprülü Library (→ Catalogue III p. 341 no. 709/2) , enables us to identify the text. The text describes the function of the quadrant with parallels of latitude as instrument for the fixation of the times of prayer and fasting. → Eilhard Wiedemann, Aufsätze zur arabischen Wissenschaftsgeschichte (Hildesheim-New York 1970) I pp. 560ff.; 758 ff. Fol. 25v contains in the margin 4 concentric circles with the names of the months and the constellations belonging to them.

[2268] fols. 44v-45v: A table with the degrees of longitude and latitude of towns in the Middle East and Turkey. With an additional note in Turkish on fol. 45v. The following folios are blank.

Ms. 128.

48 folios; 16,7×25,8 cm; 15-23 lines; irregular naskhi, in part tending to nasta'liq. Single words are written in red ink. Brownish, thin paper, in part damaged in the margin. Blank pages are fols. 20r, 26r-27r. Modern cardboard binding. Hand of the 12th/18th century.

A modern hand identified Ibn Yunis with the famous Egyptian astronomer Ibn Yunis who died 399/1009 and who is the author of al-Zij al-kabir al-Hakimi (الزيح الكبير الحاكمي) written on behalf of al-Hakim bi-Amr Allah (الحاكم بأمر الله) of which only fragments and two extracts are preserved (→ GAS VI 230f.). A closer study of the text shows, however, that it can not be the summary of Ibn Yunis, al-Zij al-kabir al-Hakimi; it is based on later sources. Our Ms. was perhaps attributed to Ibn Yunis by a later copyist because he was misled by the remark on fol. 2r in which the author declares his intention to write a summary of "my Zij al-kabir".

Our text consists of 10 chapters and an epilogue:

- 1) fi ma'rifat al-tawarikh al-khamsa wa-a'yadhim wa-mawasimihim في معرفة التواريخ الخمسة وأعيادهم ومواسمهم (2v-5v).
- 2) fi ma yuhtaju ilayhi min hisab al-a'mal al-falakiya في ما يحتاج إليه من حساب الأعمال الفلكية (6r-9v).
- 3) fi taqwim al-nayrayn al-shams wa-al-qamar wa-al-kawakib al-khamsa في تقويم النيرين الشمس والقمر والكواكب الخمسة (9v-10v).
- 4) fi maqamat al-kawakib lil-ruju' wa-al-istiqaama في مقامات الكواكب للرجوع والاستقامة (10v).
- 5) fi ma'rifat ard al-qamar في معرفة عرض القمر (11r-v).
- 6) fi ma'rifat al-ijtima' wa-al-istiqaal في معرفة الاجتماع والاستقبال (11v-12v).
- 7) fi ma'rifat ru'yat al-ahilla al-arabiya في معرفة رؤية الأهلة العربية (13r-v).
- 8) fi ma'rifat khusuf al-qamar في معرفة خسوف القمر (13v-14v).
- 9) fi ma'rifat kusuf al-shams في معرفة كسوف الشمس (14v-16r).
- 10) fi ma'rifat ittisalat al-qamar bi-al-kawakib wa-mumazajat al-kawakib ba'diha bi-ba'din في معرفة اتصالات القمر بالكواكب وممازجات الكواكب بعضها ببعض (16r-17v).

Comparison with Ms. Berlin 5685 shows that the chapters and their sequence undoubtedly are inspired by al-Kum al-Rishi (الكوم الريشي) died 836/1432) , al-Lum'a fi hall al-sab'a اللمعة في حل السبعة , which is a summary of his work Nuzhat al-nazir fi talkhis Zij Ibn al-Shatir نزهة الناظر في تلخيص زيج ابن الشاطر (mentioned GAL II 127; S II 158) . Our text combined single chapters in one and appears to be a shortened reproduction of al-Rishi's summary al-Lum'a (12 chapters) . Therefore its terminus post quem may be the year 836/1432. This conclusion can be confirmed by a comparison with an astronomical Ms. preserved in the Iraq Museum Library and described by Usama Nasir al-Naqshbandi and Zamiya' Muhammad Abbas نظميا محمد عباس , Makhtutat al-falak wa-al-tanjim fi maktabat al-mathaf al-Iraqi (مخطوطات الفلك والتنجيم في مكتبة المتحف العراقي Baghdad 1982) , pp. 202f. (no. 518) ; this Ms. with the Library no. 33245 contains Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Qadir Ibn Ahmad Ibn Dallal al-Wafa'i al-Misri al-Shafi'i (still alive محمد بن عبد القادر بن أحمد بن دلال الوفاي المصري الشافعي 937/1530) , al-Lu'lu' al-nazim fi ma'rifat hall al-taqwim اللؤلؤ النظيم في معرفة حل التقويم . The author and this work are not mentioned in any bio-bibliographical source. According to the description, it contains the same chapters as our Ms.; the beginning is different, however, and the author of the Lu'lu' al-nazim declares that he followed Muhammad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Abi al-Fath al-Sufi al-Shafi'i al-Misri, Tashil al-ibara fi al-kawakib al-sayyara تسهيل العبارة في الكواكب السيارة , of which he summarized the informations. This ascription of Tashil to Ibn Abi al-Fath al-Sufi can be confirmed from Hajji Khalifa, Kashf II 967, 4; Hajji Khalifa adds the remark that the book was written on behalf of Abd al-Rahman al-Salihi , عبد الرحمن الصالحى "timekeeper" (muwaqqit موقت) at the Omayyad mosque in Damascus who ca. 900/1494 compiled astronomical tables based on the Zij زيج of Ulughbeg (who died 853/1449) : → GAL II 129f.; S II 161 and 298. From this information we can conclude that our text, which on fol. 2v clearly states that its author has entitled it (sammaytuhu) Tashil al-ibara fi taqwim al-kawakib al-sayyara (سميته) تسهيل العبارة في تقويم الكواكب السيارة , was written by Muhammad Ibn Abi al-Fath al-Sufi. According to Brockelmann, this well-known author of several astronomical works (→ GAL S II 159; compare Kahhale XI 116; mss. Princeton 4990; 5035-5037) was still alive in 943/1536. He may have written the Tashil at the end of the 15th or at the beginning of the 16th century. As long as the relation of our Ms. to the anonymous extract from al-Rishi's above mentioned Lum'a in Ms. Gotha 1379, 3 (mentioned GAL II 2 157 no. 8, 1) is unclear, it seems that our Ms. is unique. Unclear, too, is the relation of our text to Ibn al-Banna' ابن البناء (died 721/1321 or later; → now Ridwan Bansaqrūn رضوان بنشقرن , Ibn al-Banna' al-Marrakusi al-ma'ruf bi-al-adadi ابن البناء المرakصي المعروف بالعددي Rabat 1984) , al-Yasara fi taqwim (ta'dil) al-kawakib al-sayyara اليسارة في تقويم (تعديل) الكواكب السيارة , its anonymous supplement Tashil al-ibara fi takmil ma naqasa an al-yasara تسهيل العبارة في تكميل ما نقص عن اليسارة and the commentary by Ibn al-Qunfudh ابن القنفذ , Tashil al-matalib fi ta'dil al-kawakib تسهيل المطالب في تعديل الكواكب (تعدیل الكواكب → GAL II 255 no. 7 and S II 364 no.7) . As our Ms. (fol. 2r14f.) refers to Ibn al-Banna', al-Yasara, we should not exclude the possibility that Ibn Abi al-Fath al-Sufi used this work.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

[2270] fols. 20v-25v: A titleless astronomical treatise. The text begins with a section on conjunctions (qiranat قرانات; fols. 20v-21r) and continues with a chapter on eclipses (kusufat كسوفات), called Ibarat al-lum'a fi al-kusuf (عبارة اللمعة في الكسوف 21r-25v) . On fol. 22v19 the text refers to Ibn al-Majdi (ابن المجدي died 850/1447; → GAL II 128; S II 158f.) ; this author seems to be a terminus post quem. As the preceding text can be attributed to Ibn Abi al-Fath al-Sufi (ابن أبي الفتح الصوفي), we should not exclude his authorship for this treatise.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

Beginning:

Our Ms. only contains the ahkam zuhal (أحكام زحل) and the ahkam al-mushtari (أحكام المشتري) and is incomplete at the end.

[2272] fols. 29r-33r: Tables containing the calendars of Jews, Christians, Byzantines, Copts, Persians and Musli Ms. Fol. 30r refers to Ibn Yunis al-Misri (ابن يونس المصري) on whom → above, description of fols. 1v-19v.

celestial bodies (matali' مطالع) . Similar tables can be found in the Berlin mss. 5780ff.; on chronology and calendars → mss. Berlin 5778ff. Fol. 46v has a list of geographical names including their degrees of longitude and latitude. Fols. 43v and 46r mention Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Mahmud al-Hakim al-Ladhiqi محمد بن عبد المحمود الحكيم اللاذقي (cannot be identified).

On the author (died 674/1275 or 693/1294) and this still unedited book on the interpretation of dreams → GAL I 498 paragr. 8, no. 3; S I 913 paragr. 8, no. 1; Fahd, Divination, pp. 338f.

Our Ms. is incomplete at the beginning (perhaps 1 folio is missing) ; fol. 1r contains the end of an enumeration of all chapters; the text begins (1r6) with the following chapters:

- 15) [ms.: 14] fi adab al-qass li-ru'yahu (5r) (طبقة) في أدب القاصّ لرؤياه

Then follows in alphabetical sequence an enumeration of objects and persons seen in dreams and their meaning (6r-64v) . Our Ms. is incomplete and ends with the interpretation of the appearance of Uthman عثمان in dreams. Several times the author quotes "Artamidurus أرطاميدورس"; this is Artemidorus Daldianus (2nd half of the 2nd century A.D.) , whose Onirocriticon (Greek text ed. R.A. Pack, Lipsiae 1963) was translated into Arabic in the 9th century A.D. (Ta'bir al-ru'ya) . The translation is ascribed to Hunayn Ibn Ishaq حنين بن إسحق; it is edited by T. Fahd (Damascus 1964) . On the translation → M. Ullman in: Die Welt des Islams N.S. 13, Leiden 1971, pp. 204-211 and G. Endress in: Oriens 25-26, Leiden 1976, pp. 341-351. After fol. 54 some (perhaps 5) folios are missing.

The text became wellknown in the Middle Ages in its Latin version (edited by D. Pingree: The Latin Version of the Ghayat al-hakim, text, introduction, appendices, indices. Our Ms.

shares many variants and omissions with a manuscript group which in H. Ritter's edition (Istanbul 1933) is referred to with the siglum C. It is not a mirror-picture of C, however, and has readings which it does not share either with C1 (copied 771/1370) or C2 (undated) and which may go back to a different (old) archetype.

Ms. 131.

41 folios; 11,5×16/17 cm; ±23 lines; naskhi. Single words (sometimes in the margin) are written in red ink. Some notes on fol. 1r and in the margin. Brown paper of bad quality, damaged and in part worm-eaten. Owner's stamp on fol. 1r (in part damaged) : "Muhammad Fariq". According to the colophon, the >Ms. was copied by Dede Mustafa in Damascus during Ramadan 1145/February 1733.

[2276] fols. 1v-12v: Anonymous: Mishkat al-anwar wa-khizanat al-asrar (مشكاة الأنوار وخزانة الأسرار → fol. 3r3) or (→ 1v7) Tadbir al-hajar al-mukarram bi-al-tariq al-aqrab (تدبير الحجر المكرم بالطريق الأقرب

The text discusses the sympathetic qualities (khawass (خواص) of the elixier stone (al-iksir (الإكسير < Greek xērion) , called al-hajar al-mukarram (الحجر المكرم or al-hajar al-karim (الحجر الكريم , against chronic diseases. The author adds a description of the composition (tarkib (تركيب) and qualities (alwan (ألوان, quwa (قوى) of the iksir al-bayad (إكسير البياض and the iksir al-humra (إكسير الحمرة and gives some prescriptions on their use against special diseases like al-humma al-mutbiqa (الحمى المطبقة (4v3) , humma al-daqq (حمى الدق (4v8) , nazf al-dam (نزف الدم (4v23) etc. In the discussion of the magic effects of letters and language, the text appears to be a mixture of alchemy, practical medicine and magic; it refers to three authorities: Muhi al-Din Ibn al-Arabi محي الدين بن العربي, Abd al-Haqq Ibn Sab'in عبد الحق بن سبعين and Ahmad al-Buni أحمد البوني (3r). The death of al-Buni (died 622/1225) is a terminus post quem of our text, which in its combination of alchemy and magic apparently is inspired by al-Buni (on whom → Ullmann, Natur- und Geheimwissenschaften, pp. 234 and 390f.) . It must be written after the 7th/13th century.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

Then follow two lines with magical letters; after them the text breaks off with فاعمل.

Our Ms. contains the end of the chapter on adhan (أدهان → Ms. Berlin 6352, fols. 71r-76v).

[2278] fols. 13v-41v: Oswald Crollius: Basilica chymica, Latin-

Arabic translation by Ibn Sallum ابن سلوم, called Kimiya' basiliqa = al-Kimiya' al-malakiya كيمياء باسليقا = الكيمياء الملكية .

Oswald Crollius (1580-1609) , a pupil of Paracelsus, had published his work in 1608 in Frankfurt. The Arabic translation of it is an appendix to Ibn Sallum, Ghayat al-itqan fi tadbir badan al-insan غاية الإتقان في تدبير بدن الإنسان ; → above (preceding text) ; Ullmann, Medizin, pp. 183f. (gives a list of all mss.) and id., Islamic Medicine, Edinburgh 1978, p. 50f.

Ms. 132.

10 folios; 13,6×21,2 cm; 32-35 lines; small nasta'liq. Thin yellowish-brownish paper, slightly water-stained and with watermark (fols. 5, 8 and 10) containing the capitals "BATH". This hints at an European origin of the paper. Hand of the 12th/18th century. Copied (katib) by Mustafa Ibn Shaykh Muhammad al-Rahmati; → fol. 7r, in the margin and the colophon on 6r. The copyist can perhaps be identified with Mustafa Ibn Muhammad al-Ayyubi al-Rahmati (1135-1206/1722-1792) who is mentioned in Kahhale XII 276f. On fol. 6r20 we are informed that he copied the text "as an introduction" (tawti'atan) from a Ms. in the library of Abd Allah Bek.

[2279] fols.1v-6r: A titleless alchemical treatise, according to a modern note on fol. 1r called Risala fi sina'at al-iksir al-a'zam alladhi yatakawwanu minhu al-dhahab رسالة في صناعة الإكسير الأعظم الذي يتكون منه الذهب .

Starting-point of the text is the thesis that all metals can be traced back to one universal metal, which is gold. The different kinds of metals can regain this original substance by chemical treatment, the elixier. This theory of transmutation of metals, which was strongly opposed by Ibn Sina (ابن سينا) (died 428/1037), is defined by al-Tughra'i (الطغرائي) (executed 515/1121; → Ullmann, Natur- und Geheimwissenschaften, pp. 229-231) and above all by Abu al-Qasim al-Iraqi al-Simawi (أبو القاسم العراقي السيمائي) (7th/13th century; → Ullmann 235-7) in his Kitab al-ilm al-muktasab fi zira'at al-dhahab (كتاب العلم المكتسب في زراعة الذهب) → the edition by E.J. Holmyard (Paris 1923) and his introduction pp. 4f. al-Tughra'i and al-Simawi have essentially inspired the contents of our text; al-Tughra'i is mentioned on fol. 4v18 as al-Tughra'i and al-Simawi is referred to as Sahib al-Muktasab (صاحب المكتسب) on fol. 3r11 and 12. al-Simawi's book was apparently the source for a quotation of a poem by Dhu al-Nun al-Misri (ذو النون المصري) 4r11f. = al-Simawi ed. Holmyard 40,15. In addition, the author of our text quotes different works by Aydamir al-Jildaki (أيدير الجلكي) (died 743/1342; → Ullmann 237-239) : he used Jildaki's commentary on al-Simawi, the Sharh al-Muktasab (شرح المكتسب) (5r26) = Kitab Nihayat al-talab fi sharh al-Muktasab (كتاب نهاية الطلب في شرح المكتسب) (on which → Ullmann 238) and Jildaki's Kitab Ghayat al-surur fi sharh Diwan al-Shudhur (كتاب غاية شرح ديوان الشذور) (3r6), a commentary on Ibn Arfa' Ra's (ابن أرفع) (died 593/1197), Shudhur al-dhahab (شذور الذهب), an alchemical poem (on which → Ullmann 231f.) which is quoted 3v21. Finally, our author quotes (2v12) Jildaki's Kitab al-Burhan (كتاب البرهان) (on which → Ullmann 239f.) and has knowledge of Jildaki's Kitab Anwar al-durar fi idah al-hajar (كتاب أنوار الدرر في إيضاح الحجر) (on which → Ullmann 241). The latest source quoted by our text is Ali Chelebi = Ali Bek al-Izniqi (علي بك الإزنيقي) = علي چلبی (lived in the 9th/15th century); his Kitab Durar al-anwar fi asrar al-ahjar (كتاب درر الأنوار في أسرار الأحجار) (on which → Ullmann 243) is mentioned 5r25 (compare also 3r7; 5r24 and 5v4). Therefore, our text must have been written after the 9th/15th century. In addition to al-Izniqi, the author used older sources: besides those listed above he mentions on fol. 2r3 the Kitab al-Arkan al-arba' كتاب الأركان and as its author "al-ustadh الأستاذ", perhaps Jabir Ibn Hayyan from the 4th/10th century: Jabir is author of the Kitab al-Arkan (→ GAS IV 251,9) and of the Kitab Tadbir al-arkan wa-al-usul كتاب تدبير الأركان والأصول which has now been edited by Pierre Lory, L'élaboration de l'Élixir suprême (Damascus 1988) , pp. 139-152.

190 folios; 15,5×22 cm; 23 lines; unvocalized naskhi. The text is written within a red frame. Single words and chapter-headings are written in red ink. Spotted and in part damp-stained and worm-eaten paper. The first and the last folios are slightly damaged. Flexible dark-brown leather binding with geometrical frame and three ornaments on each cover. Copied 15 Shawwal 777/9 March 1376.

[2280] fols. 2v-187r: Ali Ibn Abi al-Rijal علي بن أبي الرجال : Kitab al-Bari' fi ahkam al-nujum (mukhtasar) (مختصر) كتاب البارع في أحكام النجوم

On Ibn Abi al-Rijal (died after 432/1041) and his still unedited book on astrology → GAL I 224; S I 401. Our Ms. is a shortened version; 3 more mss. with the shortened version are mentioned in GAL S I 401. The (unshortened?) text was very influential in medieval astrology and was translated into old Castilian by Jehudah ben Moshe; his version was translated into Latin by Aegidius de Tebaldis and Petrus de Regio in A.D. 1256: Albohazen Haly filius Abenragel, Praeclarissimus liber completus in iudiciis astrorum (printed Venice 1585 and Basel 1551) . Their Latin version was translated into Hebrew, Portuguese, French and English; → Ullmann, Natur- und Geheimwissenschaften, p. 336 and the references given there. The text quotes many old sources, among them Greek authors like Vettius Valens, Dositheus, Ptolemaeus etc. fols. 1r-v give an enumeration of all chapters, fols. 187v-188r contain a note (fa'ida فائدة) and fols. 188v-190v have tables with numbers.

Ms. 134.

40 folios; 15×20,7 cm; 19-21 lines; not very carefully written naskhi. Single words are written in red ink. Brown paper, spotted, water-stained and heavily damaged. Binding repaired. fol. 40v mentions as owner Abd al-Wahhab Ibn al-Kardawi (or: al-Kurduwi) . Hand of the 12th/18th century. fol. 31v mentions as copyist Umar Gharib.

[2281] fols. 1r-7v: Fragment of an astrological work. Our text (with lacunas after fols. 2,4 and 6) is an extract from an astrological work which (with some deviations) is preserved in Ms. Berlin 5896 (copied ca. 1200/1785; without title or author) : fol. 1r → ch. 5 (fol. 11v) in Ms. Berlin 5896. fol. 1v → ch. 6 (fol. 13r) ib. fol. 3r → ch. 10 (fol. 17v) ib. fol. 3r → ch.9 (fol. 16v) ib. fol. 4r → ch. 11 (fol. 18v) ib. fol. 4v → ch. 13 (fol. 20r) ib. fol. 5r → ch. 18 (fol. 23r) ib. fol. 5v → ch. 8 (fol. 15r) ib. The text ends with two chapters (bab باب) on the character of the year if it begins on a Thursday or Friday (fols. 7r-v) ; such sections cannot be found in Ahlwardt's description of Ms. Berlin 5896. Perhaps they belong to chapter 23 (fol. 29v) in the Berlin Ms. Not yet clear is its relation to astro-meteorological treatises ascribed to Daniel (→ GAS VII 313ff. and Fahd, Divination, pp. 408ff.) . In the margin are some notes and additions. On fol. 7v follows a short remark on prayers and sayings which may help against illness (incomplete at the end) . On fols. 8r-v follows a fragment of an astrological work on the meaning of rising comets (tulu' kawkab al-dhanab طلوع كوكب الذنب) during special days. And on fols. 9r-10r are some notes and excerpts, mostly from works on applied law (on zakat زكاة, tahara طهارة etc.) .

[2282] fols. 10v-19v: Anonymous: Jami' al-lata'if li-majma' al-zara'if min al-kashshaf جامع اللطائف لمجمع الظرائف من الكشاف. A collection of questions and answers which mainly explain why God has created his creation. Earth and heaven, everything in them shows God's almightiness. The text is a cosmological proof of the existence of God, comparable to Ghazzali's al-Hikma fi makhluqat Allah الحكمة في مخلوقات الله (→ edition by Muhammad Rashid Qabbani محمد رشيد قباني, Beirut 1398/1978) ; it is different from the contents of Ghazzali's book, however. It includes a lot of themes taken from religious literature; compare, for example, the last question: why has God asked men to pray in a community (salat al-jama'a صلاة الجماعة) ? The text is incomplete at the end. It differs from those question-answer-texts preserved in the libraries of Berlin (→ nos. 294-299) and Princeton (→ nos. 5233-5267) . A similar literary pattern (su'al: ma al-hikma fi ... jawab جواب ما الحكمة في ...) can be found in Ali Dede Bosnawi (died 1007/1598) , Khawatim al-hikam wa-hall al-rumuz wa-kashf al-kunuz وحل الرموز والكشف الكنوز , a collection of 300 questions on the wisdom of laws (→ GAL II 427; S II 635) , whose contents are different, however, as becomes evident from a comparison with Ms. Leiden Or. 830. On the literary pattern → Daiber, art. al-Masa'il wa 'l-adjwiba > المسائل والأجوبة in EI2 VI.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

هذا كتاب جامع اللطائف لمجمع الطرائف من الكشاف ، فإن قيل : ما الحكمة في أن الله تع قدم الظالم لنفسه في الذكر وآخر السابق في الذكر ؟ الجواب : قدم الظالم كيلا يقتط من رحمته لكثرة ذنوبه وآخر السابق إغلاقا ..

On the text see the description of Ms. no. 146, fols. 1v-7r.

[2284] fols. 24v-28v: Sulayman al-Farisi سليمان الفارسي [Hikaya حكاية].

A legend of the conversion of Syrian monks to Islam during the caliphate of Abu Bakr أبو بكر (A.D. 632-634) . The text is said to be transmitted by Sulayman (Salman) al-Farisi (سلمان) الفارسي (died 37/657) . The monks put some questions to Abu Bakr, who sent them off to Ali Ibn Abi Talib علي بن أبي طالب . The answers by Ali convinced the monks and they decided to stay with Ali and to get more instructions on the "laws of Islam" (shara'i' al-Islam شرائع الإسلام).

The text is different from the Masa'il al-ruhban مسائل الرهبان attributed to Abu Yazid al-Bistami (أبو يزيد البسطامي) (died 261/875 or later; → GAS I 645f.) : → the edition by Abd al-Rahman Badawi (عبد الرحمن بدوي), Shatahat al-Sufiya I 1 (شطحات الصوفية 1) (Cairo 1949; repr. Kuwait 1976) , pp. 173-176: Qissat Abi Yazid al-Bistami ma'a al-rahib (قصة أبي يزيد البسطامي مع الراهب); a different version of that text attributed to Bistami can be found in Ms. Berlin 9057 (Hikaya by Bistami, telling the conversion to Islam of the monks from Dayr Sim'an (دير سمعان)). A comparison of similar legends (→ also mss. Berlin 9047ff.) may be helpful for the reconstruction of their literary history and for their dating.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

[2285] fols. 29r-31v: Ali Ibn Abi Talib (علي بن أبي طالب) : Ikhtilaj-name (اختلاج نامه), transmitted by Khidr (or: Khadir) Dhu al-Qarnayn (خضر ذو القرنين). This text on palmomancy, i.e. on divination from involuntary sudden movements of parts of the human body (a capite ad calcem) is similar to texts ascribed to Ja'far al-Sadiq (جعفر الصادق) (→ GAS I 530 no.4) or to Daniel, al-Iskandar and "the wise men of Greece and Persia": → the German translation of Ms. Berlin 4259 and 4260 by J. Lippert and F. Kern in H. Diels, Beiträge zur Zuckungsliteratur des Okzidents und Orients, Abhandlungen der Preussischen Akademie der Wissenschaften, philos.-hist. Kl. 1907-1908 (reprint Leipzig 1970) , pp. 58-91. Our text is most similar to the version ascribed to an unidentifiable person called Muhammad Ibn Ibrahim Ibn Hisham (محمد بن إبراهيم بن هشام) (→ GAL S II 1041 no. 36) and alleged to be ultimately based on Ali Ibn Abi Talib who transmitted from Ja'far al-Sadiq: → Ms. Berlin 4260, fols. 68v-80v (Kitab al-Ikhtilaj wa-du'a'ihī ودعاءه وكتاب الاختلاج) and Ms. Gotha 1325, both of which were used in the German translation by Lippert and Kern in Diels, Beiträge, pp. 85-91. Contrary to our Ms. these mss. include a prayer (du'a' دعاء) . A comparison of all mss. seems to be necessary in view of the numerous divergencies and the unsolved problems of source-analysis and transmission. On some more mss. → Fahd, Divination, pp. 397-402 and on a comparison with a Greek text ascribed to Melampōs (Perì palmōn = ed. Diels, Beiträge, pp. 23-32) → Fahd, Divination, pp. 418-429. The name of the transmitter of our text, Khidr (or: Khadir) Dhu al-Qarnayn replaces Dhu al-Qarnayn (= Alexander) in other mss.; this change is based on the Islamic tradition of Khidr/Khadir as companion of Dhu al-Qarnayn; → art. Khadir in EI2 IV (1978) , 904 and Wh. M. Thackston, Jr., in: Neues Handbuch der Literaturwissenschaft, vol.5 (Orientalisches Mittelalter ed. W. Heinrichs) , Wiesbaden 1990, pp. 194f.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

وبه نستعين ، هذا اختلاج نامہ ، الحمد لله ربّ العالمين والصلوة والسلام على سيدنا محمد وآله أجمعين ، ذكر خضر ذو القرنين عليه وما فسر من (وفي المخطوط) [ال]اختلاج جميع الأعضاء ، فقال إن الاختلاج بمنزلة الإيلاج ... وإني لأحفظ عن أمير المؤمنين على [أ]بن أبي طالب رضي الله عنه قال : وإذا اختلج أم الرأس يبلغ أجرا عظيما ومحبة من الناس ...

Copied at the end of Ramadan 1158/26 October 1745.

[2293] fols. 1r-12r: Ja'far al-Sadiq جعفر الصادق: Qur'a fi 'ilm al-raml قرعة في علم الرمل.

A text with the same title (al-Qur'a القرعة) and also ascribed to Ja'far al-Sadiq (died 148/765) is preserved in several mss. (→ GAS 531 no. 29) . Their identity with our text, however, is not yet clear: their beginning differs e.g. from Ms. Princeton 5159 and from Ms. Gotha 24/3, which in its beginning also differs from the Princeton Ms. As such texts are later compilations or used by later authors, it is possible that some mss. with the same or with a similar text differ as far as title, beginning and ascription are concerned. A comparison shows that our text is different from the Manafi' suwar al-Qur'an سور المنافع ascribed to Ja'far al-Sadiq (mentioned GAS I 530 no. 6) : → Ms. Escorial 1392 (Derenbourg/Levi Provençal pp. 59f.) ; this text has in some mss. (e.g. Mingana 1920[1590] and 1921[329 VI]) the title Kayfiyat al-tafa'ul min kitab Allah al-azim كيفية التناول من كتاب الله العظيم and al-Durr al-nazim fi fada'il al-Qur'an al-azim الدر النظيم في فضائل القرآن العظيم .

This text with varying titles discusses augury by using the Suras; on this → G. Flügel, Die Loosbücher der Muhammedaner, in: Berichte über die Verhandlungen der Königlich-Sächsischen Gesellschaft der Wissenschaften zu Leipzig, Philol.-hist. Cl. 13, Leipzig 1861, pp. 24-74, esp. 47f.; Julius Ruska, Arabische Alchemisten II (Heidelberg 1924) , pp. 26f. and references given there. The above-mentioned text on augury from the Koran, like the Qur'a-texts (also ascribed to Ja'far al-Sadiq) , is an example of Islamic rhapsodomancy, divination based on special interpretations of Suras; → Fahd فهد, Divination, pp. 214-216; id., art. Kur'a (in: EI2) , no. II,1. We do not know, which procedure is used in the Qur'a-texts ascribed to Ja'far al-Sadiq; according to Fahd (pp. 216f.) the Qur'a Ma'muniya قرعة مأمونية, the Qur'a Jawhariya قرعة جوهريّة and the Qur'at huruf al-mu'jam قرعة حروف المعجم use letters and numbers. Our text follows a different pattern: the qur'a described in it and entitled Qur'a fi ilm al-raml is in fact a combination of rhapsodomancy (qur'a) and ilm al-raml (geomancy) : the arrangement of little stones or kernels thrown on the ground determines the choice of the Sura and the divination based on it. This is fixed in a table on fol. 2r of our text; this table, of which Ruska, Arabische Alchemisten II 28f. note 4 gives an idea, is a graphical description of 16 different kinds of arrangements resulting from the throwing of little stones or kernels. On ilm al-raml → Fahd, Divination, pp. 196ff.; Ahlwardt III p. 544;

Savage-Smith esp. pp. 11ff. (on the geomantic figures) ; Robert Jaulin, Géomancie et Islam, Paris 1991. The above-mentioned kinds of arrangements determines the division of our text into 16 chapters; it can also be found in an anonymous treatise on ilm al-raml in Ms. Gotha 73/8 (text is different) . Our text combined this kind of ilm al-raml with augury from the Suras, with rhapsodomancy (qur'a) . This combination can also be found in Ms. Berlin 4204 (copied A.D. 1850) , a titleless text which in its beginning mentions a Risala رسالة by Abu Hamid al-Ghazzali أبو حامد الغزالي on the study (اطلاع ' ittila) of "qur'at al-raml قرعة الرمل".

A closer comparison of the Berlin Ms. with our text leads to a surprising result: after the first four lines the Berlin Ms. has almost the same text (with some omissions) as our Ms. after the first 5 lines; it contains the same table consisting of 16 fields and gives the same interpretation of names and figures contained in the table: → the description of Ms. Berlin 4201 (a titleless treatise on ilm al-raml ascribed to a man called Ibrahim Ibn Sha'ban Ibn Nafi' al-Salihi إبراهيم (بن شعبان بن نافع الصالحي) , fols. 77r-108v, which, according to Ahlwardt's description of Ms. Berlin 4204, contains the same figures and the same interpretation. Our text appears to be almost completely identical with Ms. Berlin 4204, as is evident from the beginning of the interpretation of the first figure (Ms. Berlin 4204, fol. 1v = our Ms., fol. 2r) . The end of the Berlin Ms. differs, because the sequel of the described figures is slightly different: our text ends with the chapter on shakl al-jama'a شكل الجماعة which in the Berlin Ms. precedes the chapters on al-qabd al-dakhil القبض الداخل; the end of the Berlin Ms. can be found on fol. 11v3 of our text.

preceding text and offers an alternative end of the same text which the copyist may have found in a second Ms.

A commented English translation of Abu Hanifa, al-Fiqh al-akbar (I) can be found in A.J. The commentary is in some mss. and in the edition, which appeared in Hyderabad 1321/1903 (2nd edition 1367/1948, pp. 2-28) , ascribed to Abu Mansur al-Maturidi أبو منصور الماتريدي (died 333/944) . The text of fols. 153r-161v is written within a red frame. The paper is in some cases yellowish-brown and green. Pasteboard with red leather spine and flap; binding damaged. Owner's stamp on fols. 1r and 8r and owner's remarks dated 1272/1855 and 1285/1868. Copied 1053/1643 (→ 149r) ; later dates are 1071/1660-61 (copied by Umar Ibn Ahmad in Azerbaidjan; → 7r) ; 1080/1669/70 (copied by Ali Ibn Ahmad, also called al-Kaldik Ahmad Oghlu, in Azerbaidjan; → 81r) and 16 Muharram 1089/10 March 1678 (→ 118r) .

[2369] fol. 2r: A note on cupping (hijama حجامة) , with excerpts mainly from Abu al-Layth al-Samarqandi أبو الليث السمرقندي.

[2370] fols. 2v-7r: Sa'id Ibn Musa al-Halabi سعيد بن موسى الحلبي : Alam al-huda fi usul al-din علم الهدى في أصول الدين .

Our Ms. does not mention an author; however → Ms. Berlin 1875 and Paris 1128/3. The author and this text are also mentioned by Hajji Khalifa (II 1161) who in addition gives an enumeration of the chapters in accordance with the mss. - Hajji Khalifa does not mention any date of the author; Brockelmann too could not identify him and his text (→ GAL II 978 no. 70 = II 995 no. 55!) .

According to the introduction, the author intends to write a summary of the orthodox creed. He refers to Abu Hanifa أبو حنيفة and his pupil Abu Yusuf أبو يوسف and alludes to details which are more extensively discussed in the Hanafite Creed of Abu al-Barakat al-Nasafi أبو البركات النسفي (died 710/1310; → GAL II 197; S II 268) , in his Umdat aqidat ahl al-sunna wa-al-jama'a عمدة عقيدة أهل السنة والجماعة (ed. W. Cureton, Pillar of the Creed of the Sunnites, London 1843) . As the Berlin Ms. of Sa'id Ibn Musa's Alam al-huda was copied during 738/1337, the author may have written in the 13th/14th century A.D. fol. 7v contains a short prayer, with notes in the margin.

[2371] fols. 8v-31v: Muhammad Ibn al-Jazari al-Shafi'i محمد بن الجزري المقدمه الجزرية في التجويد al-Muqaddima al-Jazariya fi al-tajwid: الشافعي, with anonymous commentary. The Muqaddima by Ibn al-Jazari (died 833/1429) consists of approximately 108 rajaz-verses on the reading of the Koran. It was very often commented: → GAL II 202 no. 8 and S II 275f. no. 8. The numerous commentaries in the Berlin Library (Ms. nos. 511ff.) and in Princeton (nos. 235ff.) do not contain a similar commentary. Noteworthy is the first sentence of the commentary which in fact is a quotation from the commentary al-Hawashi al-mufahhima fi sharh al-Muqaddima الحواشي المفهومة في شرح المقدمة by Ibn al-Jazari's son Abu Bakr Ahmad Ibn Muhammad أبو بكر أحمد بن محمد (→ Ms. Berlin 511) . This observation confirms the remark by C. Rieu (Supplement to the catalogue of the Arabic mss. in the British Museum, London 1894) in his description of a second copy of our text in the British Museum (Suppl. no. 94 = Or. 4150, fols. 59-78) : "It is evidently abridged from the commentary of the author's son." In the margin are many notes.

[2372] fols. 31v-33v: A titleless treatise on madd مد, a technical term used in Koran recitation; it describes the drawing out of the voice over long vowels.

[2373] fols. 34v-81r: Abu Nasr Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Rahman al-Hamadhani أبو نصر محمد بن عبد الرحمن الهمذاني: al-Sab'iyat fi mawa'iz al-bariyat السبعيات في مواضع البريات.

On the author (wrote before 899/1493) and on further mss. and old editions of this collection of religious exhortations relating to every day of the week → GAL S II 583. The beginning of our Ms. differs from Ms. Berlin; but is identical with that of Ms. Berlin 8854.

[2374] fols. 81v-82r: A short commentary on quotations from the Koran which stress God's oneness and almightiness, in Turkish.

[2375] fols. 83v-118r: Siraj al-Din al-Ushi al-Farghani سراج الدين الأوشي

This legend on Zayd, the son of the caliph Umar Ibn al-Khattab, also called Abu Shahma أبو شحمة (→ 6r12) , can with variants also be found in two Berlin mss. (8997 and 8998) entitled Qissat Abi Shahma Ibn Umar Ibn al-Khattab and Fi Fadilat Umar Ibn al-Khattab wa-waladihi Abi Shahma respectively. A summary of the contents can be found in Ahlwardt's description of the Berlin Ms. 8997.

The beginning (after the Basmala) differs from the Berlin mss. :
الحمد لله رب العالمين والصلاة والسلام على سيدنا محمد خاتم الأنبياء والمرسلين وعلى آله وصحبه أجمعين ،
حدثنا أبو جعفر الوراق عن عطاء بن عروة الهروي عن أحمد بن عبد الله المرواني رضي الله تعالى عنهم

[2391] fols. 6r-33r: Kitab al-Azama كتاب العظمة, ascribed to Ibn Hibban ابن حبان.

A fanciful description of paradise and hell. The author relies heavily on Islamic religious traditions. The Ms. mentions Ibn Hibban as author on fols. 2r and 6r; this may be a wrong rendering of Ibn Hayyan ابن حيان who lived 274/887-369/979 (→ GAS I 200f.). The text is transmitted in varying versions; our Ms. is different from the Kitab al-Azama ascribed to Abu Shaykh أبو شيخ which is described by Anton Heinen, Islamic Cosmology (Beirut-Wiesbaden 1982. = BTS 27) , p.38ff. and which is edited by Rida' Allah Ibn Muhammad al-Mubarakfuri (Riyadh 1408/1988) . Some preliminary remarks on the authorship can be found in Wim Raven (who is preparing an edition of the unpublished version) , A Kitab al-Azama: on Cosmology, Hell and Paradise, in: Miscellanea arabica et islamica. Dissertationes in Academia Ultrajectina prolatae anno MCMXC. Selegit et edidit F. de Jong. Leuven 1993 (= Orientalia Lovaniensia Analecta 52) , pp. 135-142.

fol. 34r: An enumeration of the titles of texts found on fols. 2-57v, including the preceding two texts. This proves that fols. 34-57v originally preceded fols. 2-33.

الفصل (م : الفضل) المعول في الصف الأول al-Fadl) al-mu'awwal fi al-saff al-awwal

[2393] fols. 38v-57v: Muhammad Ibn Salama Ibn Ja'far Ibn Muhammad Ibn Ali Ibn Nasr al-Quda'i محمد بن سلامة بن جعفر بن محمد بن علي بن نصر القضاعي
Kitab fi al-wasaya wa-al-amthal wa-al-hikam min kalam rasul Allah = Kitab al-Shihab = Kitab Shihab al-akhbar fi al-hikam wa-al-amthal wa-al-adab min al-ahadith al-marwiya an al-rasul al-mukhtar كتاب في الوصايا والأمثال والحكم من كلام رسول الله = كتاب الشهاب = كتاب شهاب الأخبار .
في الحكم والأمثال والآداب من الأحاديث المروية عن الرسول المختار.

Further mss. and other titles of this unedited work can be found in GAL I 343 no. 2 and S II 584 no. 4. The author (died 454/1062) collected from Hadith gnomological sayings ascribed to the prophet Muhammad. The isnad إسناده is omitted.

[2394] fols. 57v-87r: A titleless summary on diseases and their treatment, beginning with diseases of the head.

The first 4 lines of the introduction ascribe the text to Ibn Sina ابن سينا
This can not be correct, however for the lines are added later and, besides this, the following text scarcely has any similarities with Ibn Sina's medical encyclopedia al-Qanun القانون, which in book III discusses diseases starting with the head and ending with the feet (= ed. Bulaq 1294/1877, repr. Beirut II 1ff.) . The text was perhaps ascribed to Ibn Sina because of some principal convergences with Ibn Sina's Qanun. The anonymous author aims at a summary according to the practical rules (al-qawanin al-amaliya القوانين العملية) and has - as he explicitly informs us - omitted remedies of the 10 brain diseases. In this point he differs from Ibn Sina's Qanun, which in the first chapter on the diseases of the head included the diseases of the brain. In the structure of the text the author follows a common scheme.

An identification seems to be impossible as there are no convincing similarities either to Ibn Sina or to later adaptations of the Qanun by e.g. Najib al-Din al-Samarqandi (نجيب الدين السمرقندي died 619/1222) ; compare Dietrich, Medicinalia, pp. 74ff. and (on Najib al-Din) p. 212. As the author of our text wrote his summary on behalf of "al-Amir Muhammad (الأمير محمد)", who is given the epithet "Muftakhir al-fatiya al-sayfiya (مفتخر الفتية السيفية)", we should consider a ruler with the names Muhammad and Sayf al-Din (سيف الدين).

Since the time of the Ayyubids quite a lot of emirs received the epithet Sayf al-Din: → H.L. Gottschalk, al-Malik al-Kamil (الملك الكامل) von Egypten und seine Zeit, Wiesbaden 1958, index p. 247; Edouard Zambaur, Manuel de généalogie et de chronologie pour l'histoire de l'Islam (Hannover 1927) , index s.n. "Sayf al-Din " mentions two persons who could have been addressed by the author of our text, the Ghurid Sayf al-Din Muhammad Ibn al-Husayn (غرد سيف الدين محمد بن الحسين died Rajab 558/June 1163; → Zambaur 284) and (with more probability) the Burhani Muhammad III Ibn Abd al-Aziz II (محمد بن عبد العزيز) from the Burhani-family in Bukhara who ruled ca. 560/1164-5; → Zambaur 210; O. Pritsak, Al-i Burhan, in: Der Islam 30, 1952, p. 81-96, esp. 91.

The text consists of 150 chapters, of which the first eight are listed here:

- 1) fi al-suda' al-mutawallid min al-harr (58v). في الصداع المتولد من الحر
- 2) fi al-suda' al-mutawallid min su' mizaj barid (58v). في الصداع المتولد من سوء مزاج بارد
- 3) al-suda'a fi ahad shiqqay a-ra's (58v-59r). الصداع في أحد شقي الرأس
- 4) waj' al-ra's min aradin darabahu (59r). وجع الرأس من عرض ضربه
- 5) al-zukam al-hadith min buruda (59r-v). الزكام الحادث من برودة
- 6) al-zukam min harara (59v). الزكام من حرارة

7) ramad al-ayn رمد العين (59v).

8) zulmat al-basar ظلمة البصر (59v-60r) etc.

[2398] fols. 27r-32v: al-Birgili (al-Birkawi) البرگلي (البركوي) : Iqaz al-na'im in إيقاظ النائمين .

The treatise criticizes piety only for the sake of success and reward and was written by the author during 972/1564. According to Hajji Khalifa (sub title) , the text is a reaction to Abu al-Su'ud al-Imadi أبو السعود العمادي (died 982/1574; → GAL II 439; S II 651) who refuted al-Birgili's Inqadh al-halikin إنقاذ الهالكين (GAL II 440 no.1; S II 654 no.1) . Further copies: → Daiber Catalogue, nos. 1 (143r-145r) and 17 (95r-98v) . In the margin are some notes.

[2402] On fols. 41r-v follows a fragment from a commented work on traditions. Wolff, El-Senusi's Begriffsentwicklung des muhammedanischen Glaubensbekenntnisses, arabisch und deutsch, Leipzig 1848; generally, the Ms. does not differ from the printed version. On Sanusi (died 892/1486 or later) → GAL II 250 II; S II 353 II and on his creed compare Daiber, Mu'ammara, p. 188 and references given there.

Our Ms., a Hanafite collection of fatwas, has no author; it mentions the title on fol. 141r (Kitab al-Nuqaya fi ilm al-hidaya) . The author (killed 536/1141 in Samarqand; → GAL S I 640) is mentioned in other mss. (→ Princeton no. 1001) ; unlike to the opinion of Brockelmann (GAL I 374 (2462) no. 3; however, corrected in S I 640 no. 3) the text is different from Ms. Berlin 4812; it is often transmitted anonymously and based on the Fatawa by Qadikhan (died 592/1196; → GAL S I 643f.) .

As the survey of chapters in the catalogue of the Buhar Library (no. 153) shows, the first three chapters (bab باب) of the still unpublished text are missing in our Ms. which starts with the end of the Kitab al-Salat, in the section (fasl فصل) on Salat al-musafir صلاة المسافرين; the missing part is approximately 18 folios in the Buhar Ms. (less than one-third of the whole text) .

On fol. 141v follows a short praise of God and an admonition (maw'iza موعظة).

[2405] fols. 142v-171v: Muhammad Ibn Amr Ibn Ibrahim al-Ballali (= al-Mallali) al-Tilimsani محمد بن إبراهيم البلالي (=الملاي) التلمساني Fath al-mubin فتح المبين, a commentary on al-Sanusi السنوسي, Umm al-barahin أم البراهين.

On al-Tilimsani (wrote ca. 1000/1591) and on more mss. of this still unedited commentary on Sanusi's Creed → GAL II 251 (I 2) and S II 354 (I 2) . On al-Sanusi's Creed → above fols. 42r-48r.

Ms. 146.

92 folios; 16,5×21,2 cm; 11-15 lines; regular naskhi, different hands. Single words are written in red ink. Brownish paper, in part water-stained and repaired (some loss of text on fol. 34r) .

Original pasteboard binding, damaged. Owner's stamp on fol. 1r.

According to a note on fol. 1r the Ms. was bequeathed by Muhammad al-Qarmashli Ibn Ni'ma Ibn Muhammad Ibn Husayn Ibn Hasan Ibn Zulafi Ibn Abd Allah from the tribe al-Zandan in Diyarbakir at the Great Mosque to his son Muhammad Sa'id, to his grandson Muhammad Rashid and to the ulama' of al-Sanah in the year 1269/1852-1853. The full names are added later, with the year 1278/1861-2. On fols. 69v-70r is a list of the birthdays of several persons with dates ranging between the year 1257/1841 and 1284/1867/1868. fol. 31v mentions the scribe "Muhammad" and the year 1241/1825-1826; fol. 93r mentions as date of the copy the year 1253/1837. Parts of the Ms. may have been written by the first owner, Muhammad al-Qarmashli (→ fols. 7r and 32v) .

[2406] fols. 1v-7r: Salih صالح: Kalimat fi bayan madhhab al-ta'ifa al-Yazidiya wa-hukmihim wa-hukm al-amwal al-ka'ina bi-aydihim كلمات في بيان مذهب الطائفة اليزيدية وحكمهم وحكم الأموال الكائنة بأيديهم, with commentary by Muhammad al-Barqal'i محمد البرقلعي.

On the top of the first page the copyist added: hadhihi mas'alatun qala al-Yazidin هذه مسألة قال اليزيديين (sic) . The above-mentioned authors cannot be identified.

The text is an interesting document on the Yezidis, a Kurdish tribe which had their own religion with many syncretistic features (→ Th. Menzel, art. Yazidi in EI IV, 1934) . It was written perhaps at the beginning of the 19th century (or somewhat earlier) , but before 1837, the date of the copy, and starts with a survey of the doctrines of the Yezidis, from the Muslim point of view (fols. 1v-2v) . It continues with a discussion of the legal aspects of those who renounce their Yezidi religion, the conditions of their conversion to Islam and the consequences for their propriety (2v-4v) . This is followed by a commentary, written by Muhammad al-Barqal'i, to the preceding text (fol. 1v4 till 3v, ult.) ; the commented text is introduced by qawluhu قوله and overlined in black ink (fol. 4v6-7r) . Our text is different from a much younger Ms. (written 1305/1889) published by R.Y. Ebied and M.J.L. Young, An Account of the History and Rituals of the Yazidis of Mosul, in: Le Muséon 85, 1972, pp. 481-522; this text does not include a discussion of the legal aspects of Yezidis living in a Muslim environment.

An analysis of our Ms. may contribute to the modern discussion on the Yezidis; → now John S. Guest, The Yezidis: A Study of Survival, London 1987 and the review by M. Together with each tradition Ibn Hajar mentions the transmitters and their reliability. As the author informs us, he used a collection of traditions written by al-Mundhiri المنذري (died 656/1258; → GAL I 367) . Our text is apparently the oldest copy, two years older than

A later hand informs us that Burhan al-Din Sibt Ibn al-Ajami studied this Takhrij together with Zayn al-Din al-Iraqi. This is repeated on fol. 27v in a later confirming note by a different hand, that of Muhammad Ibn Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad al-Sallafi محمد بن إبراهيم بن محمد السلافي who gives the additional information that the copyist of the Takhrij, al-Dahhan Ibn al-Halabi al-Khawafi الدهان بن الحلبي الخوافي , studied the Takhrij together with Burhan al-Din Sibt Ibn al-Ajami. al-Sallafi gives this date: 19 Dhu al-Hijja 876/28 May 1472.

... وعن علي : لو كان الدين بالرأي لكان أسفل الخف أولى بالمسح من أعلاه ، رواه أبو داود ،

In the margin are some notes, in part attributed to Burhan al-Din (Sibt Ibn al-Ajami) .

[2416] fols. 28v-33v: Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Rahman Ibn al-Khidr Ibn Muhammad Ibn al-Imad al-Misri al-Ghazzi Ibn Burayti' al-Misri al-Salihi al-Hanafi, Husam al-Din محمد بن عبد الرحمن بن الخضر بن محمد بن العماد : Manzumat al-fiqh منظومة الفقه المصري الغزي بن بريطع المصري الصالحي الحنفي ، حسام الدين الفقه .

On the author (811-874/1409-1470) and his poem → Kahhale X 139; Zirikli VII 67. Both mention his poem on law, but no manuscript. Our text apparently was copied during the lifetime of the author.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

الحمد لله النعيم حمدا يوافي نعمة الرحيم / والشكر لله على أيد ...

End:

كذا الصلاة والسلام كلا على النبي المصطفى الذي سما ، تمت ، والحمد لله وحده ،

The text should not be confused with Ahmad Ibn Imad al-Din al-Aqfahsi Ibn al-Imad أحمد بن عماد الدين الأقفهسي بن العماد , Manzuma fi al-ma'fawat on which → GAL II 94 no. 4 and S II 110 no.4 and Ms. Daiber,Catalogue, no. 105.

The following two folios are blank.

[2417] fols. 36v-44v: Izz al-Din Abd al-Salam al-Baghdadi al-Hanafi ألغاز : Alghaz Ibn al-Ulawayyif wa-halluha : عز الدين عبد السلام البغدادي الحنفي جواب لغز ابن (or: al-Ulayf) or ابن العلييف وحلها العلييف .

During the first days of Dhu al-Qa'da 849/January 1446 Izz al-Din Abd al-Salam was visited in Cairo by Ahmad Ibn Nizam al-Din Bahram al-Makki al-Shafi'i أحمد بن نظام الدين بهرام المكي الشافعي , who asked him to explain the riddles (alghaz) of verses on different topics made by the well-known poet Badr al-Din Husayn Ibn Isa Ibn Muhammad Ibn Ahmad Ibn Muslim Ibn Akki Ibn al-Ulayyif (or: al-Ulayf) بدر الدين حسين بن عيسى بن محمد بن أحمد بن مسلم بن عكي بن العليف , also called sha'ir al-Batha' شاعر البطحاء .

The full name of the author (770-859/1369-1455) is Izz al-Din Abd al-Salam Ibn Ahmad Ibn Abd al-Mun'im Ibn Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Kaddum Ibn Umar Ibn Sa'id al-Husayni al-Qaylawi عز الدين عبد السلام بن أحمد بن عبد المنعم بن أحمد بن محمد بن سعيد الحسيني القيلوي القاهري الحنبلي الحنفي (→ Kahhale V 222) . He is not mentioned in Brockelmann (GAL) , nor can we find our text in any bio-bibliographical source. The poet Ibn al-Ulayyif (or: Ulayf) can be found in GAL II 171 no.2; it is still unknown whether our verses are included in the collection of Ibn al-Ulayyif's poems compiled by Muhammad Ibn al-Husayn al-Samarqandi al-Makki al-Madani محمد بن الحسين السمرقندي المكي المدني during 1008/1591 (→ GAL) . Noteworthy, however, is the fact that, according to Ibn al-Imad ابن العماد , Shadharat IIX 141, 9f. (taken over by Kahhale I 208) Ibn al-Ulayyif is said to have been born in 851/1447; this cannot be correct, as the author of our text mentions the year 849/1446 and, in addition, refers in the introduction to Shams al-Din Muhammad al-Bisati شمس الدين محمد البساطي , who some time before Izz al-Din already tried to solve the riddles of Ibn al-Ulayyif. As al-Bisati is said to have died in 842/1439 (→ Kahhale VIII 291) this must have been shortly before this date of death. The unavoidable conclusion is therefore that the biobibliographical sources have confused the dates of father and son; according to Ibn al-Imad, Shadharat VIII 141, 8, both are called "Ibn al-Ulayyif (Ulayf) " . The Ms. is collated; a unique and old copy.

The text is perhaps not written by Ibn Arabi (ابن عربي died 638/1240) ; → below the description of fols. 12v-15v, which contain a different and longer text with the same title.

Beginning:

قال الشيخ الأكبر في معناه : وقد ظهر سرّ من هذا الحديث ما يجب كشفه ويستحسن وضعه وهو أنه سبحانه وتعالى وضع هذا الروح الحيوانية في هذه الجنة ...

[2427] fol. 10v4-13: al-Qashani القاشاني: Tafsir تفسير, a fragment.
On Abd al-Razzaq al-Qashani (al-Kashani) (الكاشاني) عبد الرزاق القاشاني , who died in 730/1330, and on his mystical commentary on the Koran, entitled Ta'wilat al-Qur'an تأويلات القرآن , → GAL II 204; S II
280. The commentary is wrongly (→ Yahya, Histoire II 483f.)
ascribed to Ibn Arabi ابن عربي (published in two volumes in Beirut 1968: Ibn Arabi, Tafsir al-Qur'an al-karim تفسير القرآن الكريم).
Our fragment describes the attributes of the soul (nafs نفس);
compare the commentary on Sura 12 (ed. Beirut I 588ff.).

salla Allah ta'ala alayhi wa-sallam: "man arafa nafsahu fa-qad arafa

The Ms. does not mention an author; the text is written either by Ibn Arabi ابن عربي (died 638/1240) or by Awhad al-Din Abd Allah Ibn Mas'ud al-Balbani أوحده الدين عبد الله بن مسعود البلباني (died 686/1287) and is also entitled Risala fi al-ahadiya رسالة في الأحادية; → Yahya, Histoire I, pp.
145f. no. 13; compare Daiber, Mu'ammam, p. 366 and on the history of the formula Alexander Altmann, The Delphic Maxim in Medieval Islam and Judaism, in: Biblical and Other Studies, ed. by A.
Altmann, Cambridge, Mass. 1963, pp. 196-232.
The text on fols. 10r-v with the same title and ascribed to Ibn Arabi is different and much shorter. The mss. listed in Yahya apparently contain the longer text. A comparison of all mss. may shed new light on the still unsolved problems of authorship.

On Sibṭ al-Maridīnī (died 912/1506) and his treatise on the use of the sinus quadrant, commented by al-Sunbati (died 995/1587) → GAL II 168 no. 7b and S II 216 no. 7b.

Our Ms. inorrectly reads al-Sinati السيناتى instead of al-Sunbati السنباطي .

An incorrect reading can also be found in GAL S II 1019 no. 22: "al-Bati الباطي", among not identifiable authors ! The commented text is written in red ink. On Kadusi (= Kadusi Sulayman Murad Efendi كدوسي سليمان مراد أفندي) and his Turkish translation of the Risalat al-Jayb → Bursali III, p. 2197 (mentions as date the year 1268/1851-2).

On fols. 47v-48r follow additional remarks supplementing the preceding treatise.

[2440] fols. 48v-56r: Astronomical tables (in Turkish) , containing the months and their signs of the zodiac. With additional notes interspersed.

fol. 50r: Muhammad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Abd al-Ghani Ibn Mustafa al-Mar'ashi al-Ayntabi = Muhammad Munib al-Ayntabi محمد بن محمد بن محمد بن عبد الغني بن مصطفى المرعشي العينتابي (died 1234/1819; → Kahhale XI 256; XII 54) : al-Awqat الأوقات, apparently only the beginning (7-8 lines) . The title is not mentioned in the biobibliographical sources.

[2441] fols. 56v-59r: Astrological fragments and notes, with drawings on fols. 58r and v.

[2442] fols. 59v-67v: Salim al-Wa'iz al-Mawsili al-Hanafi سليم الواعظ الكواكب الدرية في أصول al-Kawakib al-durriya fi usul al-jafriya :الموصلية الحنفي الجفرية.

The author of this treatise on divination from letters apparently wrote in the 12th/18th century; → Ms. Princeton no. 5147 and further mss. mentioned there. Salim al-Wa'iz is mentioned in GAL S II 1042 no.47 among those authors who cannot be identified.

In the text are some tables and in the margin a few notes.

On jafr → T. Fahd, art. Djafr in EI2 and Fahd, Divination, pp. 219ff.

[2443] fols. 68r-74r: A titleless astrological fragment. The beginning is missing. With a drawing (fol. 70v) and with tables (fol. 72r) . The text begins with a chapter (fasl فصل) on ma'rifat siyasad al-muluk معرفة سياسة الملوك.

[2444] fols. 71r-v is inserted from a different work and contains Nasir al-Din al-Tusi نصير الدين الطوسي: al-Sultaniya fi al-raml السلطانية في الرمل (the beginning is missing) . The Persian version can be found on fols. 74r- 82v: Nasir al-Din al-Tusi: al-Sultaniya fi al-raml = (apparently) al-Wafi fi ilm al-raml الوافي في علم الرمل, in Persian.

The title of this treatise on geomancy (raml; → Fahd, Divination, pp. 147ff.) cannot be found in the text; however, compare fol.

74r22f. with the beginning in Ms. Princeton 5141 and München 880.

The text seems to be identical with Tusi, Risala al-Wafi fi ilm al-raml رسالة الوافي في علم الرمل, of which more mss. are listed in GAL I 512 no. VIII and S I 933 no. VIII.

A short description of Tusi's book on geomancy (according to the Ms. in Munich) can be found in Strothmann pp. 66f.

[2445] fols. 83r-84r: Some explanations and notes concerning astrology, in Turkish.

[2446] fols. 84r-90r: Abu Abd Allah Zanati Maghribi أبو عبد الله زناتي في بيان شرائط الرمل: Fi bayan shara'it al-raml مغربي.

On geomancy, in Turkish. Abu Abd Allah al-Zanati الزناتي (lived before A.D. 1230, apparently belonged to the North African Berber tribe of Zanata (زناتة) is mentioned as authority in two Arabic mss. on raml (رمل) (mss. Berlin 4201 and 4202) ; our text is perhaps a fragment from a Turkish translation of Zanati, Hulul al-ashkal = Kitab al-Fasl fi usul al-raml (حلول الأشكال = كتاب الفصل في أصول الرمل) mentioned with some mss. in Fahd, Divination, pp. 201f.; on prints → Savage-Smith p. 3, n. 8) or of Zanati, al-Aqwal al-mardiya fi al-ahkam al-ramliya (الأقوال المرضية في الأحكام الرملية) mentioned by Savage-Smith) .

In the margin are some notes. On fol. 90v follows a note on Ali علي, in Turkish.

[2447] fols. 91r-v: Ahmad Zarruq al-Burnusi al-Fasi أحمد زروق البرنسي Ta'sis al-qawa'id wa-al-usul wa-tahsil al-fawa'id li-dhawi al-usul (الفاسي: تأسيس القواعد والأصول وتحصيل الفوائد لذوي الأصول) a fragment, in Turkish. On the author (died 899/1493) and the Arabic original of this treatise on mysticism → GALII 253 no. 3 (Tamhid/Ta'sis aqa'id al-tasawwuf wa-usulihi (تمهيد / تأسيس عقائد التصوف وأصوله) and Kahhale I 155 (Ta'sis al-qawa'id wa-al-usul wa-tahsil al-fawa'id li-dhawi al-wusul fi al-tasawwuf (تأسيس القواعد والأصول وتحصيل الفوائد لذوي الوصول في التصوف).

[2448] fols. 91v-92r: Adud al-Din al-Ijzi :عضد الدين الإيجي al-Risala al-wad'iya (الرسالة الوضعية). On the author (died 756/1355) and his semantic treatise → GAL II 208 no. III; S II 288 no. III; on a Ms. with commentary → Daiber, Catalogue, no. 1, fols. 91v-132v.

[2449] fols. 92v and 93r contain some notes and excerpts, in Turkish.

[2450] fols. 93v-101v: Abu al-Qasim Ibn Abi Bakr al-Laythi al-Samarqandi (أبو القاسم بن أبي بكر الليثي السمرقندي) Fara'id al-fawa'id (awa'id) li-tahqiq ma'ani al-isti'ara (عوائد) =فرائد الفوائد (عوائد) لتحقيق معاني الاستعارة

al-Samarqandiya رسالة السمرقندية or Risalat al-isti'ara al-Samarqandiya رسالة الاستعارة السمرقندية, with commentary (شرح) and with glosses (تقرير) which in part are in Turkish.

On al-Samarqandi (wrote in the 9th/15th century) , his treatise on the metaphor and the numerous comments → GAL II 194 no. I and S II 259 no. I. Our Ms. has the title Taqrir al-isti'ara تقرير الاستعارة; however, it mentions no author. fol. 93v3f. is a quotation from the beginning of the Risala al-Samarqandiya.

In the margin are some notes. On fol. 101v follows a short excerpt from a work by Ayn al-qudat Hamadani (عين القضاة همداني (died 525/1131; → GAL S I 674f.) , in Turkish.

[2451] fols. 102r-104r: Notes and excerpts (in part in Turkish) from different works on astrology and divination, including one table and three circles.

[2452] fols. 104v-106v: Ahmad Ibn Taj al-Din أحمد بن تاج الدين : Risala رسالة (في الجفر) (fi al-jafr) .

The author of this treatise on divination from letters refers to a question which he was asked during 1073/1662-63 (105r3-6) ; therefore we can conclude that the end of the 11th/17th century was the lifetime of the author. He is perhaps identical with Ahmad Ibn Ibrahim أحمد بن إبراهيم , who died ca. 1100/1689 (→ Kahhale I 179) . On fols. 106r and v are two tables.

Ms. 150.

[2453] fols. 2r-4r: Abu Ishaq Ibrahim Ibn Muhammad Ibn Mahmud al-Naji al-Dimashqi al-Shafi'i أبو إسحاق إبراهيم بن محمد بن محمود الناجي الدمشقي الشافعي : al-Mu'in ala fi'l sunnat al-talqin المعين على فعل سنة التلقين

On the author (810/1407-900/1495) and this text → Kahhale I 106; GAL II 98; S II 117 no. 10. Up to now only one Ms. (Cambridge 1347,13) was known. This rare treatise is different from the anonymous Talqin ba'd al-dafn (تلقين بعد الدفن) (Princeton 1967) ; it is an instruction for the dead and is an elaboration of a chapter in the Hadith, the Kitab al-jana'iz كتاب الجنائز → e.g. Ibn Maja ابن ماجة , Sunan Kitab al-Jana'iz سنن كتاب الجنائز → e.g. Ibn Maja ابن ماجة , Sunan Kitab al-Jana'iz سنن كتاب الجنائز = ed. Muhammad Fu'ad Abd al-Baqi (Cairo 1952) I, no. 1444-6.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

الحمد لله الذي وفقنا لإتباع الكتاب السنة وجعلها للمتمسك بهما أوقى جنة ... وبعد فمن المعلوم المعمول به قديما حديثا بلا شك ولا إنكار تلقين الميت بعد الدفن والمختار انه قيل إهالة التراب بأن ينادى : يا عبد الله بن أمة الله أو نحو هذا ...

End:

According to the colophon, the text was jotted down (ta'liq تعليق) by Ibrahim Ibn Uthman Ibn Muhammad إبراهيم بن عثمان بن محمد , the copyist. He copied (as the following texts) this treatise during the lifetime of the author.

[2454] fols. 4v-6v: al-Naji الناجي: Tathbit qawl "sami'a Allah li-man hamidahu" تثبت قول "سمع الله لمن حمده"

On the author → preceding text. This title is not mentioned in the bio-bibliographical sources. It is an explanation of the custom to say

"sami'a Allah li-man hamidahu" when one raises one's head when one bows in the prayer ceremony.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

الحمد لله على ما أنعم وصلى الله على سيدنا محمد وعلى آل محمد وصحبه وسلم وبعد : فإن السنة عند إمامنا الشافعي رضي الله عنه لكل مصلٍّ من إمام ومأموم ومنفرد إذا ابتدأ برفع رأسه من الركوع أن يقول "سمع الله لمن حمده" فإذا انتصب قائماً واعتدل بعوده إلى الهيئة التي كان عليها ...

[2455] fols. 7r-9r: al-Naji الناجي : Fi dhikr shafa'at nabiyina

Muhammad salla Allah alayhi wa-sallam في ذكر شفاعة نبيينا محمد صلى الله عليه وسلم .

On the author → fols. 2r-4r. This text on the intercession (shafa'at) of the Prophet is not mentioned in any bio-bibliographical source . It is possible that it is a chapter in al-Naji, Kanz al-raghibin al-ufat fi al-ramz fi al-mawlud al-Muhammadi wa-al-wafat كنز الراغبين العفاة في الرمز في المولود المحمدي والوفاة : compare the description of Ms. Berlin 2574. At the end the copyist added: Min fawa'id shaykhina al-shaykh al-Hafiz Burhan al-Din al-Naji من فوائد شيخنا الشيخ الحافظ برهان الدين الناجي "Part of the notes by ...Burhan al-Din al-Naji".

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

الحمد لله الذي علمنا ما لم نكن نعلم وكان فضله علينا عظيماً وصلى الله ... وبعد : فلنبينا في الآخرة شفاعات رزقناها الله ووفقنا لجميع الطاعات ...

End:

On the author → fols. 2r-4r. This text on traditions concerning the eating of egg-plant (badhinjan) is not mentioned in any biobibliographical source.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

الحمد لله الذي علم الإنسان ما لم يعلم وصلى الله على سيدنا محمد ... هذا شيء مكتوب ردًا لجواب عجيب

(metre: basit بسيط) in praise of the Prophet Muhammad (fols. 11v-12v) is identical with Ms. Berlin 7888, fols. 36v-39r.

On fols. 14r-v follow some notes which begin with an excerpt from al-Subki السبكي, Arus al-afrah عروس الأفراح (title not mentioned in GAL).

Ms. 151.

65 folios; 15,5×21,5 cm (fols. 1-29v) and 16,5×21,5 cm; 19 lines (fols. 1-29v) and 17-25 lines; naskhi by three different hands, single words are written in red ink or overlined in black; drawings and tables on fols. 30r, 32v, 33v, 36r, 37v, 39r-v, 41r, 51v-53r, 54r, 55r-65r. Two folios are inserted between fols. 41 and 42. The paper is slightly damaged and damp-stained. Pasteboard binding, damaged; spine repaired. The first 29 folios were copied by Ilyas Ibn Muhammad al-Irbili in the year 1238/1822-23; the other parts of the mss. seem to have been copied at a similar time.

Glosses by Qara Da'ud on al-Jurjani (died 816/1413) , al-Kuchak. This work by al-Jurjani contain glosses on Muhammad Ibn Qutb al-Din al-Razi al-Tahtani (died 766/1364) , تحرير القواعد المنطقية (= القطبي) (= القطبي) (= القطبي) , a commentary on part I (al-Tasawwurat التصورات) from Najm al-Din Ali Ibn Umar al-Qazwini al-Katibi (died 675/1276 or later) , al-Risala al-Shamsiya fi al-qawa'id al-mantiqiya الرسالة الشمسية في القواعد المنطقية

On more mss. and two old printings (Calcutta 1230/1815; Cairo 1323-7/1905-9) of this text on logic → GAL I 466 no. I 1, a, a; S I 845 no. I 1, a, a.

The colophon of the Ms. ascribes the glosses to Ibn Nasr (?) Da'ud al-Khawafi (؟) داوود الخوافي . A comparison of our text with Ms. Berlin 5262 enables us to identify the author as Qara Da'ud who, according to Ahlwardt (description of Ms. Berlin 5262) , wrote about 810/1407 and was a pupil of Sa'd al-Din al-Taftazani سعد الدين (died 791/1389 or later) . Ahlwardt denies any identity with Da'ud Ibn Kamal al-Qujawi (داوود بن كمال القوجوي) (died 948/1541) . Such an identification can be found in Brockelmann (GAL) ; it seems to be doubtful. Perhaps the author should be identified as Muhammad Ibn Shihab al-Din Ibn Mahmud Ibn Muhammad Ibn Yusuf Ibn al-Hasan al-Khawafi (محمد بن شهاب الدين بن محمود بن محمد بن يوسف بن الحسن الخوافي 777-852/1375-1449: → Kahhale X 73) who is said to have written a book on logic and glosses on "Adud عضد" = al-Risala al-Adudiya رسالة في آداب Adud al-Din al-Iji's Risala fi adab al-bahth = الرسالة العضدية . الرسالة الوضعية or his Risala al-wad'iya .

Our Ms. is incomplete at the beginning; the colophon differs slightly from that in Ms. Berlin 5262.

[2460] fols. 30r-49v: Baha' al-Din al-Amili بهاء الدين العاملي : Khulasat al-hisab خلاصة الحساب .

On the text on arithmetic and its author → description of Ms. 124.

The Ms. is incomplete at the beginning and has a lacuna between fols. 33 and 34. It starts in the first chapter (fols. 30r-33v) and fol. 34r continues in the middle of chapter 2 (→ Ms. Berlin 5998) .

[2461] fols. 50r-65r: Shams al-Din Muhammad Ibn Ashraf al-Husayni al-Samarqandi شمس الدين محمد بن أشرف الحسيني السمرقندي : Ashkal al-ta'sis (= al-Risala al-riyadiya) (= الرسالة الرياضية) with أشكال التأسيس commentary by Musa Ibn Muhammad al-Rumi Qadizade موسى بن محمد الرومي قاضي زاده .

On this still unedited compendium of Euclid's geometry, its author (still alive 700/1300) and the commentary by Qadizade (died 815/1412) → GAL I 468 no. III and S I 850 no. III; on Qadizade → GAL I 212.

The text is incomplete at the end, as a comparison with Ms. Berlin 5943 shows. In the margin are many geometrical drawings and a few glosses.

Ms. 152.

42 folios; 12,7×19,9 cm; 17-27 lines; naskhi; three different hands. Spotted and water-stained paper. Copied during 1200/1785-6 (fols. 20r, 21r, 22r, 24v) and 1179/1765-6 (fol. 42r; copyist: Mustafa Abd Allah) in the Madrasat Kuluk [= apparently the Turkish town Kölük between Urfa and Malatya] (20r,7; 24v) .

[2462] fols. 1v-19v: Anonymous (= perhaps Abd al-Haqq Miskin Ibn Sayf al-Din Ibn Sa'd Allah al-Dihlawi عبد الحق مسكين بن سيف الدين بن سعد الله الفرقيات : al-Farqiyat (الدهلوي

The author of this lexicographical treatise on selected terms in alphabetical sequence with special regard to differences in meaning compared with "synonyms" cannot be identified. He quotes quite a lot of older authorities like Akhfash أخفش, Kisa'i كسائي, al-Farra' الفراء, Jawhari جوهري, Sibawayh سيوييه, Ibn al-Sikkit ابن السكيت, Zamkhshari زمخشري etc., but also later works on ta'rifat تعريفات (e.g. by Jurjani جرجاني) and works on theology. Several times the author mentions as source Dede Khalifa (died 966/1558; Kahhale I 125) . This is not the latest authority, however; a terminus post quem is a quotation from Khalkhali's خالخال glosses to Dawwani دواني (died 907/1501; → GAL S II 209 no. VII 1a) . Khalkhali died 1014/1605, and as the Ms. was copied in the 2nd half of the 18th century our text apparently was composed before or during the 2nd half of the 12th/18th century. Bio-bibliographical sources mention two authors who wrote on furuq فروق in the 18th century:

1) Abu al-Fida' Isma'il Haqqi al-Brusawi أبو الفداء إسماعيل حقي البروسوي (died 1137/1724) ; his Kitab al-Furuq كتاب الفروق is printed in Istanbul 1251/1835 (→ GAL S II 653 no. 9) and preserved in two mss. in Princeton (→ Princeton 3775) .

2) Ni'mat Allah al-Jaza'iri نعمة الله الجزائري (died 1130/1718 or 1121/1700) wrote a treatise on Furuq al-lugha فروق اللغة (→ GAL S II 586; not mentioned in Kahhale XIII 110!) . A new edition (Furuq al-lughat) appeared 1380/1961 in Najaf (ed. Asad Allah al-Isma'iliyan (أسد الله الإسماعيليان) and 1987 in Damascus (ed. Muhammad Radwan al-Daya (محمد رضوان الداية) . A comparison with this edition and with the quotations in Khwansari (خوانساري), Rawdat al-jannat fi ahwal al-ulama' wa-al-sadat (روضات الجنات في أحوال العلماء والسادات VIII (Beirut 1390/1970) , 53,9-11 confirms that our text is not written by al-Jaza'iri.

The authorship of the above mentioned Haqqi Brusawi is doubtful too:

a) our text gives Persian equivalents several times;
b) a passage on fol. 14v2, namely wa-dhakara m (= al-musannif, the author of our text) fi sharhihi lil-Masabih anna al-qadara tafsil qada'ih... hints at an author among the numerous commentators on al-Baghawi (البغوي (died 516/1122 or later) , Kitab Masabih al-sunna (كتاب مصابيح السنة). In the list of commentators given by Brockelmann (GAL I 364; S I 620-622) we find Abd al-Haqq Miskin Ibn Sayf al-Din Ibn Sa'd Allah al-Dihlawi (died 1052/1642) as Persian translator and commentator of the Masabih (مصابيح, entitled Lama'at al-tanqih (لمعات التنقيح or Ashi''at al-lama'at (أشعة اللمعات (GAL I 364 I end; S I 621f.; Kahhale V 91) . al-Dihlawi is also known as commentator on al-Sakhawi (السخاوي (died 634/1243) , Sifr al-sa'ada wa-safir al-ifada fi al-lugha (سفر السعادة وسفير الإفادة في اللغة al-lugha grammar al-Mufassal (المفصل (GAL I 291 no. 4a; S I 510 no. 4a) . Therefore, we may assume that al-Dihlawi is author of the Farqiyat. This text belongs to the very few treatises on furuq al-lugha (فروق اللغة) . Two older examples are: Abu Hilal al-Askari (أبو هلال العسكري (died 395/1005; → GAL S I 193f.) , al-Furuq al-lughawiya (الفروق اللغوية (ed. Husam al-Din al-Qudsi (حسام الدين القدسي, Cairo 1353/1934-5) ; and Abu al-Hasan Sa'id Ibn Hibat Allah Ibn al-Hasan (أبو الحسن سعيد بن هبة الله بن الحسن (436/1044-495/1101) , Maqala fi dhikr al-furuq wa-al-hudud (مقالة في ذكر الفروق والحدود which is still unedited (on two mss. → GAL I 486 no.

3; S I 888 no. 6; a 3rd Ms. is Academia das Ciencias de Lisboa V.292, fols. 1v-32r) .

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

وبه نستعين ، الفرق بين الأَل والأهْل : الأَل لا يستعمل إلا في الأَشْرَاق والأهْل يستعمل في الأَشْرَاق وغيره ، كذا في المصلوب ، الفرق بين الأَل والأصحاب ...

End:

والثاني أشدّ من الأول لاحتياج الأَكْسَاب بينهما قطعاً بخلاف الأول ، تمت الفرقيات بعون الله الملك الوهاب ،

On fol. 11r, 16 the bab al-ta' is missing; it is added on fols.

27r-v.

[2463] fols. 19v-20r7: Anonymous (= al-Dihlawi? (الدهلوي) ؟) : Risala fi huruf al-ta'rif رسالة في حروف التعريف

A grammatical treatise on the four meanings of the determining letters. As the author refers to some texts which are also quoted in the preceding treatise, it may have been written by the same scholar.

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

الحمد لمن عرف بجهولنا والصلوة على سيدنا والمشفع ذنوبنا ، وبعد فقد لاح لنا بعد تتبع كلام العلماء المهرة واستقصاء تحقيقات ...

End:

... وللمؤمنين يوم يقوم الحساب ، تمت هذه الرسالة في مدرسة كولوك سنة ١٢٠٠ ،

[2464] fols. 20r8-20v: Anonymous: A short grammatical treatise, in Turkish.

[2465] fols. 20v-21r: Anonymous (perhaps Abu Sa'id Muhammad Ibn Mustafa al-Khadimi (أبو سعيد محمد بن مصطفى الخادمي)) : A titleless treatise on the smoking of tobacco (perhaps: Risalat al-Dukhan رسالة الدخان) .

Beginning (after the Basmala) :

الحمد لوليه والصلوة على نبيه وآله ، وبعد فأمر الدخان كثر فيه الفتاوى ...

End:

ثم كتبت كتابي بالقلم العلل ثم بعد الزمان يكون من الدلائل إلى توفيق الرحمن ذي الجلال سنة ١٢٠٠ ،

The beginning of the text is nearly identical with three mss. in Princeton (no. 2087) where it is ascribed to Abu Sa'id Muhammad Ibn Mustafa al-Khadimi (أبو سعيد محمد بن مصطفى الخادمي (died 1176/1762; → GAL II 446; S II 663f.) . Bursali I 298 no. 21 mentions among the works by al-Khadimi a treatise entitled Risalat al-dukhan. This may have been the title of our text.

[2466] fols. 21r-22r: Anonymous: Kitab al-Hisab كتاب الحساب.
Further mss. of this short introduction to arithmetic are Mingana no. 1900 and Princeton 4844. The title can be found in the Princeton Ms.

On the author (wrote around 888/1483) and this treatise about the metaphor → description of text no. [\[2192\]](#).

The Ms. has neither title nor author. A modern hand added the wrong identification "al-Farida ala Isam (الفريدة على عصام)". fols. 25-26 are blank; fols. 27r-v is a supplement to the text on fols. 1v-19v and should be inserted on fol. 11r,16.

[2468] fols. 28v-42r: Athir al-Din al-Abhari (أثير الدين الأبهري): Kitab al-Isaghuji = al-Risala al-Athiriya fi al-mantiq (كتاب الإيساجوجي = الرسالة الأثيرية في المنطق) with anonymous Turkish commentary.

On al-Abhari's introduction to logic → description of Ms. 83. The commented Arabic text is overlined in black ink.

Appendix:

An Old Manuscript of the Druze Canon.

Ms. 153.

153 folios; 14,5×10 cm; 11-13 lines; partly vocalized and carefully written naskhi. Single words and partly the chapter-headings are written in red ink. Moreover, the chapter-headings are written with great letters. Fols. 1-41 and 152 are copied by a different (perhaps slightly later) hand and on paper which differs from the rest: it is less thick and is not as smooth as fols. 42-151. Chapter-headings of this section are rendered in red, black or green ink. - In the margin are sometimes a few commenting or supplementing notes.

Brownish and dirty paper, partly damaged and badly repaired: therefore, some loss of text (a few words) on fols. 46v, 87r-v, 96r-97v. The beginning of the >Ms. is missing. Original leather binding (partly damaged and repaired) with a few geometrical ornaments. The Ms. is undated; paper and ink point at a very old age. It seems to be copied in the 8/14th or 9/15th century and therefore is one of the oldest Druze manuscripts. Like Ms. 64 it contains a collection of mostly unpublished texts belonging to the Druze Canon.

The beginning and the title of the text are missing. Compare, however, Ms. Berlin 4325. The text is a refutation of a Nusayri and his Kitab al-Haqa'iq wa-kashf al-mahjub كتاب الحقائق وكشف المحجوب. On the authorship compare Wehr, Zu den Schriften Hamza's im Drusenkanon, ZDMG 96, 1942, p. 205.
